

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Seattle Central College has been an educational, cultural, and social cornerstone for the Capitol Hill community and the city of Seattle over the past 50 years; and

WHEREAS, Seattle Central has helped to transform the lives of hundreds of thousands of students and their families, who represent a variety of diverse backgrounds, ethnicities, and cultures by supporting them in their pursuit for a better future; and

WHEREAS, Seattle Central has supported the local economy by training residents to fill crucial positions in our region's workforce in industries like technology, healthcare, social and human services, maritime and more; and

WHEREAS, Seattle Central students, faculty and staff have been vocal advocates for significant social movements, and its campus has served as a gathering place for the community; and

WHEREAS, we celebrate this venerable institution that has shaped the lives of so many citizens and advanced our community for the better,

NOW, THEREFORE I, EDWARD B. MURRAY, MAYOR OF SEATTLE, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM SEPTEMBER 22nd, 2016 TO BE

Seattle Central College Day

Mayor Edward B. Murray
City of Seattle

