Background:

New appointment

Vachiraya will be a senior at the Northwest School next year. She's a Thai citizen whose parents still live in Thailand, and she's gone to school in four different countries over the course of her life. She's a member of the Asian American Association and the International Interest Group at her school, and this year she also participated in a project to build houses for migrant farm workers in eastern Washington. She's also volunteered tutoring youth in Seattle and working with high schoolers in Thailand. She's interested in being on the commission to share her cultural experiences with other teens in the city and learn from them at the same time, and she's passionate about cultural integration of people from other countries and helping prevent youth violence and bullying.
