THE CITY COUNCIL OF
THE CITY OF SEATTLE
1108 SEATTLE MUNICIPAL BUILDING
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON 98104

J. D. BRAMAN, CHAIRMAN
FINANCE COMMITTEE

J. D. Braman
SEATTLE CITY COUNCIL
March 30, 1964
MAR 30 10 07 AM '64

The City Council
City of Seattle

Honorable Members:

Due to my recent election as Mayor of the City, I herewith tender my resignation as a member of the Seattle City Council, to become effective at midnight March 31, 1964.

I have enjoyed my ten years of service in the City Council and my associations with past and present members. My regret at severing this association is tempered, however, by the anticipation of several more years of cooperative activity with your Honorable Body as Mayor of the City.

I am sure that jointly we will be able to provide to the City a quality of leadership which will assure continued progress and a happy environment in which to live and work.

Please accept my deepest appreciation for the wonderful support accorded to me in carrying out my past Council assignments, and my high regard for the members of the Council as individuals.

Sincerely yours,

J. D. Braman
