Authority (Ord., Res.): Ord. 122749		Term of Office: From: Confirmation To: December 31, 2014 (expiration of the Levy)

Background:

David Boyd is a long-time community activist in Ballard. Since 1993 he has served on the Board of Groundswell Northwest, a community organization dedicated to making northwest Seattle a greener, more livable community, and recently served as Groundswell's Board president. In 2008 Mr. Boyd served on the advisory committee that led to formation of the Parks and Green Spaces Levy and has been involved, both through Groundswell and his own interests, in the Levy's development of new and improved parks in Ballard.

In addition to his rich community ties and long history of work on behalf of parks in Ballard, Mr. Boyd will bring to the Oversight Committee the knowledge and artistic eye of an architect. Planning and architecture work for both the City of Seattle and currently the City of Bothell provides Mr. Boyd with very relevant knowledge of planning and development processes that will make him an excellent Oversight Committee member.
