Nineteen Officers completed the Seattle Police Reserve Academy and were commissioned in February 1971, bringing total strength to 64 men

Two Officers were granted ninety-day leaves of absence during the months of June, July, and August, for police-related work.

Thirty-six men are due to be commissioned during the months of December 1971 and January 1972, which will bring the Unit's strength to 78 men

RECRUITING

In February 1971, the City of Seattle signed a contract with the Federal Government for a matching fund grant, part of which encompasses aides and volunteers.

A goal of forty-two Reserve Recruits was established, with the Seattle Police Department furnishing recruiting background investigation, training, and supervision, and the Federal Government supplying the equipment.

The Seattle Police Reserve Unit received over 300 inquiries and mailed out 97 applications with detailed explanatory pamphlets. Sixty-five applicants were interviewed, of which number, forty-three were accepted for the Reserve Academy. During the Academy, further investigations reduced the graduating class to thirty-six men.

ACTIVITIES

Reserve Officers now man the wagon at Headquarters Precinct, 3rd Watch, seven days a week. The number of hours worked is predicated on the general activity on any particular night, but with an average shift of eight hours. Covering this shift for the Patrol Division releases two regular officers for other duties.

Four Reserve Officers, instead of two, are now assigned to Patrol each Friday and Saturday night, to work prowler cars. We feel this type of work is invaluable to the training of an officer; no amount of classroom work can substitute for practical experience. Men who have worked these shifts are a real asset to the Department as they are now able to assist their partners in all phases of police work.

SEATTLE POLICE RESERVE UNIT ACTIVITIES - 1971

In May and June of 1971, double or more manpower was assigned to the Seattle Center. We felt increased coverage would convince those persons who wished to engage in illegal activities or activities not conducive to the peace and tranquility of the average visitor to the Seattle Center, that their actions would not be tolerated. A decrease in serious crime and general misbehavior during the summer months makes us believe the action was a good deterrent. In the future, during this period, assignments will be increased again.

Although Vice assignments are discouraged, at the request of the Vice Squad we allowed two Reserve Officers to work with them. One Officer worked in the field of gambling and the other worked in the suppression of prostitution. Both Officers did exceptionally good work with particular emphasis on prostitution suppression. Over fifty prostitute arrests, with convictions, were made by the one Officer.

Ten letters of commendation were received for exceptional work by Reserve Officers during the year of 1971.

INTERNAL INVESTIGATIONS DIVISION

SUMMARY REPORT OF COMPLAINTS INVESTIGATED - 1971

During the year of 1971, 590 complaints involving the conduct of Seattle Police Department members and employees were received, logged, and investigated by the Internal Investigations Division. 134 of these complaints were received from minorities and 87 were initiated as a result of off-duty misconduct.

Upon completion of an investigation, each complaint was classified into one of the following categories:

1. Unfounded: The allegation was false or not factual.
2. Exonerated: The incident complained of did occur but was lawful and proper.
3. Not Sustained: There was insufficient evidence either to prove or disprove the allegation.
4. Sustained: The allegation was supported by sufficient evidence.

For purposes of this report, complaints have been listed under six general classifications. In addition, complaints involving force have been divided into three sub-classifications for further clarification, as follows:

	TOTAL	UNFOUNDED	EXONERATED	NOT SUSTAINED	SUSTAINED

INTERNAL INVESTIGATION DIVISION REPORT

RECAP OF DISCIPLINARY ACTION:

Of the 590 complaint cases logged by Internal Investigations Division, 68 cases were sustained. In connection with the sustained cases, all disciplinary action has been implemented at the direction of the Chief of Police wherein allegations were of a serious nature, or by the accused's bureau commander (upon approval by the Chief of Police) for complaints of a lesser importance. In addition, department disciplinary action has been expanded in a positive way to include counselling, medical or psychological treatment and retraining, as well as the more conventional forms of discipline employed within the department. It should be noted that discipline is determined and administered by the Chief of Police and command personnel and not by the Internal Investigations Division. The Internal Investigations Division performs a staff function.

During 1971, the following disciplinary actions have been administered:

TERMINATED
Dismissed	3
Allowed to Resign	4
Allowed to Retire - Disability.	2
FORFEITURE OF WORKING DAYS	17
FORFEITURE OF FURLOUGH DAYS	7
ORAL REPRIMAND	33
ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION BY CHIEF OF POLICE	1
RETRAINING	6
DISCIPLINARY TRANSFER.	3
MEDICAL TREATMENT REQUIRED	1

Department personnel either forfeited or were suspended for a total of 199 days during the year of 1971.

COMMUNICATIONS DIVISION COMPARISON DATA - 1971

1. Total calls received in 1971 reflect a 12.91% increase over 1970.
2. Total calls dispatched in 1971 reflect a 6.29% increase from 1970.
3. Total calls handled internally by the Communications Division personnel reflect a 12.13% increase over 1970. Depending upon reporting period, anywhere from 6.3% to 15.3% of these calls result in some form of police report being prepared -- resulting in many man hours saved for Line Division.
4. Average time spent on each emergency call 67 seconds
5. Average call waiting length 1/2 to 1-1/2 seconds
6. "911" has been a success with virtually no difficulties. The increased speed for the citizen (minimum dialing time, answer in 1/2 to 1-1/2 seconds) and the immediate transfer speed to Fire, KCDPS, WSP, etc., has provided the citizen the finest in emergency response and allowed the various departments to increase their efficiency and service to the public.
