Background:

New appointment

Katya Anderson will be an 8th-grader at Washington Middle School next year, where she plays in the orchestra. She's also taking Albebra 1 classes online through Johns Hopkins University, and she participates in her Unitarian Sunday school and takes art and writing classes at Coyote Central. She's interested in being on the commission so that she can help City government make more effective policies that better support teens, as well as getting more youth interested in government. Education is her biggest issue, but she's also passionate about lowering the voting age, mixed-income housing, and increasing mixed-use development. She wants to be an urban planner someday.
