PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

1. HABITAT FOR HUMANITY OF SEATTLE & SOUTH KING COUNTY

2008 to 2012

CEO

Chief executive of organization with $5-7M annual budget, 25 FTEs, 15 operational teams, and approximately 1300 volunteers contributing over 30,000 volunteer hours per year. Oversee a diverse program portfolio including: new construction; renovation of foreclosed and distressed properties; community business development; homebuyer financial readiness; family services; volunteer management; faith relations; and advocacy. Leading projects and staff distributed over four to six simultaneous sites in municipalities throughout greater Seattle and western and southern King County, WA.

Notable Accomplishments

- Led revitalization of brand by establishing new strategic direction that ensured significant impact and relevance and resulted in sustained engagement of the region's top-tier nonprofit, philanthropic, corporate, governmental, and academic institutions.
- Entered an organization facing serious fiscal challenges due to economy; engineered turnaround by immediately establishing relationships and credibility with lenders, funders, and organizational partners and by working with them to renegotiate complex contracts and project plans.
- Brought organization from isolation to place of relevance with regional funders and to active involvement in key area initiatives; organization now routinely invited to help shape regional strategy and action.
- Brokered extensive alliances and cross-sector coalitions to decrease redundancy and fragmentation and to increase efficiency, scale, and collective impact.

- Established neighborhood transformation as overarching framework unifying strategic plan; guided business centers in innovation that builds on Habitat's core competencies and traditional approaches.
- Designed breakthrough cross-agency collaborative providing systematic, county-wide financial literacy, homebuyer readiness, and pre/post purchase counseling programs.
- Brought awareness to the greater building community of the affordability of sustainable/ "green" construction and its long-term financial benefits to homeowners.
- Made Habitat construction sites and retail operation available as job training facilities for partner agencies serving at-risk adults, formerly homeless and at-risk youth, and adults with disabilities.
- Strengthened organizational culture through intentional recruitment, selection, and mentoring rooted in core values of performance, quality, respect, and integrity.
- Provided vision and leadership strategy for successful merger between Habitat Seattle/South King County & Habitat East King County. (Currently serving as Senior Advisor for Strategy and Advocacy for the newly-merged affiliate, Habitat for Humanity Seattle-King County).
- Elected Vice President of King County Housing Development Consortium after 1st year of membership and President after 2nd; received Mayoral appointment after 2nd year; appointed to board of directors for one of nation's premier global development associations.
- Provided testimony before the 2012 Washington state legislature that was widely remarked to be the most effective and passionate of the session.
- During my tenure, Habitat for Humanity Seattle/South King County was designated:
 - "2011's Most Respected Residential Builder" by Puget Sound Business Journal (PSBJ)
 - a "2011 Top Brands" finalist (across both for-profits & nonprofits) by PSBJ
