Title:A Proclamation by Mayor Michael McGinn
declaring June 23, 2010, to be Olympic Day.

Date Filed with City Clerk:20100618

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, for more than 100 years, the Olympic movement has built a more peaceful and better world by educating young people through amateur athletics, by bringing together athletes from many countries in friendly competition, and by forging new relationships bound by friendship, solidarity and fair play; and

WHEREAS, the United States Olympic Committee is dedicated to coordinating and developing amateur athletic activity in the United States to foster productive working relationships among sports-related organizations; and

WHEREAS, Seattle Parks and Recreation promotes and supports amateur athletic activities involving Olympic and Paralympic sport; and

WHEREAS, Parks and Recreation promotes and encourages physical fitness and public participation in amateur athletic activities; and

WHEREAS, Parks and Recreation helps organizations and persons concerned with sports in the development of athletic programs for able-bodied and disabled athletes regardless of age, race, gender, or sexual orientation; and

WHEREAS, June 23 is the anniversary of the founding of the modern Olympic movement, representing the date on which the Congress of Paris approved the proposal of Pierre de Coubertin to found the modern Olympics,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Michael McGinn, Mayor of the City of Seattle, do hereby proclaim June 23, 2010 to be in the City of Seattle and urge all to observe and celebrate the occasion.

Michael McGinn, Mayor
