Dear Mr. Tenn:

On Monday, June 5, 1967, the Committee of the Whole of the City Council considered the proposed new "loitering law," and recommended it for passage.

Enclosed is a copy of said bill, which I trust you will find self-explanatory.

Very truly yours,

W. C. Heib, Jr.

Gentlemen;

We, the undersigned residents of Seattle, wish to express our strong opposition to any law against "loitering." We feel that every American has a constitutional right to just stand around or walk around without a purpose, and without having to give any account of himself to police.
