Name: Naomi McMillen		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Executive Appointment <input type="checkbox"/> Legislative Appointment <input type="checkbox"/> Agency Appointment <input type="checkbox"/> PDA Council <input type="checkbox"/> PDA Constituency
Residential Neighborhood: Broadview	Zip Code: 98133	Contact Phone No.: N/A
Appointed to: Seattle Human Rights Commission, Get Engaged member		Date of Appointment: September 3, 2013
Authority (Ord., Res.): S.M.C. 3.14.920		Term of Office From: Confirmation To: August 31, 2014
Background: Naomi McMillen is currently a paralegal at Carney & Marchi, an immigration law firm. As a part of her work at Carney & Marchi, One America and the Strategic Asia Program, she has conducted extensive research and advocated for a wide range of individuals including women that have fled across four borders to escape domestic abuse, children who are seeking a new life in our country and more. Naomi would like to take this experience and put it to work on the Human Rights Commission's Discrimination Appeals Committee. Naomi grew up in extreme poverty and is particularly passionate about discrimination against people who live in poverty as well as immigration issues. Although she is not an immigrant herself, many of her friends growing up were and she witnessed mistreatment and discrimination based on race, immigration status and socioeconomic status. This experience made her passionate about wanting to make a difference. Additionally Naomi also has experience in putting together large events. She helped plan and execute two major academic conferences and is looking forward to helping work on the Human Rights Day Planning Committee. The Human Rights Commission and Get Engaged program are happy to welcome Naomi's motivation and passion for human rights issues and for making a difference in people's lives. We hope the program will help grow Naomi's skills as leader to help engage others in this important work.
