SEATTLE CITY ATTORNEY
MARK H. SIDRAN

November 18, 1992

Honorable George Benson
President
Seattle City Council

Re: Legislation to Continue High Impact Offender Project

Dear Councilmember Benson:

In 1990 the City Council approved the creation of the High Impact Offender Project, a federally funded program aimed at emphasizing the vigorous prosecution of misdemeanors committed by habitual criminals who have been convicted of drug related criminal activity. The Project is operated by the Criminal Division of the City Attorney's Office in cooperation with the King County Prosecuting Attorney. The Project has been funded by 75% federal funds and 25% local funds, with the local match being split between Seattle (75%) and King County (25%).

Federal funding for the Project ($138,250) has been renewed for federal fiscal year 1992-1993 and the Mayor has included the City matching appropriation ($46,448) in the 1993 budget. These funds support two City prosecutors, one paralegal and one administrative specialist I. The attached legislation will authorize the renewal of pertinent contracts, positions and expenditures to continue the project from July 1, 1992 until the end of the federal fiscal year on June 30, 1993. The Project has continuing funding participation by the King County Prosecutor through December, 1992. At the present time, the County matching funds have not been specifically included in the County's 1993 budget. In the event that County funding is not forthcoming, the Project will be appropriately modified in a manner that will not significantly impact the prosecution of City cases.

I believe that the Project has had continued success in meeting its goals and has the support of the Mayor, Chief Fitzsimons and King County Prosecutor Norm Maleng. I am requesting you refer the attached proposed legislation to the Council's Public Safety Committee. I appreciate your assistance.

Sincerely,

Mark H. Sidran
Seattle City Attorney
