City of Seattle

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Steve Pool marks an incredible 40 years with KOMO-TV as the principle weather anchor and during his time, Steve has become a regular in Seattle and Western Washington households; and

WHEREAS, thousands of Seattleites and people across this region depend on Steve's forecasts to help inform and shape their days and have made his work an integral part of their daily lives; and

WHEREAS, Steve has developed a national presence in the world of broadcast journalism, appearing as a guest weather anchor on Good Morning America over 80 times and was part of the news team that twice won the Edward R. Murrow Award, one of the highest awards in journalism; and

WHEREAS, over the course of his career, Steve has been honored numerous times with Seven Emmy awards, a Sigma Delta Chi Society of Professional Journalism award, New York International Film Festival Gold and Bronze medals, National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, Academy of Religious Broadcasting Lifetime Achievement Award, and induction into the University of Washington Communications Hall of Fame; and

WHEREAS, outside of his work in the newsroom, Steve has made tremendous community contributions, as well as serving on the boards of organizations including Seattle Children's Hospital, Museum of Flight, Boy Scouts of America Rainier Council, the Boys and Girls Club, ALS Foundation, Susan G. Komen Foundation, and many others; and

WHEREAS, we wish Steve a wonderful 40th anniversary and look forward to seeing many more years of his incredible television presence,

NOW, THEREFORE I, EDWARD B. MURRAY, MAYOR OF SEATTLE, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM SEPTEMBER 6TH, 2016 TO BE IN HONOR OF

Steve Pool

Mayor Edward B. Murray
City of Seattle