Background:

RE-appointment

Andrew Lofton is the Deputy Executive Director of the Seattle Housing Authority. He is a graduate of University of Puget Sound with a BA in Urban Studies. An employee for the City of Seattle for over 30 years, Mr. Lofton has led a very distinguished public service career. As the Mayor's Chief of Departmental Operations, Mr. Lofton oversaw all 26 executive departments and offices of the City of Seattle; and as Budget Director he managed development and management of the City's $1 billion budget. Andrew's current work at the Seattle Housing Authority helps to create and sustain decent, safe and affordable living environments that foster stability and self-sufficiency for low-income residents of Seattle. Andrew uses his wealth of experience around the inner workings of government and politics to balance and guide the commission.
