

City Treasurer, which shall be refunded if no hearing is required. The Hearing Examiner may consolidate the petitions of floating home owners contesting moorage fee increases at the same moorage.

B. Moorage owners or operators shall be permitted to increase the moorage fee demanded of a floating home owner without fact-finding in an amount not exceeding: (1) the floating home owner's proportional share of increased property taxes, utility fees, state land lease fees, city street use or other permit fees incurred by the moorage owner which benefit the floating home owners and result in increased operating expenses; or (2) the CPI factor, whichever is greater. Moorage fee increases attributable to the cost increases listed above may not be assessed until actually incurred. Before assessing any fee increase, moorage owners shall provide floating home owners at least thirty days' notice of the increase which shall explain the specific reasons for the increase and the apportionment formula used.

C. The CPI factor for a floating home moorage shall be determined by multiplying the percentage increase in the CPI since the last moorage fee increase by the current moorage fee, and by multiplying the product thereof by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of square feet of land at the subject moorage owned by the moorage owner or leased from a private, nongovernmental owner and the denominator of which shall be the total number of square feet of land in the moorage (privately owned or leased land plus land leased from or licensed by any governmental entity). Floating home owners may petition for a fact-finding whenever a proposed moorage fee increase exceeds the moorage owner's actual increase in operating expenses as listed above or the CPI factor described above, whichever is greater.

 9.24.092 Nuisance animals.
 9.24.100 Penalty clause.

9.24.110. Severability Clause. The provisions of this chapter are declared to be separate and severable. The invalidity of any clause, sentence, paragraph, or the invalidity of the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this chapter, or the validity of its application to other persons or circumstances. (Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.010 Purpose and policy.

A. It is the purpose of this chapter to control hazards to the physical and mental health of the public caused by animals, and to prevent cruelty to animals, by establishing standards of control.

B. It is the specific intent of this chapter to place the obligation of complying with its requirements upon the owners and possessors of animals.

C. Nothing contained in this chapter is intended to be, nor shall be construed to create or form the basis for any liability on the part of the city or its officers, employees or agents, for any injury or damage resulting from the failure of any person to comply with the terms of this chapter, or by reason or in consequence of any omission in connection with the implementation or enforcement of this chapter on the part of the city by its officers, employees or agents.

D. Animals owned by the Seattle Police Department and used to assist in the law enforcement and the carrying out of its duties shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter.

(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.020 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, except where a different meaning is plainly apparent from the context, the following definitions apply:

A. "Administrative fee" means a charge levied by the city for apprehending an animal and placing it in custody.

B. "Alter" means to permanently render an animal incapable of reproduction for medical reasons, whether or not surgically altered.

C. "Animal" means any vertebrate except Homo sapiens.

D. "City" means the city of Seattle.

E. "Dangerous animal" means any animal other than a cat or dog determined by the Director, following hearing, to be a risk to human health or safety or health or safety of other animals.

F. "Director" means the Director of Licenses and Consumer Affairs to the City of Seattle or his/her authorized representative.

G. "Department" means the Department of Licenses and Consumer Affairs of the City of Seattle.

H. "Disposed of in a humane manner" means adopted or euthanized by an overdose of sodium pentobarbital.

I. "Detain" means to apprehend and keep an animal in custody.

J. "Guard dog" or "attack dog" means any member of the dog family (Canidae), not owned by a government agency, which has been trained and is used for the purpose of protecting persons or property by exhibiting hostile and aggressive propensities, or which will attack on signal or command.

K. "Harboring" means allowing any animal to remain, be lodged, fed, or sheltered on the property one owns, occupies or controls, for more than twenty-four hours.

L. "Holding period" means seventy-two hours commencing 1:00 a.m. following the day of detainment of any animal, excluding days the City Animal Shelter is not open to the public.

M. "Owner" means a person who harbors, keeps, causes or permits an animal to be harbored or kept, or who has an animal in his/her possession or custody, or who permits an animal to remain on or about his/her premises or who has legal title to an animal.

N. "Permit" means human conduct in relation to an owned animal which is intentional, deliberate, careless, inadvertent or negligent.

O. "Trespassing" means any animal which enters upon the property of another person without the authorization of the lawful occupant.

P. "Vicious animal" means an animal which has bitten, clawed or otherwise harmed a human being or another animal, or which demonstrates menacing behavior toward human beings or domestic animals, but does not include an animal that bites, attacks or menaces a person or another animal that has tormented or hurt it.

(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.025 Animal Control Commission.

A. There shall be an Animal Control Commission comprised of eleven members, who shall serve without compensation. Six commissioners shall be appointed by the Mayor, subject to confirmation by a majority vote of all members of the City Council; and five shall be appointed by the City Council. No more than a simple majority shall be pet owners. At least one Mayor's appointee shall be a veterinarian eligible to practice veterinary medicine in Washington State. Commissioners shall be selected to be representative of the various neighborhoods of the city, and to be representative of the youthful, middle-aged and elderly citizenry of the city. Each Commissioner shall be appointed for a term of three years; provided, that the Commission appointed pursuant to Ordinance 100965 as amended (SMC 3.54.030) shall serve as the first Commission contemplated by this section. The term of each Commissioner appointed under SMC 3.54.030 shall expire as originally scheduled, and each vacant position shall be filled by the same appointing authority as filled the position under SMC 3.54.030.

B. The Commission shall organize, elect officers, adopt rules for its procedures, and provide a statement of organization and public disclosure index, all in accordance with public disclosure law (RCW 42.17.250 et seq.) and the city's Administrative Procedures Ordinance (SMC 3.02).

C. The Animal Control Commission shall advise the Mayor and the Director of the Department of Licenses and Consumer Affairs regarding animal control in the city. (Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.030 Authority of the Director.

A. The Director is authorized to:

1. Make rules for the interpretation and implementation of this ordinance, pursuant to the Administrative Code;¹

2. Accept the surrender of animals to the City Animal Shelter;

3. Permit adoption from the City Animal Shelter of animals that have been surrendered to the city, or which are stray or under detainment and not claimed during the holding period;

4. Direct humane disposal of any animal surrendered to the city, or any animal unclaimed during the holding period, or any animal found to be a nuisance, or found to be vicious;

5. Detain animals found to be unlicensed, or abandoned, or at large, or in inhumane conditions, or to be a nuisance, or to be vicious, or otherwise found to be in a circumstance violative of this chapter;

6. Collect cats, dogs and other animals found dead on the public areas of the city, or from private property on request of the occupant of the property, and to bury, cremate, or arrange for the disposal of such animal;

7. Appoint charitable and nonprofit organizations as agents for collection of dog and cat license fees;

8. Grant, renew, or deny licenses according to the terms of this chapter;

9. Administer the City Animal Shelter;

10. Administer the City Spay and Neuter Clinic and Program;²

11. Collect fees for the services authorized by this chapter;

12. Issue permits for the trapping of animals (other than rats and mice) with a device that does no physical harm to the animal trapped.

B. The Director shall keep records of the handling and licensure of animals in the city.

C. Nothing prohibits the Police Department from enforcing provisions of this chapter. (Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

1. Editor's Note: The Administrative Code is codified in Chapter 3.02 of this Code.

2. Editor's Note: The City Spay and Neuter Clinic is the Municipal Pet Sterilization Clinic mentioned in Section 9.24.045.

9.24.040 Animal Shelter.

A. There shall be a City Animal Shelter within the city for detaining animals, and having facilities for handling animals that are injured or ill, or possibly contagious with infectious diseases, and facilities for humane disposal of animals.

B. No animal at the City Animal Shelter shall be used, sold, loaned or given away for medical or research purposes, whether the animal is dead or alive.

(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.045 Municipal Pet Sterilization Clinic.

There shall be a Pet Sterilization Clinic as provided by Ordinance 107631.¹

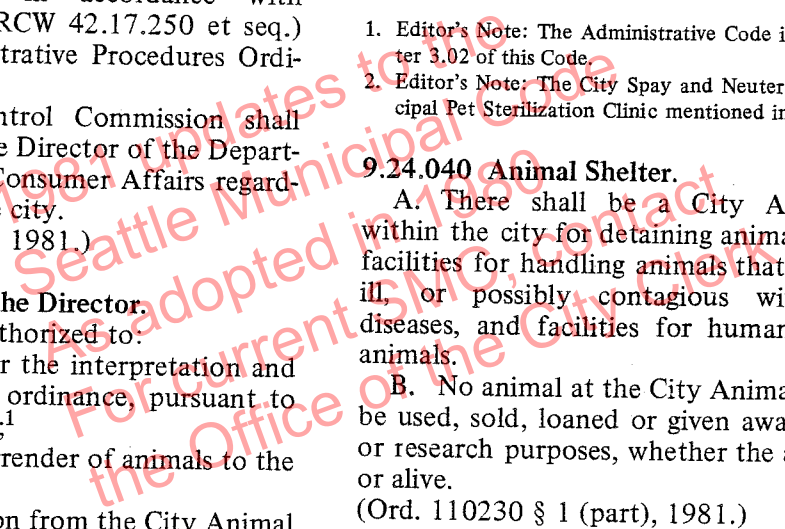

(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

1. Editor's Note: Ordinance 107631 submitted to city voters an initiative on the Pet Sterilization Clinic, and was approved.

9.24.050 Animal licenses generally.

A. The following animal licenses shall be required: Cat and dog licenses; pet kennel licenses; guard and attack dog licenses and dangerous animal licenses.

from the requirement to obtain other types of animal licenses, or from the requirements of health or zoning laws.

C. Licenses are not transferable.

D. Applications for licenses and permits shall be made on forms approved by the Director and shall be accompanied by the fee set by the Animal Fee Ordinance¹ and proof of alteration if the animal is altered. Licenses shall be issued in the name of the owner, and shall be numbered serially. An identification tag inscribed "Seattle," a number corresponding to the license, and the license expiration date shall accompany each license issued. Licenses shall be issued for a twelve-month period. (Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

1. Editor's Note: The Animal Fee Ordinance is codified at Chapter 9.26 of this Code.

9.24.051 Cat and dog licenses.

Any owner of a cat or dog that is four months of age or older, must obtain a valid license for each such animal.

(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.052 Pet kennel license.

A. No person shall keep more than three cats or three dogs or any combination of cats and dogs exceeding three in number that are over four months of age on any premises in the city without having a "pet kennel license" for each of the premises at which the animals are kept.

B. The Director shall issue a pet kennel license only after it has been determined that the proposed use is consistent with the Seattle Zoning Code¹ as now or hereafter amended, and the Director of Public Health has determined that the premises proposed to be licensed are sanitary and that its use as a kennel is consistent with public peace, health, safety and welfare and in conformity with other Health Department rules and regulations.

(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

1. Editor's Note: The Zoning Code is codified in Title 24 of this Code.

9.24.053 Dangerous animals.

It is unlawful for any person to procure or keep a dangerous animal without the prior approval of the Director, granted following a hearing to determine that the animal will be adequately controlled to protect the health and safety of humans and of other animals; provided, this prohibition shall not apply to any facilities possessing or maintaining dangerous animals which are owned, operated or maintained by any city, county, state or federal agency, nor to a properly licensed veterinary hospital where a dangerous animal may be confined temporarily for treatment. The Director may authorize by special permit, not to exceed thirty days, the keeping of dangerous animals for circuses or special exhibits.

(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.054 Guard or attack dog license.

A. No person shall use a guard or attack dog without first obtaining a "guard or attack dog license" therefor.

B. The applicant for a guard or attack dog license shall certify the following information:

1. The name and address of the owner of the guard or attack dog, a description of the dog, and the address and business name (if any) of the premises the dog will guard;

2. The name and address of the trainer, and the name and address of the purveyor of the dog;

3. That the premises the dog will guard are adequately secured for the safety of the public;

4. That signs are displayed on the premises at all entrances clearly warning that a guard or attack dog is on duty;

5. That the user of the guard or attack dog is aware of and understands the aggressive nature of the dog.

(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.060 Right of entry and inspection.

A. Pursuant to consent of the owner or occupant of any premises the Director or any police officer may enter and inspect said premises to determine compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

B. The Director or any police officer may enter the private property of another, with or without a warrant, when in hot pursuit to take possession of any animal observed at large.

C. The Director or any police officer may enter the private property of another to enforce this chapter when equipped with a properly issued search warrant.

D. The Director or any police officer may enter the private property of another in the absence of the owner or occupant when in his/her judgment an animal on such premises needs immediate assistance or to prevent its death or serious injury.

(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.070 Fees.

All fees are established by separate ordinance.¹ (Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

1. Editor's Note: Animal fees are codified in Chapter 9.26 of this Code.

9.24.080 Offenses relating to licensing.

It is unlawful for the owner of any animal to:

A. Fail to obtain the licenses required by the Animal Control Fee Ordinance;¹

B. Fail to display conspicuously a license identification tag on the licensed animal;

C. Fail to show the license upon request of any animal control officer or any police officer;

D. Use or permit another person to use a license or license identification tag not issued to such person;

E. Remove a license identification tag from any cat or dog without the owner's consent;

F. Change, in any manner, a license or license identification tag;

G. Make a false or misleading statement or representation regarding the ownership or right to custody or control of an animal, or regarding the ownership of an animal redeemed from, surrendered to, detained by the Director; or to

H. Remove any detained animal from the City Animal Shelter or Department vehicle without the written consent of the Director.

(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

1. Editor's Note: The Animal Fee Ordinance is codified in Chapter 9.26 of this Code.

9.24.081 Offenses relating to cruelty.

It is unlawful for any person to:

A. Injure, kill, or physically mistreat any animal except as is expressly permitted by law;

B. Lay out to expose or leave exposed any kind of poison or poisoned food or drink where accessible to an animal, or place such poisoned materials in a stream or other body of water, endangering fish or shellfish; provided, that nothing shall prevent the reasonable use of rodent poison, insecticides, fungicides or slug bait for their intended purposes; and provided, further, that nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit any governmental agency acting in the course of its governmental duties;

C. Set or bait any trap without a valid permit issued by the Director; provided, no permit is required to trap rats or mice;

D. Confine, without necessary ventilation, any animal in any box, container or vehicle;

E. Tease, tantalize or provoke any animal with the intent to cause fear or anger;

F. Tether or confine any animal in such a manner or in such a place as to cause injury or pain or to endanger an animal; or to keep an animal in quarters that are injurious to the animal due to inadequate protection from heat or cold, or that are of insufficient size to permit the animal to move about freely;

G. Keep an animal in an unsanitary condition or to provide insufficient food, water, shelter, or ventilation necessary for the good health of that animal;

H. Fail to provide his/her animal the medical care that is necessary for its health or to alleviate its pain;

I. Permit any animal to fight or injure any other animal, or permit any animal to be fought or injured by any other animal; or to train or keep for the purpose of training any animal for the exhibition of such animal in combat with any other animal; whether for amusement of him/herself or others, or for financial gain; or permit such conduct on premises under his/her control, or to be present as a spectator at such exhibition.

(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.082 Offenses relating to safety and sanitation.

It is unlawful for an owner to:

A. Allow the accumulation of cat or dog feces in any open area, run, cage or yard wherein dogs and/or cats are kept and to fail to remove or dispose of feces at least once every twenty-four hours;

B. Fail to remove the fecal matter deposited by his/her animal on public property before the owner leaves the immediate area where the fecal matter was deposited;

C. Fail to have in his/her possession the equipment necessary to remove his/her animal's fecal matter when accompanied by said animal on public property or public easement;

(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.083 Owning vicious animals prohibited— Exception.

It is unlawful to own a vicious animal (other than a licensed guard or attack dog).
(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.084 Offenses relating to control.

It is unlawful for the owner to:

A. Permit any domestic animal except cats and pigeons to be at large; provided, that pets may be removed from the premises of the owner if restrained by a leash that is eight feet or shorter, and if in the physical control of a person;

B. Permit any cat or dog to enter any public fountain or schoolground;

C. Fail to confine any female cat or dog that is in heat in a secure enclosure so that the female cat or dog cannot come in contact with the male unless the male is admitted by the owner of the female;

D. Permit any animal: (1) to damage public property or the private property of another, or (2) to bark, whine, or howl, in violation of Chapter 25.08 of the Seattle Municipal Code (Noise Ordinance 106360) or its successor ordinance; or (3) to spread or spill garbage;

E. Permit any animal to trespass upon the property of another;

F. Have in his/her possession any animal not owned by him/her without the knowledge of the owner, unless he/she notifies the Director of such possession within twenty-four hours; or to fail to surrender such animal to the Director upon demand;

G. Tether an animal in such a manner as to permit the animal to enter any sidewalk, street, alley or place open to the public, or to enter any adjacent lot or premises unless authorized by the occupant of the adjacent premises.
(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.085 Offenses relating to sale of animals.

For the purpose of consumer protection it is unlawful to:

A. Sell any animal known to be sick or injured unless the buyer is given, at the time of sale, written notice of the condition of the animal;

B. Sell any animal known to be vicious.
(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.090 Detainment, adoption and disposal.

A. No detained animal shall be released to the owner until all applicable fees are paid.

B. The Director shall ascertain whether any detained animal is currently licensed, and, if so, shall notify the licensee by letter or by telephone that such animal has been detained and may be redeemed upon payment of any applicable fees.

C. Anyone claiming a detained animal must prove ownership to the satisfaction of the Director before redeeming the animal.

D. Injured, diseased or wild animals need not be detained for the holding period, but may be disposed of in a humane manner at any time at the discretion of the Director.

E. Any animal which is detained by the Director may be held at the City Animal Shelter or other place appropriate for the animal. The Director shall post a notice of detainment at the City Animal Shelter, and shall attempt to determine ownership of an animal. If, at the end of the holding period, no owner has claimed the animal, the Director shall dispose of the animal in a humane manner.

F. A kennel fee for every twenty-four hour period or part thereof for the care and feeding of the animal shall be charged to the owner commencing at the close of business on the day the animal is detained.

G. The Director of Public Health may direct the detention of animals suspected of having rabies. These animals shall be held until their release is approved by the Director of Public Health, and all applicable fees are paid.
(Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.091 Adoption.

A. Strays and abandoned animals, following the holding period, the animals voluntarily surrendered to the Director shall become the property of the City of Seattle.

B. Any animal detained or surrendered to the Department, and not redeemed, shall be disposed of in a humane manner or, at the discretion of the Director, may be held for a longer period to allow for adoption.

C. No warranty, express or implied shall be made with respect to any animal adopted.

D. Any unaltered cat or dog selected for adoption must be spayed or neutered within a specified period of time. The expense of spaying or neutering will be paid by the adopter. A spay/neuter deposit is required at the time of adoption. The deposit shall be refunded when proof has been furnished to the Director that the sterilization operation has been performed prior to the established due date. The spay/neuter deposit shall be forfeited to the City of Seattle if not claimed on or before the due date.

E. All dogs and cats adopted from the City Animal Shelter, regardless of age, must be licensed.

F. Dog and cat license fees may be refunded to any adopter, providing the animal is returned to the City Animal Shelter within eight days of the day of adoption accompanied by a written request for the refund and documentation from a licensed veterinarian certifying that the animal was diseased or ill at the time of adoption. (Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.092 Nuisance animals.

A. Any animal which, by its actions or condition, presents a clear and present threat to the public peace, health, or safety is a nuisance and may be summarily detained pending correction of the condition, or pending the owner's trial for violation of this chapter.

B. If an animal is a threat to public peace, health or safety, but the public is not in imminent danger, in lieu of summarily detaining the animal, the Director may post a notice to abate a nuisance upon any property wherein an animal is kept in violation of the provisions of this chapter. If no response is made to the notice within twenty-four hours, the animal shall be detained at the City Animal Shelter.

C. In addition, nothing shall prevent prosecution of owners of noisy animals under Chapter 25.08 of the Seattle Municipal Code (Noise Ordinance 106360) or its successor ordinance. (Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)

9.24.100 Penalty clause.

A. Conduct made unlawful by this chapter constitutes a crime subject to the provisions of Sections 12A.02.010 and 12A.02.020 of the Seattle Municipal Code (Ordinance 102843 as amended) and any person convicted thereof may be punished by a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or by imprisonment for no more than one hundred eighty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

B. In addition, the court may revoke or deny any pet kennel license, guard or attack dog license any any cat or dog license for a period not to exceed one year; provided, that any person convicted on three or more separate occasions in any twelve-month period of an offense relating to control as defined in Section 9.24.084 may have his or her cat or dog license revoked or denied.

C. Any person whose pet kennel license is revoked or denied shall surrender all cats and dogs or combinations of cats and dogs in excess of three to the director to be disposed of in a humane manner.

D. Any person whose guard or attack dog license is revoked or denied shall surrender all of his or her guard or attack dogs to the Director to be disposed of in a humane manner.

E. Any person whose cat or dog license is revoked or denied shall surrender all of his or her cats and dogs to the Director to be disposed of in a humane manner. (Ord. 110230 § 1 (part), 1981.)
