John Page

PROGRAM COORDINATOR 2010–PRESENT
The Defender Association – Racial Disparity Project
Develop and implement a pre-booking diversion model in specific areas of Seattle with the hopes of expanding the model throughout King County. Work to fully implement the program with law enforcement, community stakeholders, and service providers who will adhere to principles of harm reduction around service delivery and treatment to participants diverted through the program. As part of a peer-based outreach model, create a strong leadership development component among participants within the program.

COMMUNITY ORGANIZER/TRAINER 2006-PRESENT
The People's Institute Northwest – Seattle, WA
Coordinate the organizing activities of the regional office of the People's Institute for Survival and Beyond. In addition to handling daily office functions, responsibilities also include staff supervision, grant research and application processing, and the coordination of regional trainings and technical assistance. Co-facilitate Undoing Racism training workshops and technical assistance.

TRANSITION COUNSELOR 2000-2006
MCC/MSU & WSRU – Monroe, WA
Assist prisoners with developing viable and effective release plans by assessing their unique situations and identifying goals that will allow them to successfully transition back into the community. Provide peer counseling to develop immediate and long-term goals regarding employment, education, housing, substance abuse treatment and follow-up, and medical and dental care. Research the availability of various resources throughout Washington State through the Access Washington Resource Directory Database (AWRD pc 2000). Effectively communicate the processes involved in securing these resources and services to a diverse group of people. Develop and maintain important contacts with various individuals, agencies, and organizations in order to have the most accurate information regarding their programs.

PURCHASING/ACCOUNTS PAYABLE CLERK 2001-2003
C.I. Print Shop, WSRU – Monroe, WA
Responsibilities include procuring all equipment, supplies, and merchandise necessary for the daily operations of the C.I. Print Shop, Tab Shop, and Laundry. Receive, process, and batch all invoices. Ensure prompt and accurate payment of all invoices. Maintain a database of all purchases, invoices, and batches as well as generate reports using MS Access. Also use Great Plains Dynamics accounting software to generate purchase orders and track purchases.
