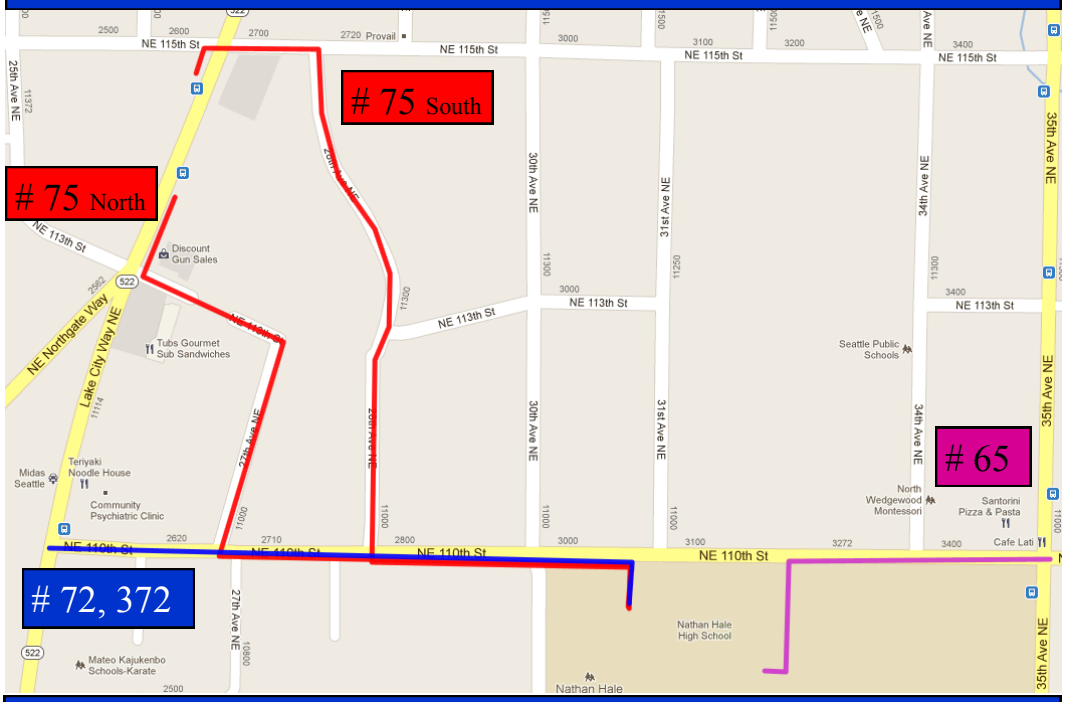
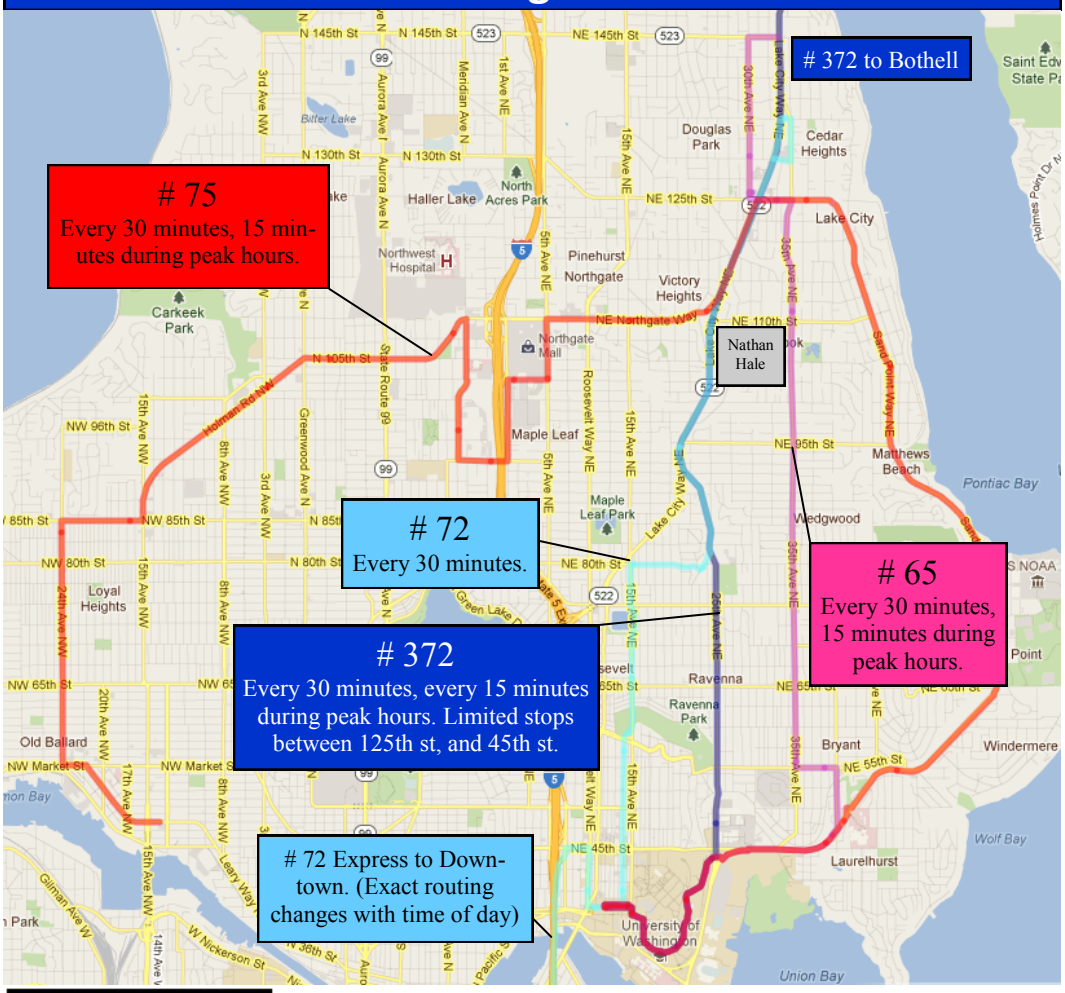
Getting to Nathan Hale by Transit

Walking to Bus Stops



Routes Serving Nathan Hale



How to Pay

You can use the card on the bus, light rail, ferry, and commuter rail anywhere in King, Pierce, or Snohomish Counties. (Note: Fares may exceed $1.25. Add cash to your card accordingly)

If you live more than 2 miles away

You will receive a free ORCA Card with a pass worth any $1.25 (youth) fare. Tap it on the scanner when you get on the bus.

Don't damage or loose your card. Your first replacement will cost $5, your second will cost $25

If you live less than 2 miles away

Seattle Public Schools will not pay for your commute. To purchase a youth Orca Card and fill it with cash/a pass, go in person to a retail outlet during office hours. (The closest locations to Nathan Hale are the Westlake Tunnel Station, and the Lynwood Transit Center)

More info

www.orcacard.com

Real Time Arrival Information

If your bus is late, or if its re-routed, you can use the resources below to make your commute easier.

OneBusAway

OneBusAway tells you how many minutes it will be before a bus arrives at your stop, and how late or early it is.

More Info

www.onebusaway.org

Transit Alerts

Sign up for text message or email alerts from Metro. They will tell you if buses are on snow routes, if there is a large amount of traffic somewhere, if buses are rerouted, etc.

More Info

metro.kingcounty.gov/signup

Bothell, Lake City Residents

Along with the route 372 (which runs all day), routes 306, 309, and 312 provide peak service from Lake City Way to/from Downtown every 5-10 minutes. Get off at Lake City Way and 110th st. (See blue line above) for Nathan Hale.

Seattle Youth Commission

Comments?

This document was created by the Seattle Youth Commission. Give us your feedback.

www.seattle.gov/syc

More Information

Bus Schedules

metro.kingcounty.gov

Online Trip Planner

www.soundtransit.org/Trip-Planner.xml