RE: Council file 158335, petition of Millionair Club for free bus transportation for orphans, St. Patrick's Party, March 19.

Hon. Public Utilities Committee,
Seattle City Council.

Gentlemen:

The above petition which was before the Board at today's meeting is, herewith, returned with the report that in line with the general policy of the Board to deny the granting of free transportation to any and all parties, groups and individuals was adhered to, and the petition was, therefore, denied.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS

Dear Friend:

Would you share a little joy?

On March 19th the Millionaire Club is planning for a wholesome St. Patricks Party for the little orphans of Seattle.

This will be the 7th Annual Spring Frolic, and it has been the custom in the past for the City Council to furnish the transportation for the orphans.

We are confident that you will wish again this year to add your bit in providing this "trip through Fairy-land" for the little orphans.

With this in mind we are requesting that you furnish busses as follows:

Theodora Home	1 bus
Seattle Childrens Home	2 busses
Washington Childrens Home	2 busses
Sacred Heart Orphanage	4 busses

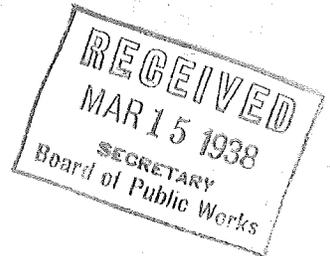

Hoping that this request will be granted,

we are

Very truly yours,
