

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, the City of Seattle is supportive of students learning more about the world in which they live; and
- WHEREAS, the students of Ms. Bonnie Fromm's second grade class at West Woodland Elementary learn how to build community in the classroom, identify and demonstrate characteristics of good citizenship, explore their own community and study a variety of cultures and read maps and globes; and
- WHEREAS, the town of Marshmallowville is created in class by the students; and
- WHEREAS, students create, discuss and vote on their town's priorities: supporting families in need, keeping our neighborhood drug and alcohol free, keeping our streams clean from garbage and oil – protecting the fish, keeping streets and parks garbage free, making sure our families are happy and socially active in the community and keeping our neighborhood safe and crime free; and
- WHEREAS, students actively support families in need through personal donations made to Mary's Place;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Michael McGinn, Mayor of the City of Seattle, hereby proclaim West Woodland's Classroom 101 to be

Marshmallowville in the City of Seattle

and I hereby urge all citizens to join me in honoring the students in Ms. Bonnie Fromm's 2nd grade class at West Woodland Elementary for their desire for civic learning and compassion for their community.
