ORDINANCE 120639

AN ORDINANCE relating to the Building and Construction Codes, Subtitle VI Fire Code, amending Seattle Municipal Code Section 22.602.040 and Section 22.602.050 to add, delete, and revise permit codes and fees, and make clerical corrections.

WHEREAS, in the year 2000, supplements to the Seattle Fire Code authorized mobile fleet fueling operations to be conducted under permit, and

WHEREAS, Washington State Law establishes $100.00 (One Hundred Dollars) as the maximum permit fee for outdoor and indoor fireworks displays; and,

WHEREAS, in order to be more consistent and equitable regarding charges for similar hazardous material permit inspection services, the Seattle Fire Department will eliminate a permit code for helicopter lifts and reinstate a time charge for special permits which address unique or infrequent hazardous operations, Now, Therefore,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Seattle Municipal Code Section 22.602.040 and its Schedules (Ordinance 110893 Section 2 (part), as last amended by Ordinance 119256 Section 1), are further amended as follows:

SMC 22.602.040 Fees.

A. The fees for the following permits and inspections are established in Schedule A. See Schedule A in Table 22.602.040A.

C. Hazardous Material Related Permits. Fees for hazardous material related permits are established in Schedule C (See Table 22.602.040 C). In some cases these fees are based on the quantity of hazardous material stored and/or handled at the site and the relative risk posed by each material.

1. Definitions:

a. "Quantity Range Number" as established in the Quantity Range Table below, is a number between 1 and 2 which is assigned to a hazard category based upon the amount of hazardous material located at the site.

QUANTITY RANGE TABLE

QUANTITY RANGE NUMBER	SOLIDS (Pounds)	LIQUIDS (Gallons)	GASES (Cu. Ft.)
1	0-550	0-55	0-1,000
1.25	>550 - 5,500	>55 - 550	>1,000 - 5,000
1.5	>5,500 - 27,500	>550 - 2,750	>5,000 - 50,000
1.75	>27,500 - 55,000	>2,750 - 5,500	>50,000 - 100,000
2	>55,000	>5,500	>100,000

b. "Assigned Risk Factor" as established below, is a number assigned to each hazard class and category of hazardous material indicating the relative hazard posed by materials in that hazard category.

Hazard Category	Assigned Risk Factor	Hazard Category	Assigned Risk Factor
Aerosol products	1.3	Liquid petroleum gas	1.4
Cellulose nitrate	1.3	Magnesium	1.3
Combustible fiber	1.2	Organic peroxides

Combustible liquids		Unclassified	1.5
Class II	1.2	Class I	1.4
Class III-A	1.1	Class II	1.3
Class III-B	1.1	Class III	1.2
Compressed gases		Class IV	1.1
Highly toxic	1.5	Oxidizers
Pyrophoric	1.4	Class 4	1.5
Flammable	1.4	Class 3	1.4
Unstable	1.4	Class 2	1.((3)) 2
Oxidizing	1.4	Class 1	1.((2)) 1
Toxic	1.3	Pyrophoric liquids	1.3
Cryogenic	1.3	Radioactives	1.4
Corrosive	1.3	Toxic liquids/solids	1.2
Corrosives	1.1	Unstable (reactive) liquids/solids
Explosives/Blasting agents	1.5	Class 4	1.5
Flammable liquids		Class 3	1.4
Class I-A	1.5	Class 2	1.3
Class I-B	1.4	Class 1	1.2
Class I-C	1.3	Water-reactive materials
Flammable solids	1.3	Class 3	1.5
Highly toxic liquids/solids	1.5	Class 2	1.3
		Class 1	1.1

c. "Fixed permit cost" Ninety-eight Dollars ($98.00) is the minimum cost for the Seattle Fire Department to issue a hazardous material permit.

d. "Base permit fee" is determined by multiplying the sum of the products of the quantity range number and assigned risk factor for each hazard class by the fixed permit cost divided by 1.1 and is represented by the following equation:

$$\text{Base permit fee} = [\Sigma (Q)(R)][F/1.1]$$

Where: Q = The quantity range number.

R = The assigned risk factor.

F = The fixed permit cost ($98.00).

Example:

XYZ Company stores five hundred (500) gallons of gasoline and two hundred (200) pounds of nitric acid. Gasoline is classified as a Class I-B flammable liquid which has an assigned risk factor of 1.4. Nitric acid is classified as a corrosive liquid and a Class 1 oxidizer, both of which have an assigned risk factor of 1.1.

$$\text{Base permit fee} = [(1.25)(1.4)_{\text{flammable}} + (1)(1.1)_{\text{Class 1 oxidizer}}][$98./1.1]$$

$$\text{Base permit fee} = $253.91$$

When a material has multiple hazards, only the hazard presented by the material that has been assigned the highest risk factor shall be considered.

- ¹ Fees apply to non pre-approved applicants.
- ² Fees for pre-approved applicants equal one-half (1/2) of the fee identified in Table 4915.
- ³ Any preapproved applicant found to be in violation of permit conditions shall be removed from the pre-approved applicant list and subject to non pre-approved applicant fees and conditions.
- ⁴ Each applicant who receives a minimum of six (6) permits (Code 4915) during a six (6) month period and is found to be in compliance with all permit conditions will be considered a pre-approved applicant after the six (6) month period. Applicants who obtain fewer than six (6) permits (Code 4915) during a six (6) month period will be considered a pre-approved applicant only after six (6) permits have been issued and no permit violations are noted.

* Biannual Renewal Fee

D. All permits listed under subsection A and C of this section, except for those permits for which a time charge is indicated, have a base fee which incorporates the cost of an initial site inspection and one (1) site reinspection to determine compliance with the Seattle Fire Code. Permits for which a time charge is indicated include a base fee and a labor charge calculated on actual costs for labor and other services incurred by the Fire Department before a permit is issued. Any subsequent inspections will result in a fee based on a time charge which shall be calculated on actual costs for labor and other services. Such fees shall include overtime costs only when the work performed outside normal business hours (eight a.m. (8:00 a.m.) to four-thirty p.m. (4:30 p.m.) Monday through Friday) is required by the Seattle Fire Code or is performed at the request of the owner or responsible person or permit holder.

E. Temporary permits listed under Schedule A and C will not be renewed on an annual basis.

F. Those permit applications which are required to be filed within time limitations specified under the Seattle Fire Code or by order of the Fire Chief, shall be subject to a late fee, if not filed within the prescribed time period. The late fee shall be calculated at 1.75 times the original permit fee.

For permits listed under Schedules A and C as renewable, renewal payments received more than thirty (30) days, but less than ninety-one (91) days, past the permit expiration date, shall be subject to a late fee. Permit renewal payments received more than ninety (90) days past the expiration date will not be processed as a renewal and will be subject to original permit fees and the new permit application process.

G. Unless specifically stated on the permit, no temporary use permit shall be valid for a term exceeding twelve (12) months.

H. Each examination fee listed under this section shall include one (1) test and one (1) re-test.

I. The annual permit renewal fee for Schedule C permits where the fee worksheet is used to determine permit fee will be one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the original base permit fee, if the facility is found to be in compliance with the original permit conditions.

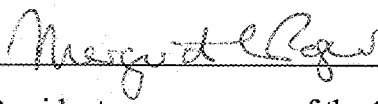

J. Effective January 1, 1999, those facilities which have existing hazardous materials-related permits authorized under Ordinance 116258 shall have their permits renewed at the rate of Ninety Eight Dollars ($98.00) until the Fire Department Article 80 program inspection and inventory analysis for the facility has been performed.

K. In special circumstances, hazardous material permit fees may be adjusted, modified or combined. Authority to adjust, modify or combine such permit fees is limited to the Fire Chief, the Fire Marshal and the Assistant Fire Marshal.

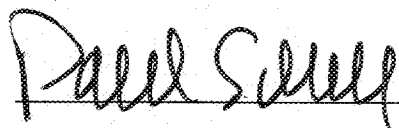

Section 2. Any acts consistent with and prior to the effective date of this Ordinance are hereby ratified and confirmed.

Section 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force thirty (30) days from and after its approval by the Mayor, but if not approved and returned by the Mayor within ten (10) days after presentation, it shall take effect as provided by Municipal Code Section 1.04.020.

MEMORANDUM

Date: September 12, 2001

To: Honorable Margaret Pageler
President, Seattle City Council

Via: Joan Walters, Budget Director

From: Gary P. Morris, Fire Chief
Seattle Fire Department

Subject: AN ORDINANCE relating to the Building and Construction Codes, Subtitle VI Fire Code, amending Seattle Municipal Code Section 22.602.040 and Section 22.602.050 to add, delete, and revise permit codes and fees, and make clerical corrections.

The enclosed ordinance will make a limited number of changes to the Fire Department Fee Schedule for Permits and Services. While the Fire Department is anxious to conduct a complete analysis of fire prevention services in order to overhaul and simplify its entire permit fee schedule, several interim revisions to the schedule are required to address the supplemental amendments made to the Seattle Fire Code in the year 2000, and to adhere to State statutes limiting charges for fireworks permits.

Specifically, this proposed legislation will accomplish the following:

- Add fees for permits for Mobile Fleet Fueling Companies and Mobile Fleet Fueling sites, both of which were authorized in the 2000 Seattle Fire Code supplement.
- Roll back permit fees for indoor and outdoor fireworks permits to a maximum of $100 as required by Washington State statute.
- Authorize charges for labor associated with the special inspection permit category, which is used to allow operations such as hazardous chemical remediation and cruise ship refueling. This permit category is used for special hazardous operations, which are unique, and/or occur infrequently.
- Delete the unique permit code for helicopter lifts. This hazardous operation occurs only once or twice each year and will instead be permitted under the special inspection permit category. This change will ensure more consistency in fees that are applied to similar services.

The revenue impact of the proposed fee changes is minor. The total of all fire prevention permit revenue and fees for 2001 is estimated at approximately $1.4 million. Based on permit history, the above changes will result in an increase in total revenue of approximately $8,088.

While minor revisions to the Fire Department's fee schedule occurred in 1997 and 1998, the last significant revision and analysis of fees occurred in 1996. We appreciate your consideration of these minor changes, and look forward to providing a comprehensive review and possible restructuring of fees in 2002.

If you have any questions or would like additional information, please feel free to call me or Assistant Chief Gregory Dean. We appreciate your consideration of this adjustment to the Fire Department fee schedule.

Legislation Title: AN ORDINANCE relating to the Building and Construction Codes, Subtitle VI Fire Code, amending Seattle Municipal Code Section 22.602.040 and Section 22.602.050 to add, delete, and revise permit codes and fees, and make clerical corrections.

Summary of the Legislation:

This legislation makes several minor changes to the Fire Department's fee schedule to address immediate business and legal requirements. The Fire Department proposes to conduct a comprehensive review and possible restructuring of fees in 2002.

The proposed legislation will accomplish the following:

- Authorize the standard minimum permit fee for Mobile Fleet Fueling Companies and Mobile Fleet Fueling sites, as authorized in the 2000 Seattle Fire Code supplement.
- Roll back permit fees for indoor and outdoor fireworks permits to a maximum of $100 as required by Washington State Statute.
- Authorize charges for labor associated with the special inspection category of Fire Department permits. This permit category is used for special hazardous operations which are unique, or occur infrequently. Permits in this category are generally subject to a wide variance in the time involved to issue the permit and conduct field inspections. As such, Inspectors will maintain a log sheet to record time associated with a permit of this category. The result is that a specific invoice can then be generated for the permit which reflects the labor required to issue the permit and inspect for permit compliance.
- Delete a permit code previously used exclusively for helicopter lifts. A permit for this type of operation will now be handled under the special inspection permit category. This will be a more equitable way in which to handle these infrequent, unique hazardous operations.

Background (Include justification for the legislation and funding history, if applicable):

This legislation is needed to address immediate business needs by allowing authorized activities to occur under permit. It also will address legal requirements that local permit fees do not exceed maximum amounts established by state law.

The Fire Department conducts periodic review of fees for permits and services. While minor revisions to the Fire Department's fee schedule occurred in 1997 and 1998, the last significant revision and analysis of fees occurred in 1996. Extensive analysis and possible restructuring of

AN ORDINANCE relating to the Building and Construction Codes, Subtitle VI Fire Code, amending Seattle Municipal Code Section 22.602.040 and Section 22.602.050 to add, delete, and revise permit codes and fees, and make clerical corrections.

WHEREAS, in the year 2000, supplements to the Seattle Fire Code authorized mobile fleet fueling operations to be conducted under permit, and

WHEREAS, Washington State Law establishes $100.00 (One Hundred Dollars) as the maximum permit fee for outdoor and indoor fireworks displays; and,

WHEREAS, in order to be more consistent and equitable regarding charges for similar hazardous material permit inspection services, the Seattle Fire Department will eliminate a permit code for helicopter lifts and reinstate a time charge for special permits which address unique or infrequent hazardous operations. Now, Therefore,
