CITY OF SEATTLE

RULES OF THE CITY COUNCIL

Rule 1. DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT. The President shall take the Chair and call the Council to order at the hour appointed for meeting, or at the hour to which the Council shall have adjourned at the preceding session, and if a quorum be present shall cause the journal of the preceding meeting to be read, unless otherwise ordered. He shall preserve order and decorum and in case of any disturbance or disorderly conduct within the Chamber shall order the Sergeant at Arms to suppress the same.

He may speak to points of order in preference to members, arising from his seat for that purpose, and shall decide all questions of order subject to an appeal to the Council by any member, on which appeal no member shall speak more than once, unless by leave of the Council.

He shall, in open session, sign all Council Bills, Resolutions, Claims of the Council.

He shall have charge of and see that all employees of the Council perform their respective duties, and shall have general control of the Legislative Department offices.

While speaking upon any question before the Council, the President shall have the right to designate any member to occupy the Chair.

The President shall rise to address the Council on any question, but may remain seated while stating the question.

Rule 2. PRESIDENT PRO TEM. A President pro tem. shall be designated biennially on a rotation basis, monthly, based upon seniority, to act in the absence of the President, or when he shall act as Mayor. The next scheduled pro tem. shall act in his absence.

Rule 3-A. CALL OF THE COUNCIL. Three Councilmen, including the President, or four in his absence, shall be authorized to call the Council, compel the attendance of the absent members, make an order for their fine and censure, or may adjourn from day to day or until the time for the next regular meeting.

Rule 3-B. SPECIAL MEETING. The Mayor, the President of the City Council, or any three Councilmen, may call a special meeting of the Council.

Rule 3-C. QUORUM. A majority of all members of the Council shall be necessary to constitute a quorum to do business; PROVIDED, That less than a quorum may adjourn from day to day until a quorum can be had.

Rule 4. ORDER OF BUSINESS. Business shall be disposed of in the following order:

1. Roll Call
2. Approval of Journal
3. Special Order
4. Ratification of Referrals
 - a. Communications and Petitions
 - b. Bills
 - c. Resolutions
5. Reports of Standing Committees and Second Reading of Bills
6. Adoption of Resolutions
7. Third Reading of Bills and Roll Call Vote
8. Unfinished Business
9. Other Business

Provided, however, that the Council shall not consider and/or adopt any Resolution the subject matter of which is extraneous to the conduct of the business of the City of Seattle.

Rule 5. BUSINESS TO BE ANNOUNCED. The President shall announce to the Council the business in order, agreeable to the preceding rule, and no business shall be taken up or considered until the class to which it belongs shall be declared in order without suspension of the rules, but communications from the Mayor or City officers or departments may be read at any time.

Rule 6. SPECIAL ORDER. The President shall call the Council to order at the hour fixed for the consideration of a special order, and announce that the special order is now before the Council, which shall then be considered unless it is postponed by a majority vote, and any business before the Council at the time of the announcement of the special order shall take its regular position in the order of the business.

Rule 7. RULES OF DEBATE. When any Councilman is about to speak in debate, or submit any matter to the Council, he shall rise from his seat, and standing in his place, respectfully address himself to "Mr. President", and when recognized shall, in a courteous manner, confine himself to the question under debate, avoiding personalities, and when finished shall resume his seat. He shall confine himself to speaking for three minutes.

No Councilman shall impugn the motives of any other Councilman or speak more than once (except for explanation) during the consideration of any one question.

Rule 8. MOTIONS--HOW PRESENTED. No motion shall be entertained or debated until announced by the President, and every motion shall be seconded.

It shall be reduced to writing and read by the Clerk of the Council, if desired by the President or any Councilman, before it shall be debated, and by the consent of the Council may be withdrawn before amendment or action.

Rule 9. RECOGNITION BY THE PRESIDENT. When two or more Councilmen rise at the same time to address the Chair, the President shall name the one who shall speak first, giving preference, when practical, to the mover or introducer of the subject under consideration.

Rule 10. PRIORITY OF BUSINESS. All questions relating to the priority of business shall be decided without debate.

Rule 11. PRECEDENCE OF MOTIONS. When a motion has been made and seconded and stated by the Chair, the following motions are in order in the rank named.

Privileged Motions (Cannot be Amended)

- Adjourn or Recess
- Reconsider
- Demand for the Call of the Council
- For the Special Order of the Day
- To Lay on the Table
- The Previous Question (Two-thirds vote)
- Personal Privilege

Incidental Motions (Can be Amended)

- Points of Order and Appeal
- To Fix Time to Adjourn
- To Postpone to a Certain Time
- To Commit or Refer
- To Amend
- To Postpone Indefinitely

No motion to postpone to a day certain, to commit, to postpone indefinitely being decided, shall again be allowed on the same day, and at the same stage of the proceedings, and when a question has been postponed indefinitely it shall not again be introduced for sixty (60) days.

A motion to lay an amendment on the table shall not carry the main question with it unless so specified in the motion to table.

Rule 12. OPENING AND CLOSING DEBATE. The Councilman who sponsors a Bill, motion or Resolution shall have the privilege of opening and closing debate upon the same, unless the previous question has been moved and sustained.

Rule 13. CALL FOR DIVISION OF A QUESTION. Any Councilman may call for a division of a question, which shall be divided if it embraces subjects so distinct that one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the Council, but a motion to strike out and insert shall not be divided.

Rule 14. POINT OF ORDER--DECISION APPEALABLE. Every decision of points of order by the President shall be subject to appeal by any Councilman and discussion of a question of order shall be allowed.

In all cases of appeal the question shall be: "Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgement of the Council?"

Rule 15. QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE. Any Councilman may rise to a question of privilege and explain a matter personal to himself by leave of the President, but he shall not discuss any preceding question in such explanations.

Rule 16. PROTESTS. Any Councilman or Councilmen may protest against the action of the Council upon any question and have such protest entered upon the journal. PROVIDED, That such protest shall be in writing and shall not exceed two hundred (200) words. The Councilman protesting shall file his protest with the President of the Council within forth-eight (48) hours following the action protested.

Rule 17. READING OF PAPERS. When the reading of any document is requested, and is objected to by any Councilman, it shall be determined by a vote of the Council without debate.

Rule 18. SUSPENSION OF RULES. No standing rule or order of this Council shall be adopted, rescinded or changed without a majority vote of all members at a regular or special Council meeting and only after seven days notice of a motion thereof. PROVIDED, A rule or order may be temporarily suspended for a special purpose by a vote of two-thirds of the members present. When the suspension of a rule is requested, and no objection is offered, the President shall announce the rule suspended, and the Council may proceed accordingly.

Rule 19. PREVIOUS QUESTION. The previous question shall not be put unless demanded by two (2) Councilmen, whose names shall be entered upon the journal, and it shall be put in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?". When sustained by a majority of the Councilmen present, it shall preclude all debate.

Rule 20. RECONSIDERATION. After the final vote on any motion, Resolution or Bill, before the adjournment of that day's session, and at such time only, any member who voted with the prevailing side may give notice of reconsideration.

When affirmative action has been taken on any motion, Resolution or Bill, it shall be in order for any member voting with the majority to move a reconsideration thereof at the same meeting; but when a motion on any Resolution or Bill has been made and fails to pass, a motion to reconsider shall be made by a member of the prevailing side but shall not be acted upon before the next regular meeting of the Council.

A motion to reconsider shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn, and when the Council adjourns while a motion to reconsider is pending or before passing the order of motions, the right to move a reconsideration shall continue to the next regular meeting.

Motions to reconsider a vote upon amendments to any pending question shall be made and decided at once.

Rule 21. YEAS AND NAYS--WHEN MUST BE TAKEN. The yeas and nays shall be taken when called for by two (2) Councilmen present, or upon a question of the President, and every Councilman within the bar of the Council shall vote unless excused by two-thirds of the Council, and the votes shall be entered upon the journal and the names of the Councilmen demanding the yeas and nays shall also be entered upon the journal.

When once begun, the roll call may not be interrupted for any purpose other than to move a call of the Council.

Rule 22. TIE VOTE. The passage of a Bill or an action on a question is lost by a tie vote.

Rule 23. ANNOUNCEMENT OF VOTE. The announcement of all votes shall be made by the Clerk of the Council, and the announcement of the result of any vote shall not be postponed.

Rule 24. MOTION TO ADJOURN. Except when under call of the Council, a motion to adjourn shall always be in order. The name of the Councilman moving to adjourn and the time when the motion was made shall be entered on the journal.

Rule 25. REED'S PARLIAMENTARY RULES. The rules of parliamentary practice, as contained in Reed's Parliamentary Rules, shall govern the Council in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the rules and orders of the Council.

Rule 26. BREACH OF DECORUM. In cases of breach of decorum or propriety, any Councilman, officer or other person shall be liable to such censure or punishment as the Council may deem proper, and if any Councilman be called to order for offensive or indecorous language or conduct, the person calling him to order shall report the language or conduct excepted.

Rule 27. TRANSGRESSION OF RULES. If any Councilman, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the Council, the President shall, or any Councilmen may request the President to call him to order; and when the Councilman shall be so called to order he shall resume his seat and not proceed without leave of the Council, which leave, if granted, shall be upon motion "that he be allowed to proceed in order", when, if carried, he shall confine himself to the question under consideration.

Rule 28. ABSENCE WITHOUT LEAVE. No Councilman shall absent himself from the regular Council meeting without leave, except in case of accident or sickness. No Councilman shall obtain leave of absence or be excused from attendance in the Council meeting without the consent of the majority vote of the Council.

Rule 29. DECORUM. Indecorous conduct, boisterous or unbecoming language will not be permitted in the Council Chambers at any time.

Councilmen shall not leave the Council or standing committee meetings without seeking leave of the President or committee chairman.

No individual other than the Sergeant at Arms may approach the Councilmen or the Clerk while the Council is in session.

Rule 30. WITNESSES BEFORE THE COUNCIL. Witnesses summoned by or on behalf of the Council to appear before the Council or any of its committees shall be notified as follows:

- (1) When the required witness is a member of a City department, written notification shall be sent to the department head requesting testimony, and stating subject, date and time of hearing.
- (2) When the required witness is a member of the community, written notification shall be sent, stating date, time and subject of hearing.

Rule 31. USE OF COUNCIL CHAMBERS. The Council Chamber and its facilities shall not be used for any but legislative business except by permission of the President.

Rule 32. ADMISSION TO COUNCIL CHAMBERS. Attendance at City Council, Committee of the Whole, or standing committee meetings, relative to any order of business, shall be open to the public subject to the following rules of conduct:

- (1) No person may enter the Chambers carrying, wearing, or having on his person, posters, placards, sandwich boards, banners, flags or other adornments not accepted as wearing apparel, without the expressed permission of the Council President or committee chairman presiding.
- (2) Persons desiring to speak or present testimony on any subject before the Committee of the Whole or standing committee in session, may be required to register their desire to speak with the Committee Clerk before the call to order on the form provided.
- (3) Persons having registered to speak on subjects before the Committee of the Whole or standing committee shall limit their presentations to five (5) minutes unless otherwise limited or extended by the Council President or committee chairman.

Rule 33. DUTIES OF COMMITTEES. The eleven (11) committees shall fully consider all measures referred to them.

The committees shall acquaint themselves with the interests of the City specifically represented by the committee, and from time to time present such Bills and reports as in their judgement will advance the interests and promote the welfare of the people of the City.

Selection of committee chairman and members will be accomplished within five (5) days next preceding the second Monday in January after a councilmanic election. The President of the Council shall call a joint conference in the Council Chambers, open to the public, consisting of all holdover Councilmen and of members-elect, to consider the reorganization of the Council, the filing of the positions of its standing committees, and informal balloting therefor. Members of the committees shall be elected by the Council at its first meeting and shall serve for two (2) years, unless excused. Standing committees, the duties, membership and meeting times thereof shall be as follows:

LICENSE AND CONSUMER PROTECTION COMMITTEE (Four (4) members) To examine, report, and make such recommendations concerning license and consumer protection matters as may be deemed necessary.

PARKS AND PUBLIC GROUNDS COMMITTEE (Four (4) members) To consider and make recommendations as to matters relating to the Parks and Recreation Department, the improvement and maintenance of grounds and boulevards, the acquisition or disposition of public real property, matters relating to the arts, and to deal with matters relating to the Seattle Center and other municipal properties.

STREETS AND SEWERS COMMITTEE (Four (4) members) To consider and make recommendations on all matters relating to all matters pertaining to the Department of Transportation, and providing for the laying of, opening and establishing of streets, the grading, sewerage, sidewalking, planking, paving and otherwise improving of the same and maintenance thereof (except the laying of watermains and lighting), and to investigate and make changes and recommendations on assessment rolls prepared for the levying of assessments for street improvements.

PUBLIC SAFETY COMMITTEE (Four (4) members) To consider and make recommendations on all matters pertaining to health, police and fire protection, air and noise pollution, building code, and all technical codes.

PLANNING COMMITTEE (Four (4) members) To consider and make recommendations on all matters pertaining to comprehensive planning, urban renewal, urban design, Model Cities, zoning, re-zoning and appeals from the Board of Adjustment.

UTILITIES COMMITTEE (Five (5) members) To consider and make recommendations concerning all matters relating to the Lighting and Water Departments, the extension and enlarging of said systems and the expenditure of funds thereof, and to consider and report upon applications for franchises and the operation and conduct of public utilities in the streets and public places of the City which are operated under and by virtue of a franchise, and consider matters pertaining to the solid waste utility.

JUDICIARY AND PERSONNEL COMMITTEE (Four (4) members) To consider and make recommendations on appointments and all matters of a general nature dealing with the operation of City departments, to make recommendations on the preparation of rules and regulations for the conduct of the business of the Council, to investigate and report on all requests for the addition or deletion of positions, and to investigate and report on matters concerning Civil Service, personnel, and Employees' Retirement System.

FINANCE COMMITTEE (Five (5) members) To consider and make recommendations on all matters and legislation of a financial nature; appropriations, salaries and expenditures; investigate and report on all claims filed against the City; to examine demands for cancellations or reductions of assessments and taxes.

SPECIAL LABOR COMMITTEE (Three (3) members) To consider and report on all matters recommended by the Mayor and/or the City Labor Negotiators related to salaries, wages and working conditions.

BUDGET COMMITTEE (Nine (9) members) To consider in detail and make recommendations concerning the Mayor's annual proposed budget (including the C.I.P.) and any changes thereto, make the annual tax levy, and to hold public hearing therefor.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE (Four (4) members) To establish a liaison between the City of Seattle and the State Legislature, and to review and propose legislation to that body on the numerous items that affect the operation of the City and its departments.

The meeting times of the standing committees shall be as defined in Appendix A of The Rules of the Council. Council Members assigned to the various committees referenced above are defined in Appendix B.

Rule 34. OPEN MEETINGS OF STANDING COMMITTEES. Meetings of all standing committees relative to pending Bills, Resolutions, and memorials shall be open to the public, subject to the conditions of Rule 32.

Rule 35. COMMITTEE REPORTS. Bills reported to the Council from a standing committee must have a report, which shall show the action taken by the committee and which shall be prepared upon a printed standing committee report form, shall carry one or more of the following recommendations, and shall be signed by the chairman of the committee.

1. Do Pass
2. Do Pass as Amended
3. Without or With Split Recommendation
4. Do Not Pass
5. That the Bill Be Referred to Another Committee
6. That the Bill Be Referred to the Committee of the Whole
7. That the Bill Be Indefinitely Postponed

Rule 36. MAJORITY REPORTS. A majority report of a standing committee must carry the signatures of a majority of the members of the committee.

Rule 37. MINORITY REPORTS. Members of the standing committee not concurring in the majority report may prepare a written minority report containing a different recommendation and shall be signed by those members subscribing thereto.

Rule 38. FILING COMMITTEE REPORTS. Decisions of committees shall be reported to the Clerk to be spread upon the journal at the next regular meeting of the Council.

Rule 39. READING OF REPORTS. The majority report, and minority report if there be one, together with the names of the signers thereof, shall be read by the Clerk, unless the reading be dispensed with by the Council, and all committee reports shall be spread upon the journal.

Rule 40. COMMITTEE REFERENCE. When a motion is made to refer a subject, and different committees are proposed, the question shall be taken in the following order:

- First - The Committee of the Whole Council
- Second - A Standing Committee
- Third - A Special Committee

Rule 41. RULES OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. The rules of the Council shall apply to proceedings of the Committee of the Whole. The Committee may limit the number of times that any member may speak at any stage of the proceedings during the sitting.

Rule 42. SUSPEND RULES FOR THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. The Council may at any time, by a vote of the majority of the members present, suspend the rules and orders of the Council for the purpose of going into the Committee of the Whole.

Rule 43. FORMATION OF COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. In referring a matter to the Committee of the Whole, the President at that time shall name a chairman to preside, and all bills considered shall be reviewed by sections, and the chairman shall call for amendments and debates thereon at the conclusion of the reading of each section. The body of the Bill shall not be defaced or interlined, but all amendments (noting the page and line) shall be duly entered by the Clerk on a separate paper as the same shall be agreed to by the Committee, and so reported to the Council for action.

Rule 44. REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. A motion that the Committee of the Whole shall rise shall always be in order and shall be decided without debate.

Rule 45. DUTIES OF SERGEANT AT ARMS. The duties of the Sergeant at Arms shall be as follows:

- (1) He shall attend the Council during the sittings, announce all messages, preserve order, execute all processes issued by authority of the Council and directed to him by the President of the Council.
- (2) He shall see that no person is admitted to the Council Chambers except in accordance with provision of Rule 32.

Rule 46. ASSIGNMENT TO COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. The President, or any standing committee chairman, or Councilman through the President, may assign any communication received by the Council to the Committee of the Whole for appropriate review and action.

The President shall, at the time of assignment of any communication to the Committee of the Whole, designate the Committee of the Whole Chairman for this specific action.

Rule 47. FILING OF COMMUNICATIONS. Communications for filing with the Council shall be received, time and date stamped, prior to close of work day each Wednesday preceding the regular meeting day (Monday).

Rule 48. STANDING COMMITTEE INPUT. All Comptroller's Files, petitions, Resolutions and Council Bills for standing committees shall be accumulated three working days prior to the regularly scheduled meeting day.

No materials received after this cut-off shall be included in the calendar of the standing committee without the express permission of the committee chairman and the President.

Rule 49. DEPARTMENTAL REQUESTS TO THE CITY COUNCIL. All City departments forwarding to the City Council requests for additional personnel and/or appropriations shall do so in the following format:

- Section I. Title of Program or Proposal
- Section II. Statement of Objectives
 - A clear, concise statement of the program/proposal's objectives, to include term definition.
- Section III. Definition of Alternatives
 - A complete explanation and evaluation of alternatives explored, to include grading criteria and advantages vs. disadvantages of each alternate.
- Section IV. Evaluation Criteria
 - A. Length of program/proposal (years - months)
 - B. Cost of program/proposal
 - 1. Federal/State grant monies available by year
 - 2. Impact on City's General Fund by year
 - 3. Initial funding recommendations
 - C. Additional personnel and facilities required by year of program/proposal with position, salary range
 - D. Time for implementation (years - months - days)
 - E. Recommendations for controls (accounting; audit; management review).
- Section V. Department Recommendations
 - Reports of program/proposal review by: Office of Management and Budget, City Personnel Department, Civil Service Department; Mayor's Office

Section VI. Implementation Schedule (by month)

Section VII. Follow-up and Feed-back Program

- A. Procedure proposed for periodic City Council review
- B. Monthly/quarterly reports of program/proposal progress

Rule 50. AMENDMENTS TO CITY CHARTER. The City Council shall pass no Resolution adopting a proposed amendment to the City Charter unless the substance of such amendment in the determination of the Council has been before the Council for consideration for not less than sixty (60) days prior to the date of passage of such Resolution.
