Sarah. H. Patterson, MHA, FACMPE
Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer

Sarah Patterson has been a member of the leadership team at Virginia Mason Medical Center for more than 29 years and currently serves as the executive vice president and Chief operating officer. She has responsibility for all operations of the clinic and hospital along with the Kaizen Promotion Office, Human Resources, Quality and Compliance, Facilities and Pharmaceutical Services. Over the past five years she has received extensive training in the Virginia Mason Production System (VMPS). VMPS is a management method based on manufacturing principles that seeks to continually improve how work is done. The training has included six study missions to Japan. As part of the executive leadership team, she has responsibility for leading the implementation of the Virginia Mason Production System throughout the VM system. She maintains certification in Lean methodology.

Patterson received her Master's in Health Administration (MHA) from the University of Washington. She was elected board chair of the Washington State Hospital Association (WSHA) in 2010. WSHA represents all Washington hospitals and health-related organizations. She also serves on the Board of Directors of the Horizon House Retirement Community. Sarah and her husband, Chuck Kinsey, have two daughters, Chloe (20 years old) and Maya (18 years old). Sarah enjoys skiing (cross country and down-hill), cycling and spending time with her family.

About Virginia Mason Medical Center
Virginia Mason Medical Center, founded in 1920, is a not for profit comprehensive regional health care system in the Puget Sound area that combines a primary and specialty care group practice of more than 450 physicians with a 336-bed acute-care hospital. Virginia Mason operates a network of clinics throughout the Puget Sound area, and Bailey-Boushay House, a skilled-nursing facility and chronic care management program for people with HIV/AIDS. The medical center is affiliated with Benaroya Research Institute at Virginia Mason, internationally recognized in autoimmune disease research. Virginia Mason is known for applying manufacturing principles to health care to improve quality and patient safety.
