ORDINANCE 121877

AN ORDINANCE relating to City streets, changing the name of a segment of Aurora Avenue North, under the Aurora Bridge, to Troll Avenue North and superseding Ordinance 102981 to the extent inconsistent.

WHEREAS, abutting property owners have petitioned the City to rename a segment of Aurora Avenue North which is located below the Aurora Bridge, to fulfill an element of the Fremont Neighborhood plan and recognize the significance of the Troll landmark at this location; and

WHEREAS, the Seattle Fire Department has stated that renaming the street also would help to improve way-finding and reduce response time for emergency vehicles; and

WHEREAS, the Seattle Police Department, U.S. Postal Service, other City departments and utilities have reviewed the proposal and agree that no significant, negative impacts would result from implementing this proposal; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Aurora Avenue North from North 34th Street to North 36th Street is renamed to Troll Avenue North.

Section 2. Ordinance 102981, establishing the street names in the City of Seattle, is hereby superseded to the extent it is inconsistent with this ordinance.

1 Section 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force thirty (30) days from and after
2 its approval by the Mayor, but if not approved and returned by the Mayor within ten (10) days
3 after presentation, it shall take effect as provided by Municipal Code Section 1.04.020.

Legislation Title:

AN ORDINANCE relating to City streets, changing the name of a segment of Aurora Avenue North to Troll Avenue North and superseding Ordinance 102981 to the extent inconsistent.

• Summary of the Legislation:

This legislation recognizes a neighborhood landmark by changing the street name to Troll Avenue North and improves way-finding for visitors and emergency services to homes located on this street.

• Background: (Include brief description of the purpose and context of legislation and include record of previous legislation and funding history, if applicable):

The Fremont neighborhood included the renaming of a section of Aurora Avenue North to Troll Avenue North in its neighborhood plan and began the process to do so this year by petitioning the Director of Transportation. Seattle Police and Fire department staff reviewed the proposal and agreed that, in addition to recognizing the landmark, changing the street name would improve way-finding. Aurora Avenue North is also the name used for SR-99 which is elevated above this location. Giving the lower street a different name should eliminate confusion related to finding street addresses there.

• Please check one of the following:

This legislation does not have any financial implications. (Stop here and delete the remainder of this document prior to saving and printing.)

This legislation has financial implications. (Please complete all relevant sections that follow.)

There are costs associated with implementing this Ordinance (e.g., SDOT costs for signage, proponents' cost for DPD's making formal changes of address in their records, etc.) but they have been already anticipated in the various departments' appropriations and revenues for 2005.

Honorable Jan Drago
President
Seattle City Council
City Hall, 2nd Floor

Dear Council President Drago:

I am pleased to transmit the attached proposed Council Bill that renames a two-block segment of Aurora Avenue North, which is located below the Aurora Bridge, to Troll Avenue North in recognition of the sculpture that has become a well-known landmark on that street.

In its Neighborhood Plan, the Fremont Neighborhood proposed renaming this portion of Aurora Avenue North located under the Aurora Bridge, and began the process this year by sending a petition signed by the abutting property owners to the Director of Transportation. Seattle Police and Fire Department staff reviewed the proposal and commented that renaming the street would actively help to improve way-finding and reduce response time for emergency vehicles. Other City departments and staff who maintain the City's GIS address data also concurred with this proposal.

Thank you for your consideration of this legislation. Should you have questions, please contact Kathleen Anderson at 684-5017.

Sincerely,
