Council also has independent authority to establish the Commission by ordinance.

WHEREAS, on October 9, 2012, the Mayor issued Executive Order 02-2012 outlining the parameters for creating the CPC consistent with this Ordinance in order to begin the application process for selecting members; and

1 WHEREAS, the City Council desires to provide additional guidance, consistent with and
2 complementary to the Agreement and MOU regarding the role of the CPC in order to

11 BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

12 Section 1. Commission Established. The City of Seattle hereby establishes the 13 Community Police Commission. The CPC will consist of 15 members and remain in existence

21 The CPC is established to leverage the ideas, talent, experience, and expertise of the

9 organizations, and any other community organizations reflecting the overall population
10 demographic of Seattle residents. An applicant's race, sex, color, ethnicity, or national origin

12 among equally qualified applicants consideration should be given to have gender balance on the 13 CPC. The CPC membership will include residents from each of the five geographic police
14 precincts.

15 In accordance with the Agreement, the Mayor will formally appoint the initial Chair of

7 responsibilities outlined in this ordinance and the Agreements. The CPC's work will be carried

12 and City Council in July and December each year.

13 B. Hold public meetings at regular intervals (minimum of one per year) to discuss
14 the Monitor's reports and to receive community feedback about SPD's progress or compliance
15 with the Agreements. The City will provide the CPC with administrative, including office and

24 E. The City will consider and respond to the CPC's requests recommendations in a
25 timely manner.

1 F. Without the necessity of making a public disclosure request, the CPC may request
2 and obtain from other agencies in the City, including SPD, information that would be disclosed if
3 requested under the Public Records Act. This information may be used to conduct independent
4 analysis of SPD's trainings, policies, and practices on use of force, crisis intervention, stops and
5 detention, accountability and bias free policing.

6 G. The CPC will update the City Council on their work through quarterly public
7 briefings either before the Full Council, a special Committee of the Whole or the Public Safety,
8 Civil Rights and Technology Committee (or its successor committee) during the first year of its

10 CPC and the City Council on the SPD reform effort. Beyond the first year, briefings will be
11 scheduled as necessary through mutual agreement between the CPC and the City Council.

12 H. The CPC will not review or report on specific cases of alleged misconduct, review
13 or comment on discipline, and will not seek to influence the course or outcome of a specific

20 public meetings.

21 K. The CPC will adopt rules, regulations, and procedures for the conduct of its 22 business and may establish any committees deemed necessary for the conduct of its business. In 23 order to support its work, the CPC may also establish additional subcommittees or panels that
24 include non-Commission members.

2 concerning budgetary appropriations to promote reforms necessary to accomplish the terms of
3 the Agreement and the MOU.

6 solicit and consider the views and recommendations of OPARB regarding reforms to the City's
7 police accountability structure and when practicable, will provide OPARB with draft reports as a
8 means to gain any recommendations or insight OPARB may provide. Nothing in this section is 9 intended to negate or affect the independent status and nature of the CPC.

10 Section 8. This ordinance will take effect and be in force 30 days after its approval by 11 the Mayor, but if not approved and returned by the Mayor within ten days after presentation, it
12 will take effect as provided by Seattle Municipal Code Section 1.04.020.

Legislation Title: AN ORDINANCE relating to effective and constitutional policing, creating the Community Police Commission and establishing functions and prescribing duties consistent with the settlement agreement and memorandum of understanding entered into between the United States and the City of Seattle.

Summary of the Legislation: This legislation, in conjunction with an Executive Order, would implement the provision for creating a Community Police Commission (CPC) as part of the settlement agreement (Agreement) and memorandum of understanding (MOU) between the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) and the City of Seattle approved in Federal Court on August 30, 2012. The framework for the CPC is outlined in the Agreement and MOU and this ordinance would formalize those elements. Some key components are as follows:

- The CPC is established to leverage the ideas, talent, experience, and expertise of the community. Implementation of the MOU will be overseen by the Parties and the CPC.
- The CPC creates an important opportunity for Seattle's diverse communities to participate in the implementation of the MOU and the Settlement Agreement, and to promote greater transparency and public understanding of the Seattle Police Department.
- The CPC will consist of fifteen (15) members, including a Chair designated by the Mayor. All fifteen (15) members will be appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the City Council.
- The CPC will have the following duties:
 - o The CPC will undertake the responsibilities assigned to the CPC in the Agreements;
 - o The CPC will review the reports and recommendations of the Monitor, issue its own report or recommendations to the City on the implementation of the Agreement;
 - o The CPC may review and issue reports or recommendations as to the implementation of SPD's 20/20 initiative and other initiatives of SPD and the City to support the reform process; and
 - o The CPC may consider other issues as referred by DOJ and the City in Section III. C. of the MOU related to the following:

A. Community engagement

B. Accountability

1. Review of Office of Professional Accountability (OPA) structure;
2. Investigation timelines; and
3. Public education and outreach

C. Investigatory stops and data collection

D. Officer assistance and support

E. Transparency and public reporting.

- The CPC may propose legislation to the City Council that will further the purposes described in Section 2.
- The CPC may make budgetary proposals and recommendations to the City Council regarding the City's budget that will further the purposes described in Section 2.

The CPC is also responsible for any and all duties prescribed in the Agreement and MOU that are otherwise not identified in this ordinance. The CPC may also appear before the Court enforcing the Settlement Agreement if the Court determines that the CPC has standing and meets the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 24.

Background:

From March to December of 2011, DOJ conducted an investigation of SPD pursuant to the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, and Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. In December, the Justice Department announced its findings that SPD had engaged in a pattern or practice of officers using excessive force. DOJ also found concerns related to SPD policies and practices in a number of other areas including pedestrian encounters and potential bias policing. As a result, the City and DOJ negotiated and entered into a Settlement Agreement and MOU with the goal of:

“ensuring that police services are delivered to the people of Seattle in a manner that fully complies with the Constitution and laws of the United States, effectively ensures public and officer safety, and promotes public confidence in the Seattle Police Department (SPD) and its officers.” – Page 1, Settlement Agreement and Stipulated Order of Resolution, United States v. City of Seattle.

The CPC is one element of the Settlement Agreement and MOU. The City Council and Mayor are working collaboratively to implement and advance other elements of the Agreements.

Legislation Title: AN ORDINANCE relating to effective and constitutional policing, creating the Community Police Commission and establishing functions and prescribing duties consistent with the settlement agreement and memorandum of understanding entered into between the United States and the City of Seattle.

Summary of the Legislation: This legislation, in conjunction with an Executive Order, would implement the provision for creating a Community Police Commission (CPC) as part of the settlement agreement (Agreement) and memorandum of understanding (MOU) between the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) and the City of Seattle approved in Federal Court on August 30, 2012. The framework for the CPC is outlined in the Agreement and MOU and this ordinance would formalize those elements. Some key components are as follows:

- The CPC is established to leverage the ideas, talent, experience, and expertise of the community. Implementation of the MOU will be overseen by the Parties and the CPC.
- The CPC creates an important opportunity for Seattle's diverse communities to participate in the implementation of the MOU and the Settlement Agreement, and to promote greater transparency and public understanding of the Seattle Police Department.
- The CPC will consist of eleven (11) members, including a Chair designated by the Mayor. All eleven (11) members will be appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the City Council.
- The CPC will have the following duties:
 - o The CPC will undertake the responsibilities assigned to the CPC in the Agreements;
 - o The CPC will review the reports and recommendations of the Monitor, issue its own report or recommendations to the City on the implementation of the Agreement;
 - o The CPC may review and issue reports or recommendations as to the implementation of SPD's 20/20 initiative and other initiatives of SPD and the City to support the reform process; and
 - o The CPC may consider other issues as referred by DOJ and the City in Section III. C. of the MOU related to the following:
 - A. Community engagement

THIS VERSION IS NOT ADOPTED

B. Accountability

1. Review of Office of Professional Accountability (OPA) structure;
2. Investigation timelines; and
3. Public education and outreach

C. Investigatory stops and data collection

D. Officer assistance and support

E. Transparency and public reporting.

- The CPC may propose legislation to the City Council that will further the purposes described in Section 2.
- The CPC may make budgetary proposals and recommendations to the City Council regarding the City's budget that will further the purposes described in Section 2.

The CPC is also responsible for any and all duties prescribed in the Agreement and MOU that are otherwise not identified in this ordinance. The CPC may also appear before the Court enforcing the Settlement Agreement if the Court determines that the CPC has standing and meets the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 24.

Background:

From March to December of 2011, DOJ conducted an investigation of SPD pursuant to the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968, and Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. In December, the Justice Department announced its findings that SPD had engaged in a pattern or practice of officers using excessive force. DOJ also found concerns related to SPD policies and practices in a number of other areas including pedestrian encounters and potential bias policing. As a result, the City and DOJ negotiated and entered into a Settlement Agreement and MOU with the goal of:

“ensuring that police services are delivered to the people of Seattle in a manner that fully complies with the Constitution and laws of the United States, effectively ensures public and officer safety, and promotes public confidence in the Seattle Police Department (SPD) and its officers.” – Page 1, Settlement Agreement and Stipulated Order of Resolution, United States v. City of Seattle.

The CPC is one element of the Settlement Agreement and MOU. The City Council and Mayor are working collaboratively to implement and advance other elements of the Agreements.
