CHAIRMAN

1-170-3M—1-16-08

To the Mayor and Council of the City of Seattle:

Your invitation to attend the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition was duly received, presented to our Common Council at its session of June 21st, and being impossible for the Mayor or Council to attend, by unanimous vote the bearer, Alderman

George D. Wood,

President of our Board of Public Works, was chosen and delegated to represent this city.

We bespeak for him your kindly services in making his visit pleasant and instructive.

It is our best wish that the Exposition will be more than successful and the largest hopes of its projectors realized.

Done at the Mayor's office in the city of Appleton, Wisconsin, this 30th day of June, A. D. 1909.

R. C. Wolter
Mayor.

Attest:
[illegible]
City Clerk.
