Statement of Legislative Intent:

The Council intends to increase funding for organizations to perform worker outreach and business outreach for the purpose of providing education, ensuring compliance with the city’s labor laws, and to provide additional funding for staff investigators at the Office of Labor Standards (OLS). It intends to do so by establishing a new dedicated source of funding for OLS as well as having the City enter into contracts with trusted partner organizations and associations in order to provide additional resources for outreach, compliance education and assistance, and enforcement.

Council requests that the Executive provide staffing and appropriate resources to support Council Central Staff’s analysis of how best to raise these dedicated funds, including potentially a one-cent-per-hour-worked-in-Seattle supplemental business license fee, an increase in the annual business license fee, or other options. This analysis should include:

- An estimate of the amount raised through each dedicated source considered.
- How other Washington cities like Redmond and Vancouver have created similar dedicated sources and how much is raised.
- Any changes in law, policies, or regulations necessary to implement such a dedicated source.
- A needs assessment to determine how to most effectively apportion new revenue between education, investigations and enforcement by OLS or community and business outreach and education by community-based organizations.

- An implementation strategy and timeline.
- Model legislation to implement the dedicated source with the funds being dedicated to worker outreach, business outreach, and OLS.

The Council specifically intends that a significant portion of new funds to be used for community-based organizations, under contract with OLS, to provide the outreach and compliance education and assistance for employees and employers.

The Council also intends that the funds will be used to contract with business association(s) with dedicated business outreach, education, and technical assistance programs targeting small businesses and/or businesses associated with high-violation industries.

Central Staff's findings and recommendations should be submitted to the chair of the Council's committee with oversight of the City's labor laws no later than April 1, 2016.

Background:

The City's Office of Labor Standards (OLS) is a division of the Office for Civil Rights and is responsible for the administration of the City's labor laws. Effective administration of these laws requires strong compliance, education and enforcement activities, as well as outreach to employees and employers.
