Legislation Title:

AN ORDINANCE relating to City streets, renaming the segment of Airport Way South between 4th Avenue South and South Charles Street from Airport Way South to Seattle Boulevard South.

Summary of the Legislation: This legislation re-names a segment of Airport Way South to Seattle Boulevard South.

Background: This legislation would re-name the portion of Airport Way South which is adjacent to the historic building that was formerly the Immigration and Naturalization building. The only affected property owners in this case are South Downtown Partners, LLC and INS Holdings, LLC, who have requested the street name change. Only two addresses will have to be changed as a result of this action. Seattle Department of Transportation (SDOT) staff contacted numerous relevant public safety and utility agencies, including the Seattle Police Department, the Seattle Fire Department, Seattle City Light, Seattle Public Utilities, and the United States Postal Service, none of which expressed any concerns with the proposed change.

City representatives also contacted officials from the freight, trucking, and industrial communities about the proposed name change to ensure that any issues related to wayfinding are addressed. The requestors of this name change have agreed to pay the cost for manufacturing and installing the new signs. SDOT will establish a reimbursable account for this effort.

- Please check one of the following:

This legislation does not have any financial implications. (Stop here and delete the remainder of this document prior to saving and printing.)

The costs to install signage for the street name change will be reimbursed by other parties and no new appropriation authority will be required.

Honorable Richard Conlin
President
Seattle City Council
City Hall, 2nd Floor

Dear Council President Conlin:

I am pleased to transmit the attached proposed Council Bill that will change the name of the 400 – 600 blocks of Airport Way South to Seattle Boulevard South, restoring the historic street name to this short stretch of roadway. This section of Airport Way South is distinct from the portion south of 6th Avenue South and the adjacent property owners have requested this change.

This legislation would re-name a short portion of Airport Way South between 4th Avenue South and South Charles Street. The name change was requested by Scott Ramage, INS Holdings, LLC and Gregory Smith, Downtown Partners, LLC. They own the only properties whose addresses will be affected by this change.

Seattle Department of Transportation (SDOT) staff contacted numerous relevant public safety and utility agencies, including the Seattle Police Department, the Seattle Fire Department, Seattle City Light and Seattle Public Utilities, none of which expressed any concerns with the proposed change.

Thank you for considering this legislation. Should you have questions, please contact Roxanne Thomas at (206) 386-9060.

Sincerely,
