

Mc GILVRA PLACE

3,624 sq. ft.
 Created by Condemn. 1901
 for Pike St. extension = Engr. Dept. jurisdiction
 Maint. transf. to Park Dept.
 JU 3-2797

11 large trees in parking strip
 Low retaining wall surrounding the Lawn area

Name honors pioneer Judge John J. McGilvra whose homestead was on Lake Washington at the end of a road thru the timber; became E. Madison St.
 (honoring the 43rd President.)

(Pike St. named for John Frazee, designer of and carpenter on original Denny Fall, downtown on University St.; bell, cusola & columns moved to present site
 at U.W.)

SPRING MINI-PARK

14,400 sq. ft.
 Purch. 1901 for $10,000 by PAC
 "...for outdoor recreation..."

Named by C.I.P./Park Board
 Name is derived from Spring St. which was named Arthur Jenny because of his "foot" on Elliott Bay, from a clear spring, favorite camp of the Indians.

583-2797

(Mc GILVRA PLACE) ENGR.
 SPRING MINI-PARK