

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, for over 39 years, the International Examiner has covered health, social justice, small businesses, politics, the arts, and issues that are important to the Asian Pacific Islander American community; and
- WHEREAS, in recognition of these accomplishments, the International Examiner will present the Community Voice Awards which originally began in 1991; and
- WHEREAS the Community Voice Awards gather Asian Pacific American leaders, activists and allies in the political, social service, and cultural arenas to celebrate and honor the achievements of the International Examiner, the Community Voice Awards recipients and the Asian Pacific American community; and
- WHEREAS, this year's event will honor Pat Norikane Logerwell with a Lifetime Achievement award, Tim Wang as the Entrepreneur of the Year, Carina del Rosario for her contributions to the arts, Heidi Park as the Tatsuo Nakata Youth Award Winner, and the Executive Development Institute as this year's Outstanding Organization; and
- WHEREAS, the Awards are the result of countless hours of work by a multitude of organizers, volunteers, and staff working together to support community organizations and causes; and
- WHEREAS, on this day, the community comes together to reflect on our history and to honor the achievements of our great community leaders,

Now, Therefore I, Mike McGinn, do hereby proclaim May 22nd to be

International Examiner Community Voice Award Day

And I invite the people of Seattle to join me in congratulating them on 38 years of service.
