I, JOHN F. DORE, Mayor of The City of Seattle, do hereby certify and declare that the proposition to amend Section 32-A of Article XVI of the City Charter to read as follows:

"Section 32-A. The City Council may, by ordinance, establish a retirement and pension system for superannuated civil service officers and employees, and superannuated officers and employees of the Library Department, and may likewise so provide for a disability pension system to cover permanent, partial or temporary disability incurred by such officers and employees, and any such disability pension system so established shall thereupon supersede the provision for compensation during disability provided in Section 32 of this article. Any pension system or systems hereby authorized shall be financed jointly by the City and the officers and employees affected thereunder; provided, however, that, prior to the establishment of either or both systems, the City Council shall secure from a competent actuary a report of the cost of establishing the same, which report shall constitute the financial basis of any pension system adopted hereunder. The provisions hereof shall not be applicable to civil service officers or employees pensioned pursuant to state law."

submitted to the qualified voters of The City of Seattle for their ratification or rejection at the general municipal election held in said City on Tuesday, March 9, 1937, pursuant to Resolution No. 11982, received the approval of a majority of the qualified electors voting at said election on said proposed amendment; and I do hereby PROCLAIM that said proposed amendment has by virtue of said approval by said electors become, and is, a part of the City Charter of The City of Seattle.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereto set my hand and caused the corporate seal of The City of Seattle to be affixed hereto and attested by the City Comptroller and ex-officio City Clerk of said City, this 20 day of March, 1937.
