MEMORANDUM

TO: Judith Pippin, City Clerk
FROM: Gary Smith, Assistant City Attorney
SUBJECT: Ballot Title for Initiative 97 (Clerk File 309273)
DATE: April 1, 2008

Via e-mail and hand-delivered

In response to your memorandum of March 26, 2008 regarding proposed Initiative Measure 97, this office has established the following ballot title:

City of Seattle Initiative Measure 97 concerns prohibiting City employee retirement fund investments in certain corporations.

If enacted, the measure prohibits the City of Seattle from investing retirement funds in corporations that directly participate in, or directly profit from, the U.S. occupation of Iraq. Investment is also prohibited in corporations that provide material support for Israeli government activities, or do business within Israeli settlements, in territory taken by Israel in the 1967 Arab-Israeli war. The City is also required to withdraw retirement fund investments in Israeli government bonds if Israel attacks Iran without U.N. authorization.

Should this measure be enacted into law?

Yes.....
No.....

If you have any questions, please contact me at 733-9318.

COMPLETE TEXT OF INITIATIVE MEASURE NO. ???

Whereas: The city of Seattle is responsible for the financial health of its employees' retirement system; and

Whereas: The 1998 settlement between various states and four tobacco companies was the largest civil settlement in US history, showing that illegal activities that are tolerated at a given time in history can result in massive liabilities and losses at a later date; and

Whereas: The city of Seattle has in the past boycotted corporations engaged in activities violating international law, such as resolution 27220 mandating divestment from institutions doing business with apartheid-era South Africa; and

Whereas: The 2003 invasion and occupation of Iraq, preemptively carried out under false pretenses, and without UN authorization violates International Law, placing those who plan, participate in, and profit from it at risk of future accountability, financial liability and financial losses; and

Whereas: Israeli settlements built on occupied Palestinian lands are illegal under International Law, placing those who plan, participate in, and profit from any settlement activity at risk of future accountability, financial liability and financial losses; and

Whereas: The World Court in The Hague has ruled that the so-called separation barrier built by Israel in the occupied Palestinian territories is illegal under International Law, and should be dismantled, unequivocally placing those who plan, participate in, and profit from its erection at risk of future calls to accountability, prosecution, and liability both financially and socially, even more than in apartheid South Africa; and

Whereas: A pre-emptive military attack on Iran, as threatened by the United States of America and Israel, would also be a violation of International law, thereby placing those who plan, participate in, and profit from that attack at risk of future accountability, financial liability, and financial losses; and

Whereas: Many publicly traded US defense contractors such as Halliburton are directly engaged in the military occupation of Iraq; and

Whereas: Caterpillar corporation has sold armored bulldozers to the state of Israel, specifically for use in the construction of the separation barrier, construction of illegal Israeli settlements, and demolition, without due process, of homes of Palestinians (illegal under Geneva Conventions), including the March 16, 2003 attempted demolition of a home in the Gaza Strip where US peace activist and Olympia resident Rachel Corrie was run over by a Caterpillar bulldozer and killed; and

Whereas: In keeping with its fiduciary responsibilities towards its employees and retirees, and in keeping with its social responsibility, the City of Seattle does not wish to invest its retirement funds in corporations and governments whose activities in war zones and illegally occupied territories make them risky investment choices; now therefore,

Be it ordained by the City of Seattle as follows:

A new section 4.36.141 is added to Seattle Municipal Code to read as follows:

It is the policy of the City of Seattle to not invest its employees' retirement fund in corporations and foreign governments whose international activities involve direct participation in war zones and illegally occupied lands, such investments being inherently risky:

A. The city of Seattle shall not invest its employees' retirement funds in (a) corporations that participate directly in the US-led military occupation of Iraq; (b) corporations that profit directly from the US occupation of Iraq, including, but not limited to, oil concessions, in-country security contracts, and privatization of Iraqi state enterprises; (c) corporations that provide direct material support for activities of the Israeli government within the occupied and besieged territories of West Bank, Gaza Strip, East Jerusalem, and Golan Heights; (d) corporations with a presence (including but not limited to offices, manufacturing plants, franchises, and significant trade ties) in Israeli settlements in the occupied territories of West Bank, East Jerusalem, and Golan Heights.

B. Specifically, the city of Seattle shall not invest its employees' retirement funds in Halliburton Holding Company (traded on the New York Stock exchange under the symbol HAL) or any of its subsidiaries until such time as Halliburton Holding Company and all of its subsidiaries end their direct participation in the occupation of Iraq, and Caterpillar, Inc. (traded on the New York Stock exchange under the symbol CAT), until such time as Caterpillar, Inc. stops selling armored bulldozers to the Israeli military for use in the occupied and besieged territories of West Bank, Gaza Strip, East Jerusalem, and Golan Heights.

C. Should the government of Israel launch a military attack on Iran without UN authorization, the city of Seattle shall divest its employees' retirement funds from Israeli government bonds and any investment portfolio that includes Israeli government bonds.

Severability of provisions: If any provision of this ordinance or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the remainder of this ordinance or the application of the terms and provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected.
