Background:
Amoreena is principal at Strata Architects, which specializes in commercial tenant improvements, as well as residential design from multi-family remodels to new apartments and townhouses. Amoreena founded Strata in 2006, and she previously worked for Hewitt Architects and Pyatok Architects. She is an advocate for sustainable urban design on the neighborhood level, volunteering with community groups such as the Cascade Neighborhood Council, Belltown P-Patch, and Sustainable Seattle. She led her Beacon Hill neighborhood in working with Sound Transit to mitigate unanticipated impacts from Central Link light rail. Amoreena holds a Bachelors of Architecture from the University of Idaho and a Masters in Architecture and Urban Design from Columbia University.

Principal, Strata Architects

As an Architect, I have over 18 years experience in architecture, interior and urban design. Although proficient in leading large scale mixed use, high-density housing and community development projects, my experience also includes small housing projects, commercial tenant improvements and single family remodels. My experience with the design process, project management and the preparation of contract documents assists clients with achieving permits in a timely manner while creating design solutions that clients will be happy with in the long term.
