CITY CLERK

City of Seattle
Edward B. Murray, Mayor

September 11, 2014

Dear Councilmember Harrell:

Roslyn Kagy was appointed by former Mayor Mike McGinn on September 30, 2013 to the Seattle Women's Commission. However, the appointment did not follow the usual and customary procedures, including confirmation by the City Council, and, therefore, Roslyn Kagy is not officially an appointee to the Seattle Women's Commission. I would like to appoint Roslyn Kagy to the Seattle Women's Commission for the term beginning September 30, 2013 and ending July 1, 2015. My intention is to honor Roslyn Kagy's original appointment and allow her to complete the duration of their intended appointment.

I appreciate you hearing this matter. Please do not hesitate to let me know if I can provide any additional information.

Sincerely,

Mayor Edward B. Murray
City of Seattle

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Youth Advocate & Program Coordinator, New Futures, Burien, WA

August 2011 – Present
At New Futures, a nationally recognized nonprofit whose mission is to partner with families to create communities where children thrive, I serve as Youth Program Coordinator where I conduct outreach to and build relationships with middle and high school youth and their families to teach and empower them to advocate for themselves, strengthen families and transform their communities. My duties as Youth Program Coordinator include:

- Coordinate and facilitate after school program for students to provide academic and social support
- Partner with external organizations and connect youth to outside programs and resources
- Create individual plans in partnership with youth and families to develop long term plans for future
- Coordinate student, parent, school, and community workshops and meetings on a regular basis
- Recruit, hire, train, and supervise support staff
- Conduct home visits and provide ongoing supportive services to families that promote family learning and foster self sufficiency
- collect data, conduct evaluations and surveys, evaluate program performance on a regular and ongoing basis, make recommendations, respond to findings
- Conduct community outreach, build partnerships, and communicate mission and philosophy of organization through presentations, trainings, and community relationships

Director of Education, Southern Sudanese Community of Washington
December 2010 – August 2011
At the Southern Sudanese Community of Washington I developed, implemented, managed, and evaluated educational programs and services that benefit the community and promote the organizations mission to help Southern Sudanese refugees and immigrants achieve self-sufficiency, and economic and social stability while retaining their cultural identity. My duties as Director of Education included:

- Managing Youth Tutoring (80%) and Adult Education (20%) Programs
- Directing community outreach programs for the Sudanese population and educating the public about Southern Sudanese culture, history, and stories
- Training, developing, and coordinating an extensive volunteer network
- Advocating for support from local and state service providers
- Increasing academic achievement and reducing lingual-cultural barriers
- Helping youth develop leadership skills, problem solving skills and a sense of community responsibility
- Networking and building relationships between area agencies, businesses, schools, service providers, and state and local agencies to raise awareness about issues impacting refugees and immigrants from Sudan

Manager-In-Training, LUSH Cosmetics, Bellevue, WA
November 2009 – September 2010
At LUSH Cosmetics I managed the operations, sales, training, and outreach for one of the most successful training shops in North America. LUSH Cosmetics is one of Canada's top 30 green businesses for 2010.

- Successfully developed, wrote, and executed a human rights campaign that received award for "best global human rights campaign 2010"
- Hired, trained, developed, and lead a staff of 15 – 20 employees.
- Managed, supervised, and evaluated in-store and community projects
- Lead outreach, development, and innovative business building projects.
- Managed day-to-day operations, finances, and product merchandising
- Consistently met and exceeded long-term and short term financial goals and became one of the most profitable North American training shops

College Preparation Assistant, GearUp, Lakewood, WA
January 2009 – June 2010
At GearUp I worked with students, schools, and families to create a sustainable college-going culture specifically tailored to meet the needs of low-income communities of color. My work with GearUp entailed:

- Working as a tutor and mentor in the classroom
- Advocating for youth development programs and projects in schools
- Developing programming that more effectively addresses racial and economic inequity
- Presenting workshops to students and parents of grade 6-12 students
- Translating for the Clover Park School District
- Planning and supervising academic, leadership, community service, and cultural enrichment opportunities for students and families
- Completing extensive data for program records

Rotary Youth Exchange Assistant Coordinator, Rotary International
July - September 2007
In Arequipa, Peru, I worked in collaboration with the District Coordinator to plan and run the 2007-08 Youth Exchange Program. This entailed:

- Assisting the District Coordinator with legal, academic, and travel papers
- Completing family and school placements for incoming exchange students
- Coordinating arrivals, transportation, orientation, and Spanish lessons
- Representing the District Coordinator and program locally and internationally through letters, e-mails, phone calls, presentations, etc.
- Speaking, translating, and mentoring inbound and outbound students and families at orientation
- Providing support for youth throughout transitions
