Background: New Appointment

Nathan is probably cooking a feast with fresh herbs as you read this. The heavy perfume of a blooming orchid might mingle with the sharp scent of garlic before it passes through the tangled vines that frame the open window overlooking the bustle of Pike street. Whether fiercely biking up a staggering hill, or brushing through the aisles of a local coop--- Nathan is likely thinking about community organizing and structures of power and privilege along the way. Bravely reconciling a Bachelors Degree in Molecular Biology with the current pursuit of a Masters in Public Administration, Nathan applies a rich history of academic and practical experience toward nonprofit leadership, innovation, and LGBTQ empowerment. Nathan is currently a board member of the Pierce County AIDS Foundation, as well as Vice-chair of the United Communities AIDS Network Board. In previous years, Nathan has served a term as a Trustee of the Evergreen State College, as appointed by Governor Chris Gregoire, as well as two consecutive terms as Board President of Stonewall Youth, a thriving Queer Youth empowerment organization that has been transforming lives in Olympia for twenty years. Nathan brings trans identity to the commission, as well as youth, vision, and skill.
