1. Why do you want to become a member of the Seattle Youth Commission? I would like to become a part of the Seattle Youth Commission because I feel like it would be a good opportunity for me to make a difference in my community, and to help make everyone's voices heard. I also feel like this is a good opportunity for me because I think that I have some great ideas that my community would benefit from hearing.

2. What issues are you passionate about in your community, and why? I am very passionate about many things but if I could only choose one issue, I would choose rights in schools. I feel like students do not get the rights that they deserve when they are in school.

3. What are your greatest strengths, and in what areas would you like to improve? My strengths are definitely persuasion and leadership. I would like to improve on staying focused and brainstorming ideas.

4. As a Youth Commissioner, you'll spend a lot of time working in groups. What's your most comfortable role in a group? I feel like I would be a good leader in a group, because I try to make everyone's voice heard and I love listing to peoples ideas.

5. As mentioned above, being a Youth Commissioner requires a significant time commitment. Will you be able to attend meetings every Wednesday during the school year from 4-5:30 pm at City Hall (in downtown Seattle)? Yes

Explanation (optional):

Is there anything else you'd like to share? I am very excited about this opportunity and if I am chosen I will be sure to be very committed to the position.

How did you hear about the Youth Commission? I heard about it on Twitter.
