SUMMARY

Dynamic marketing/project manager with proven success leading promotions, building community partnerships, driving campaign strategy and managing projects from concept to completion.

EXPERIENCE

The Seattle Times, Seattle, WA

2008-present

Marketing and Promotions Specialist (2011-present)

- Develop and implement promotions that get results for advertising clients and drive incremental revenue and audience engagement for The Seattle Times.
- Manage the Seattle Restaurant Week promotion from end-to-end, partnering with more than 165 restaurants and generating more than $750,000 in revenue and over 20,000 customers. Led the Fall 2012 and Spring 2013 promotions to a 54% year over year growth in seated diners.
- Manage dozens of promotions for clients including Seattle Theatre Group, 5th Avenue Theatre, Live Nation, Seattle Foundation, Key Bank, Pacific Northwest Ballet, Washington's Lottery, Pacific Science Center and One Reel, creating and building lasting partnerships.
- Work closely with advertising sales directors to maximize promotional advertising revenue and support the sales staff from idea generation to implementation and measurement, driving over a half million dollars directly tied to promotions and over $3.5 MM in sales for these clients in 2012.

Newspapers In Education (NIE) Program and Outreach Specialist (2008-2011)

- Developed and executed a strategic marketing and recruitment plan that grew NIE circulation by more than 150% and strengthened educator involvement in the program.
- Created outreach and recruitment key performance indicators and tracked and analyzed progress to measure the success of individual campaigns.
- Established and nurtured educational partnerships with community organizations, including NOAA, Pacific Northwest Ballet, Seattle Art Museum, Facing the Future, History Link, Bartell Drugs and The Puyallup Fair.
- Designed, evaluated, and implemented NIE curriculum and programs supporting more than 800 educators and 35,000 students throughout Washington state, developing more than 15 programs that were printed in The Seattle Times and supervising seven weekly lesson plans connecting to articles in the newspaper.
- Managed a team of NIE contractors who wrote lesson plans and curriculum, determining strategy and guiding content creation.
- Represented The Seattle Times at public speaking engagements, including teacher conferences, school district events, educator workshops and area classrooms.
- Created and maintained social media and email marketing platforms for the program

Frederick Douglass Academy III, Bronx, NY

2006-2008

Teach For America Corps Member, Earth Science Teacher

- Participated in a national movement to end educational inequity.
- Created and implemented Earth Science Curriculum for the entire school, delivering instruction to more than 250 9th and 10th grade students and significantly increasing their Earth Science Regents scores from less than 10% to 60% of students passing.
- Founded and directed a Science Olympiad club of 15 students that went on to compete against more than 40 New York schools.
- Tracked and analyzed data for all students to improve instructional techniques.
