

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Q13 Fox weekly television program, "Washington's Most Wanted, recently helped law enforcement capture their 400th dangerous fugitive; and

WHEREAS, the program began partnership with Crime Stoppers of Puget Sound in November of 2008 and is based in Seattle; and

WHEREAS, in 2009, "Washington's Most Wanted" expanded to include the Fox Broadcasting affiliates in Spokane, Yakima, and the Tri-Cities, and the CW Affiliate in Portland, OR; and

WHEREAS, the show was conceived as a partnership between Q13 Fox & Crime Stoppers of Puget Sound; and

WHEREAS, the program is widely credited with assisting law enforcement in Seattle and the Pacific Northwest; and

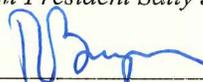

WHEREAS, the program has been responsible for taking off of our streets over 400 dangerous individuals arrested for crimes that include murder, rape, theft, and un-registered sex offenders; and

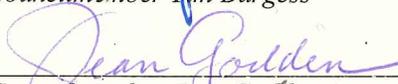

WHEREAS, "Washington's Most Wanted" and "Crime Stoppers of Puget Sound" is focused on making communities safer and giving a voice to victims of violent crime;

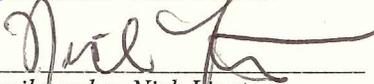

NOW, THEREFORE, we, the Seattle City Council, proclaim April 22, 2013 as "Washington's Most Wanted" "Crime Stoppers of Puget Sound" Day in Seattle.

Dated this the 22 day of April, 2013.

Council President Sally J. Clark

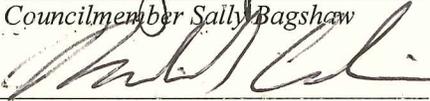

Councilmember Tim Burgess

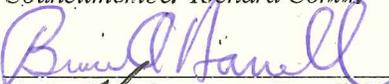

Councilmember Jean Gooden

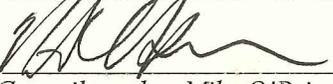

Councilmember Nick Licata

Councilmember Tom Rasmussen

Councilmember Sally Bagshaw

Councilmember Richard Conlin

Councilmember Bruce Harrell (Sponsor)

Councilmember Mike O'Brien