CITY OF SEATTLE

ORDINANCE 12496

COUNCIL BILL 118585

AN ORDINANCE relating to employment in Seattle; amending Chapters 14.16, 14.17, 14.19, and 14.20 of the Seattle Municipal Code to prescribe additional remedies and enforcement procedures, harmonize ordinance language, and add provisions to facilitate compliance; amending Section 3.14.931 of the Seattle Municipal Code to update duties of the Seattle Human Rights Commission; and amending Section 5.55.230 of the Seattle Municipal Code to require labor standards compliance for business license tax certificates.

WHEREAS, the Seattle City Council issued a statement of legislative intent to prepare legislation to increase remedies for violations of Seattle's labor standards ordinances and strengthen enforcement procedures; and

WHEREAS, the Office of the City Auditor performed an enforcement audit of Chapter 14.16, the Paid Sick and Safe Time Ordinance, for the period of September 1, 2012 through December 31, 2013, issued its report on October 17, 2014, and made 13 recommendations to address its findings, strengthen enforcement, and enhance implementation; and

WHEREAS, clear and comprehensive remedies for labor standards ordinance violations, including retaliation, are critical to protecting workers from theft of wages, tips, and benefits, and other compensation due by reason of employment, and substandard working conditions, as well as protecting employers from unfair competition from employers who do not comply; and

WHEREAS, data-driven directed investigations are more effective than complaint-based investigations at creating and maintaining employer compliance with labor standards laws; and

1	WHEREAS, the state of New York recently moved to end wage theft and retaliation in the nail
2	salon industry through a comprehensive package of targeted culturally competent
3	outreach, directed investigations, strengthened remedies, and monitored future
4	compliance; and
5	WHEREAS, the City of Seattle Office of Labor Standards strives to advance workplace equity
6	for all Seattle workers, including but not limited to vulnerable or historically
7	disadvantaged communities who are disproportionately represented among low income
8	workers or who may not otherwise have access to the minimum requirements and
9	protections of Seattle's labor standards ordinances; and
10	WHEREAS, the City of Seattle Office of Labor Standards, like the United States Department of
11	Labor's Wage and Hour Division and the Washington State Department of Labor and
12	Industries, must rely on the cooperation of willing workers to report and testify about
13	substandard working conditions; and
14	WHEREAS, cooperating victim-witnesses of qualifying criminal activities who have suffered
15	substantial physical or mental abuse may apply for a "U" Visa from the U.S. Citizenship
16	and Immigration Service, if an agency that investigates and detects such criminal activity
17	certifies their applications; and
18	WHEREAS, retaliation against one person can induce an entire workforce to accept substandard
19	working conditions, and preventing retaliation is of the highest importance; and
20	WHEREAS, misclassification of bona fide employees as independent contractors may deprive
21	those employees of the protections of Seattle's labor standards ordinances; and

1	WHEREAS, liability may extend to "joint employers" even when there is no formal employmen
2	relationship if employment by one employer is not completely disassociated from
3	employment by the other employer;
4	WHEREAS, damages as a multiple of unpaid wages and compensation due, and penalties
5	payable to aggrieved parties, serve to compensate workers for labor standards ordinance
6	violations; and
7	WHEREAS, civil penalties and fines serve to deter employer labor standards ordinance
8	violations; and
9	WHEREAS, equitable remedies, such as orders directing managers to attend training, submit
10	payroll documents on an ongoing basis, and provide notices to workers in their own
11	languages about their rights, serve to sustain employer compliance following an
12	investigation as well as empower workers; and
13	WHEREAS, RCW 49.48.086 allows the Washington State Department of Labor and Industries
14	to file warrants to collect unpaid wages in courts of competent jurisdiction; and
15	WHEREAS, liberally construing the protections afforded in Chapters 14.16, 14.17, 14.19, and
16	14.20 in favor of the employee shall accomplish the purposes of Seattle's labor standards
17	ordinances; and
18	WHEREAS, the City of Seattle finds it necessary and appropriate to create a stronger incentive
19	for employees to report labor standards violations and for employers to comply with
20	labor standards requirements; NOW, THEREFORE,
21	BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:
22	Section 1. A new Section 14.16.005 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
23	14.16.005 Short title
	i '

This Chapter 14.16 shall constitute the "Paid Sick and Safe Time Ordinance" and may be cited as such.

Section 2. Section 14.16.010 of the Seattle Municipal Code, last amended by Ordinance 124644, is amended as follows:

14.16.010((-)) Definitions

For purposes of this ((chapter)) Chapter 14.16:

"Adverse action" means ((the discharge, suspension, discipline, transfer, demotion, or denial of promotion by an employer of an employee)) denying a job or promotion, demoting, terminating, failing to rehire after a seasonal interruption of work, threatening, penalizing, retaliating, engaging in unfair immigration-related practices, filing a false report with a government agency, changing an employee's status to nonemployee, or otherwise discriminating against any person for any reason prohibited by ((14.16.040)) Section 14.16.055. "Adverse action" for an employee may involve any aspect of employment, including pay, work hours, responsibilities, or other material change in the terms and condition of employment.

"Agency" ((shall-mean)) means the Office for Civil Rights and any division therein.

"Aggrieved party" means an employee or other person who suffers tangible or intangible harm due to an employer or other person's violation of this Chapter 14.16.

"Benefit year" means any fixed, consecutive 12-month period of time that is normally used by an employer for calculating wages and benefits, including: January 1 through December 31; a tax year, fiscal year, or contract year; or the year running from an employee's one-year anniversary date of employment. An employer must provide written notice of the employer's choice of benefit year in the employer's policy and procedure for meeting the paid sick and paid safe time requirements of this Chapter 14.16, pursuant to subsection 14.16.045.C. If an employer transitions from one type of benefit year to another, the employer must ensure that the transition 1 2 process maintains the accrual, use and carry-over of paid sick and paid safe time hours that are 3 required by this Chapter 14.16. 4 "Business" and "engaging in business" has the same meanings as in Chapter 5.30. 5 "City" ((shall mean)) means the City of Seattle. 6 "City department" means any agency, office, board, or commission of the City, or any 7 Department employee acting on its behalf, but ((shall)) "City department" does not mean a 8 public corporation chartered under Ordinance 103387 as amended, or its successor ordinances, or 9 any contractor, consultant, concessionaire, or lessee. (("Charging party" means the person aggrieved by an alleged violation of this chapter or 10 the person making a charge on another person's behalf, or the Director when the Director files a 11 12 charge. 13 "Commission" means the Seattle Human Rights Commission.)) 14 "Director" means the Division Director of the Office of Labor Standards within the Office for Civil Rights or the Division Director's designee. 15 "Eating and/or drinking establishment" means a place where food and/or beverages are 16 17 prepared and sold at retail for immediate consumption either on- or off-premise, but excludes 18 food and beverage service sites, such as cafeterias, that are accessory to other activities and 19 primarily serve students, patients, and/or on-site employees. 20 "Employ" means to suffer or permit to work. "Employee" ((shall mean)) means any individual employed by an employer, ((and shall 21 22 include traditional)) including but not limited to full-time employees, ((temporary workers, and))

part-time employees, and temporary workers. ((Individuals performing services under a work

1 study agreement are not covered by this chapter. Employees are covered by this chapter if they 2 perform their work in Seattle. An employee who performs work in Seattle on an occasional basis . 3 is covered by this chapter only if he performs more than 240 hours of work in Seattle within a calendar year. An employee who is not covered by this Chapter is still included in any 4 5 determination of the size of the employer. In the event that a temporary employee is supplied by 6 a staffing agency or similar entity, absent a contractual agreement stating otherwise, that 7 individual shall be deemed to be an employee of the staffing agency for all purposes of this 8 chapter, except as provided in subsection 14.16.010.T.4.b.)) 9 An employer bears the burden of proof that the individual is in business 10 for oneself rather than dependent upon the alleged employer. For purposes of this Chapter 14.16, "employee" does not include an 11 individual performing services under a work study agreement. 12

"Employer" ((shall mean, as defined in subsection 14.04.030.K, any person who has one or more employees, or the employer's designee or any person acting in the interest of such employer. Employer size shall be determined as provided in subsection 14.16.010.T.)) means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, business trust, or any entity, person or group of persons, or a successor thereof, that employs another person and includes any such entity or person acting directly or indirectly in the interest of an employer in relation to an employee.

- 1. More than one entity may be the "employer" if employment by one employer is not completely disassociated from employment by the other employer.
- 2.____For purposes of this ((aet,)) Chapter 14.16, "employer" does not include any of the following:

Section 3. A new Section 14.16.015 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.16.015 Employment in Seattle

- A. Subject to subsection 14.16.015.B, an employee is covered by this Chapter 14.16 if the employee performs work within the geographic boundaries of the City.
- B. An employee who is typically based outside of the City and performs work in the City on an occasional basis is covered by this Chapter 14.16 only if the employee performs more than 240 hours of work in the City within a benefit year.
- 1. Once an employee who works in the City on an occasional basis performs more than 240 hours of work in the City within a benefit year, all previous hours worked in the City during that benefit year count toward the accrual of paid sick and paid safe time and the employee shall remain covered by this Chapter 14.16 for the duration of employment with the

C. No Tier One employer shall be required to allow an employee to use a combined total of paid sick time and paid safe time exceeding 40 hours in a calendar year. No Tier Two employer shall be required to allow an employee to use a combined total of paid sick time and paid safe time exceeding 56 hours in a calendar year. No Tier Three employer shall be required to allow an employee to use a combined total of paid sick time and paid safe time exceeding 72 hours in a calendar year.

In the case of employees who are exempt from overtime payment under section 213(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, approved June 25, 1938 (52 Stat. 1060; 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq.) (hereinafter referred to as "FLSA" exempt employees), no employer shall be required to accrue leave for such employees for hours worked beyond a 40-hour work week. If their normal work in a work week is less than 40 hours, paid sick time and paid safe time accrues based upon that employee's normal work week.

Paid sick time and paid safe time as provided in this section shall begin to accrue at the commencement of employment. For individuals who are employed on the date this ordinance takes effect, accrual shall begin on the date this ordinance takes effect. Accrual rates shall not apply to hours worked before this ordinance takes effect.

Except as provided in Section 14.16.090, employees shall be entitled to use accrued paid sick time or safe time beginning on the 180th calendar day after the commencement of their employment. When an employee is separated from employment and rehired within seven months of separation by the same employer, the previous period of employment shall be counted for purposes of determining the employee's eligibility to use accrued sick time or safe time under this subsection, provided that if separation does occur, the total time of employment used to determine eligibility must occur within two calendar years.

Unused paid sick time and paid safe time shall be carried over to the following calendar year; however, no Tier One employer shall be required to allow an employee to carry over a combined total of paid sick time and paid safe time in excess of 40 hours, no Tier Two employer shall be required to allow an employee to carry over a combined total of paid sick time and paid safe time in excess of 56 hours and no Tier Three employer shall be required to allow reimbursement to an employee from an employer upon the employee's termination, resignation, retirement, or other separation from employment for accrued paid sick and safe time that has not been used.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring financial or other

K. If an employee is transferred to a separate division, entity, or location within the City, or transferred out of the City and then transferred back to a division, entity, or location within the City, but remains employed by the same employer, the employee is entitled to all paid sick and safe time accrued at the prior division, entity, or location and is entitled to use all paid sick and safe time as provided in this section.

L. When there is a separation from employment and the employee is rehired within 7 months of separation by the same employer, previously accrued paid sick and safe time that had not been used shall be reinstated. Further, the employee shall be entitled to use accrued paid sick and safe time and accrue additional sick and safe time immediately upon the re-commencement of employment, provided that the employee had previously been eligible to use paid sick and safe time. If there is a separation of more than 7 months, an employer shall not be required to reinstate accrued paid sick and safe time and for the purposes of this chapter the rehired employee shall be considered to have newly commenced employment.

M. Subject to terms and conditions established by the employer, the employer may, but is not required to, loan paid sick time and paid safe time to the employee in advance of accrual by such employee.))

1	A. An employee who is not covered by this Chapter 14.16 shall be included in any
2	determination of employer tier.
3	B. The determination of employer tier for the current calendar year will be calculated
4	based upon the average number per calendar week of full-time equivalents who worked for
5	compensation during the preceding calendar year for any and all weeks during which at least one
6	employee worked for compensation. For employers that did not have any employees during the
7	previous calendar year, the employer tier will be calculated based upon the average number per
8	calendar week of full-time equivalents who worked for compensation during the first 90 calendar
9	days of the current year in which the employer engaged in business.
10	C. To determine the number of full-time equivalents, all hours worked for 11	compensation by all employees shall be counted, including but not limited to:
12	1. Work performed inside the City;
13	2. Work performed outside the City; and
14	3. Work performed in full-time employment, part-time employment, joint
15	employment, temporary employment, or through the services of a temporary services or staffing
16	agency or similar entity.
17	D. Separate entities that form an integrated enterprise shall be considered a single
18	employer under this Chapter 14.16. Separate entities will be considered an integrated enterprise
19	and a single employer under this Chapter 14.16 where a separate entity controls the operation of
20	another entity. The factors to consider in making this assessment include, but are not limited to:
21	1. Degree of interrelation between the operations of multiple entities;
22	2. Degree to which the entities share common management;
23	3. Centralized control of labor relations; and

4.	Degree of common	ownership	or financial	control ove	er the entities

14.16.025 Accrual of paid sick and paid safe time

- A. All employees of Tier 1, Tier 2, and Tier 3 employers have the right to paid sick time and paid safe time as provided in this Section 14.16.025.
- B. Employees shall accrue paid time, to be used as either paid sick or paid safe time, as follows:
- 1. Employees of a Tier 1 or Tier 2 employer shall accrue at least one hour of paid time for every 40 hours worked.
- 2. Employees of a Tier 3 employer shall accrue at least one hour of paid time for every 30 hours worked.
- C. No Tier 1 employer shall be required to allow an employee to use a combined total of paid sick time and paid safe time exceeding 40 hours in a benefit year. No Tier 2 employer shall be required to allow an employee to use a combined total of paid sick time and paid safe time exceeding 56 hours in a benefit year. No Tier 3 employer shall be required to allow an employee to use a combined total of paid sick time and paid safe time exceeding 72 hours in a benefit year.
- D. In the case of employees who are exempt from overtime payment under section 213(a)(1) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, approved June 25, 1938 (52 Stat. 1060; 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq.) and RCW 49.46.130(2) (hereinafter referred to as "overtime exempt" employees), no employer shall be required to accrue leave for such employees for hours worked beyond a 40-hour work week. If their normal work in a work week is less than 40 hours, paid sick time and paid safe time accrues based upon that employee's normal work week.

- E. Paid sick time and paid safe time as provided in this Section 14.16.025 shall begin to accrue at the commencement of employment. For individuals employed on September 1, 2012, accrual shall begin on September 1, 2012. Accrual rates shall not apply to hours worked before September 1, 2012.
- Except as provided in Section 14.16.040, employees shall be entitled to use F. accrued paid sick time or paid safe time beginning on the 180th calendar day after the commencement of their employment. When an employee is separated from employment and rehired within seven months of separation by the same employer, the previous period of employment shall be counted for purposes of determining the employee's eligibility to use accrued sick time or safe time under this subsection, provided that if separation does occur, the total time of employment used to determine eligibility must occur within three calendar years.
- Unused paid sick time and paid safe time shall be carried over to the following G. benefit year; however, no Tier 1 employer shall be required to allow an employee to carry over a combined total of paid sick time and paid safe time in excess of 40 hours, no Tier 2 employer shall be required to allow an employee to carry over a combined total of paid sick time and paid safe time in excess of 56 hours and no Tier 3 employer shall be required to allow an employee to carry over a combined total of paid sick time and paid safe time in excess of 72 hours.
- Η. A Tier 1 or Tier 2 employer with a combined or universal paid leave policy, such as a paid time off (PTO) policy, is not required to provide additional paid sick and paid safe leave, provided that:
- 1. Available paid leave may be used for the same purposes and under the same conditions as paid sick and paid safe time as set forth in Section 14.16.030; and

1		2.	Paid leave is accrued at the rate consistent with subsection 14.16.025.B.1;
2	and
3		3.	Use of paid leave within any benefit year is limited to no less than the
4	amounts spec	ified res	spectively for Tier 1 and Tier 2 employers in subsection 14.16.025.C; and
5		4.	Any accrued but unused paid leave may be carried over to the following
6	benefit year c	onsister	at with subsection 14.16.025.G.
7	I.	A Tier	3 employer with a combined or universal paid leave policy, such as a PTO
8	policy, is not	required	I to provide additional paid sick and paid safe leave, provided that:
9		1.	Available paid leave may be used for the same purposes and under the
10	same condition	ns as pa	aid sick and paid safe time as set forth in Section 14.16.030; and
11.		2.	Paid leave is accrued at a rate consistent with subsection 14.16.025.B.2;
12	and
13		3.	Use of paid leave within any benefit year is limited to no less than 108
14	hours; and
15		4.	Any accrued but unused paid leave may be carried over to the following
16	benefit year; l	nowever	no Tier 3 employer with a combined or universal leave policy shall be
17	required to ca	rry over	unused leave in excess of 108 hours.
18	J.	Nothin	ng in this Section 14.16.025 shall be construed as requiring financial or
19	other reimbur	sement	to an employee from an employer upon the employee's termination,
20	resignation, re	etiremer	nt, or other separation from employment for accrued paid sick and paid safe
21	time that has i	not been	used.
22	K.	When	an employee is transferred to a separate division, entity, or location within
23	the geographi	c limits	of the City, or transferred out of the geographic limits of the City and then

- transferred back to a division, entity, or location within the geographic limits of the City, but remains employed by the same employer, the employee is entitled to all paid sick and paid safe time accrued at the prior division, entity, or location and is entitled to use all paid sick and paid safe time as provided in this Chapter 14.16.
- L. When there is a separation from employment and the employee is rehired within seven months of separation by the same employer, previously accrued paid sick and paid safe time that had not been used shall be reinstated. Further, the employee shall be entitled to use accrued paid sick and paid safe time and accrue additional sick and safe time immediately upon the re-commencement of employment, provided that the employee had previously been eligible to use paid sick and paid safe time. If there is a separation of more than seven months, an employer shall not be required to reinstate accrued paid sick and safe time and for the purposes of this Chapter 14.16 the rehired employee shall be considered to have newly commenced employment.
- M. When an employer quits, sells out, exchanges, or disposes the employer's business, or the employer's business is otherwise acquired by a successor, an employee shall retain all accrued paid sick and paid safe time and is entitled to use all paid sick and paid safe time as provided in this Chapter 14.16 for work scheduled within the geographic boundaries of the City for the successor employer.
- N. Subject to terms and conditions established by the employer, the employer may, but is not required to, loan paid sick time and paid safe time to the employee in advance of accrual by such employee.
- Section 6. Section 14.16.030 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance 123698, is amended as follows:

- 1) To enable the employee to seek legal or law enforcement assistance or remedies to ensure the health and safety of the employee or the employee's family members including, but not limited to, preparing for, or participating in, any civil or criminal legal proceeding related to or derived from domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking;
- 2) To enable the employee to seek treatment by a health care provider for physical or mental injuries caused by domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or to attend to health care treatment for a victim who is the employee's family member;
- To enable the employee to obtain, or assist a family member in obtaining, services from a domestic violence shelter, rape crisis center, or other social services program for relief from domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking;
- 4) To enable the employee to obtain, or assist a family member in obtaining, mental health counseling related to an incident of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, in which the employee or the employee's family member was a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking; or
- 5) To enable the employee to participate in safety planning, temporarily or permanently relocate, or take other actions to increase the safety of the employee or employee's family members from future domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
- B. Paid sick time and paid safe time shall be provided upon the request of an employee. When possible, the request shall include the expected duration of the absence. An employer may require an employee to comply with the employer's usual and customary notice and procedural requirements for absences and/or requesting leave, provided that such requirements do not interfere with the purposes for which the leave is needed.

- 1. If the paid leave is foreseeable, a written request shall be provided at least ((10)) ten days, or as early as possible, in advance of the paid leave, unless the employer's normal notice policy requires less advance notice;
- 2. If the paid leave is unforeseeable, the employee must provide notice as soon as is practicable and must generally comply with an employer's reasonable normal notification policies and/or call-in procedures, provided that such requirements do not interfere with the purposes for which the leave is needed.
- C. For employees covered by the overtime requirements of ((the FLSA;)) state and federal laws, accrued paid sick time and paid safe time ((may be used in hourly increments or smaller increments if an employer so designates.)) shall be used in the smaller of hourly increments or, if feasible by the employer's payroll system, increments that round to the nearest quarter of an hour. When using quarter-hour increments, employers shall use an employee's available paid sick and paid safe time to round up or down to the nearest quarter hour if necessary to prevent an employer's absence control policy from counting paid sick or paid safe time covered under this Chapter 14.16 as an absence that may lead to or result in any adverse action taken against the employee. For ((FLSA)) overtime exempt employees, an employer may make deductions of paid sick time and paid safe time in accordance with ((the FLSA)) state and federal laws. For ((FLSA)) overtime exempt public employees, paid sick time and paid safe time must be used in accordance with a pay system established by statute, ordinance or regulation or by a policy or practice established pursuant to the principles of public accountability.
- D. When the use of accrued time is foreseeable, the employee shall make a reasonable effort to schedule the use of sick or safe time in a manner that does not unduly disrupt the operations of the employer.

- For use of paid sick time of more than three consecutive days for a reason set out 1 E. in subsection 14.16.030.A.1, an employer may require reasonable documentation that the sick 2 3 time is covered by subsection 14.16.030.A.1. Documentation signed by a health care provider indicating that sick time is necessary shall be considered reasonable documentation. An 4 employer may not require that the documentation explain the nature of the illness. For any 5 employee who is not offered health insurance by the employer, the employer and the employee 6 shall each pay half the cost of any out-of-pocket expense incurred by the employee in obtaining 7 the employer-requested documentation. These expenses are limited to the cost of services 8 9 provided by health care professionals, the services of health care facilities, testing prescribed by health care professionals and transportation to the location where such services are provided. An 10 11 employee who has declined to participate in the health insurance program offered by ((his or 12 her)) the employer shall not be entitled to reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses.
  - F. For use of "paid safe time" of more than three consecutive days for a reason set out in subsection 14.16.030.A.2,
  - 1. an employer may require that requests under subsections 14.16.030.A.2.a and 14.16.030.A.2.b be supported by verification of a closure order by a public official of the employee's child's school or childcare establishment, and the employee may satisfy this verification request by providing notice of the closure order in whatever format the employee received the notice;
  - 2. an employer may require that requests under subsection 14.16.030.A.2.c be supported by verification that the employee or employee's family member is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and that the leave taken was for one of the

- b. a court order protecting or separating the employee or employee's family member from the perpetrator of the act of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or other evidence from the court or the prosecuting attorney that the employee or employee's family member appeared, or is scheduled to appear, in court in connection with an incident of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking; or
- c. documentation that the employee or the employee's family member is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, from any of the following persons from whom the employee or employee's family member sought assistance in addressing the domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking: ((An)) an advocate for victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking; an attorney; a member of the clergy; or a medical or other professional. The provision of documentation under this ((section)) Section 14.16.030 does not waive or diminish the confidential or privileged nature of communications between a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking with one or more of the individuals named in this subsection 14.16.030.F.2.c; or
- d. an employee's written statement that the employee or the employee's family member is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking and that the leave taken was for one of the purposes of subsection 14.16.030.A.2.c.
- G. Upon mutual consent by the employee and the employer, an employee may work additional hours or shifts during the same or next pay period without using available paid sick or

If the employee accepts the offer and works these substitute hours or shifts, the amount of time worked during the substitute period or the amount of time requested for sick and safe time, whichever is smaller, may be deducted from the employee's accrued sick and safe time. Should the employee work the substitute hours or shifts, the employer shall comply with any applicable federal, state or local laws concerning overtime pay. However, no employer is required to offer such substitute hours or shifts, and no employee is required to accept such hours or shifts if they are offered.
- J. Nothing in this ((ehapter)) Chapter 14.16 shall be construed to prohibit an employer from establishing a policy whereby employees may donate unused accrued paid sick leave to another employee.
- K. Each time wages are paid, employers shall provide, in writing, information stating an updated amount of paid time available to each employee for use as either sick time or safe time. Employers may choose a reasonable system for providing this notification, including, but

Section 7. A new Section 14.16.035 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.16.035 Confidentiality and nondisclosure

- A. Except as provided in subsection 14.16.035.B, an employer shall maintain the confidentiality of information provided by the employee or others in support of an employee's request for sick or safe days under this Section 14.16.035, including health information and the fact that the employee or employee's family member is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, that the employee has requested or obtained leave under this Chapter 14.16, and any written or oral statement, documentation, record, or corroborating evidence provided by the employee.
  - B. Information given by an employee may be disclosed by an employer only if it is:
    - 1. Requested or consented to by the employee;
    - 2. Ordered by a court or administrative agency; or
    - 3. Otherwise required by applicable federal or state law.

14.16.040((. Exercise of Rights Protected; Retaliation Prohibited)) New employers

((A. It shall be a violation for an employer or any other person to interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, any right protected under this chapter.

safe time pursuant to this chapter; the right to file a complaint with the Agency about any employer's alleged violation of this chapter; the right to inform his or her employer, union or similar organization, and/or legal counsel about an employer's alleged violation of this section;
the right to cooperate with the Agency in its investigations of alleged violations of this chapter;
the right to oppose any policy, practice, or act that is unlawful under this section; and the right to inform other employees of his or her potential rights under this section.

C. It shall be a violation for an employer's absence control policy to count paid sick or safe time covered under this chapter as an absence that may lead to or result in any adverse action taken against the employee.

D. The protections afforded under subsection 14.16.040.B shall apply to any person who mistakenly but in good faith alleges violations of this Section 14.16.040.))

The provisions of this Chapter 14.16 shall not apply to Tier 1 and Tier 2 employers until 24 months after the hire date of their first employee. For purposes of this Section 14.16.040, employer tier shall be calculated based upon the average number of full-time equivalents who worked for compensation per calendar week during the first 90 calendar days following the hire date of their first employee.

Section 9. A new Section 14.16.045 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 4.16.045 Notice and posting

- A. The Agency shall create and distribute a poster giving notice of the rights afforded by this Chapter 14.16. The Agency shall create and distribute the poster in English, Spanish, and any other languages that are necessary for employers to comply with subsection 14.16.045.B. The poster shall give notice of:
  - 1. The right to paid sick and paid safe time guaranteed by this Chapter 14.16;

- 2. The amount of paid sick and paid safe time and the terms of its use guaranteed under this Chapter 14.16;
- 3. The right to be protected from retaliation for exercising in good faith the rights protected by this Chapter 14.16; and
- 4. The right to file a complaint with the Agency or bring a civil action for violation of the requirements of this Chapter 14.16, including an employer's denial of paid sick time and paid safe time as required by this Chapter 14.16, and an employer or other person's retaliation against an employee or other person for requesting or taking paid sick and paid safe time or otherwise engaging in an activity protected by this Chapter 14.16.
- B. Employers shall display the poster in a conspicuous and accessible location where any of their employees work. Employers shall display the poster in English and in the primary language(s) of the employee(s) at the particular workplace. If display of the poster is not feasible, including situations when the employee works remotely or does not have a regular workplace, employers may provide the poster on an individual basis in an employee's primary language in physical or electronic format that is reasonably conspicuous and accessible.
- C. Effective April 1, 2016, employers shall give employees written notice of the employer's policy and procedure for meeting the requirements of this Chapter 14.16, including but not limited to the employer's choice of benefit year; tier size; rate of accrual, use and carry-over of paid sick and paid safe time hours; manner of providing employees with an updated amount of available paid sick and safe time hours each time wages are paid; and notification requirements for absences and requesting leave. The Agency shall create and distribute a model policy that employers may use for complying with this subsection 14.16.045.C.

14.16.050((. Notice and Posting)) Employer records

((A. Employers shall give notice that employees are entitled to paid sick time and paid safe time; the amount of paid sick and safe time and the terms of its use guaranteed under this chapter; that retaliation against employees who request or use paid sick and safe time is prohibited; and that each employee has the right to file a complaint or bring a civil action if paid sick time or paid safe time as required by this section is denied by the employer or the employee is retaliated against for requesting or taking paid sick time or paid safe time.

B. The Agency shall create and make available to employers a poster and a model notice, hereinafter referred to as the "Notice," which contains the information required under subsection A of this Section for their use in complying with this subsection. The poster shall be printed in English and Spanish and any other languages that the Agency determines are needed to notify employees of their rights under this chapter.

C. Employers may comply with this section by displaying the Agency's poster in a conspicuous and accessible place in each establishment where such employees are employed.

D. Employers may also comply with this section by including the Notice in employee handbooks or other written guidance to employees concerning employee benefits or leave rights, if such written materials exist, or by distributing a copy of the Notice to each new employee upon hiring. In either case, distribution may be accomplished electronically.

E. To meet the requirements of paragraph D of this section, employers may duplicate the text of the Notice or may use another format so long as the information provided includes, at a minimum, all of the information contained in that Notice.

F. An employer who willfully violates the notice and posting requirements of this section shall be subject to a civil fine in an amount not to exceed $125 for the first violation and $250 for subsequent violations.))

A. Each employer shall retain records documenting hours worked by employees and paid sick and paid safe time used by covered employees. Such records shall be retained for a period of three years from the date such hours were worked or such paid sick and paid safe time was used. Employers shall not be required to modify their recordkeeping policies to comply with this Section 14.16.050, as long as records reasonably indicate employee hours worked in Seattle, accrued paid sick and paid safe time, and used paid sick and paid safe time.

B. If an employer fails to retain adequate records required under subsection

14.16.050.A, there shall be a presumption, rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence, that the employer violated this Chapter 14.16 for the periods and for each employee for whom records were not retained.

C. Respondents in any case closed by the Agency shall allow the Office of City

Auditor access to such records to permit the Office of City Auditor to evaluate the Agency's enforcement efforts. Before requesting records from such a respondent, the Office of City

Auditor shall first consult the Agency's respondent records on file and determine if additional records are necessary. The City Auditor may apply by affidavit or declaration in the form allowed under RCW 9A.72.085 to the Hearing Examiner for the issuance of subpoenas under this subsection 14.16.050.C. The Hearing Examiner shall issue such subpoenas upon a showing that the records are required to fulfill the purpose of this subsection 14.16.050.C.

D. Records and documents relating to medical certifications, re-certifications, or medical histories of employees or employees' family members, created for purposes of this

- Chapter 14.16, are required to be maintained as confidential medical records in separate files/records from the employer's usual personnel files. If the Americans with Disabilities Act

  (ADA) or the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) applies, then these records must comply with such confidentiality requirements.
- Section 11. A new Section 14.16.055 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.16.055 Retaliation prohibited
- A. No employer or any other person shall interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, any right protected under this Chapter 14.16.
- B. No employer or any other person shall take any adverse action against any person because the person has exercised in good faith the rights protected under this Chapter 14.16. Such rights include but are not limited to the right to use paid sick time and/or paid safe time pursuant to this Chapter 14.16; the right to make inquiries about the rights protected under this Chapter 14.16; the right to inform others about their rights under this Chapter 14.16; the right to inform the person's employer, union, or similar organization, and/or the person's legal counsel or any other person about an alleged violation of this Chapter 14.16; the right to file an oral or written complaint with the Agency or bring a civil action for an alleged violation of this Chapter 14.16; the right to cooperate with the Agency in its investigations of this Chapter 14.16; the right to testify in a proceeding under or related to this Chapter 14.16; the right to refuse to participate in an activity that would result in a violation of city, state or federal law; and the right to oppose any policy, practice, or act that is unlawful under this Chapter 14.16.
- C. No employer or any other person shall communicate to a person exercising rights protected in this Section 14.16.055, directly or indirectly, the willingness to inform a government employee that the person is not lawfully in the United States, or to report, or to make an implied or express assertion of a willingness to report, suspected citizenship or immigration status of an employee or family member of the employee to a federal, state, or local agency because the employee has exercised a right under this Chapter 14.16.

- D. It shall be a rebuttable presumption of retaliation if an employer or any other person takes an adverse action against a person within 90 days of the person's exercise of rights protected in this Section 14.16.055. However, in the case of seasonal work that ended before the close of the 90 day period, the presumption also applies if the employer fails to rehire a former employee at the next opportunity for work in the same position. The employer may rebut the presumption with clear and convincing evidence that the adverse action was taken for a permissible purpose.
- E. Standard of proof. Proof of retaliation under this Section 14.16.055 shall be sufficient upon a showing that an employer or any other person has taken an adverse action against a person and the person's exercise of rights protected in this Section 14.16.055 was a motivating factor in the adverse action, unless the employer can prove that the action would have been taken in the absence of such protected activity.
- F. The protections afforded under this Section 14.16.055 shall apply to any person who mistakenly but in good faith alleges violations of this Chapter 14.16.
- G. A complaint or other communication by any person triggers the protections of this Section 14.16.055 regardless of whether the complaint or communication is in writing or makes explicit reference to this Chapter 14.16.
- Section 12. Section 14.16.060 of the Seattle Municipal Code, last amended by Ordinance 124809, is amended as follows:

Employers shall allow the Agency access to such records, with appropriate notice and at a mutually agreeable time, to investigate potential violations and to monitor compliance with the requirements of this Chapter 14.16.

Respondents in any case closed by the Agency shall allow the Office of City Auditor access to such records to permit the Office of City Auditor to evaluate the Agency's enforcement efforts. Before requesting records from such a respondent, the Office of City Auditor shall first consult the Agency's respondent records on file and determine if additional records are necessary.

Employers shall not be required to modify their recordkeeping policies to comply with this section, as long as records reasonably indicate employee hours worked in Seattle, accrued paid sick and safe time, and paid sick and safe time taken. When an issue arises as to the amount of accrued paid sick time and/or paid safe time available to an employee under this Chapter 14.16, if the employer does not maintain or retain adequate records documenting hours worked by the employee and paid sick and safe time taken by the employee, or does not allow the Agency reasonable access to such records, it shall be presumed that the employer has violated this Chapter 14.16.

1	A. The Agency shall have the power to investigate violations of this Chapter 14.16,
2	as defined herein, and shall have such powers and duties in the performance of these functions as
3	are defined in this Chapter 14.16 and otherwise necessary and proper in the performance of the
4	same and provided for by law.
5	B. The Agency shall be authorized to coordinate implementation and enforcement of
6	this Chapter 14.16 and shall promulgate appropriate guidelines or rules for such purposes.
7 .	C. The Director of the Agency is authorized and directed to promulgate rules
8	consistent with this Chapter 14.16 and the Administrative Code. Any guidelines or rules
9	promulgated by the Director shall have the force and effect of law and may be relied on by
10	employers, employees, and other parties to determine their rights and responsibilities under this
11	Chapter 14.16.
12	Section 13. A new Section 14.16.065 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
13	14.16.065 Violation
14	The failure of any respondent to comply with any requirement imposed on the respondent
15	under this Chapter 14.16 is a violation.
16	Section 14. Section 14.16.070 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance

18	14.16.070((. Regulations)) Investigation
19	((The Agency shall be authorized to coordinate implementation and enforcement of this
20	chapter and shall promulgate appropriate guidelines or regulations for such purposes.))
21	A. The Agency shall have the power to investigate any violations of this Chapter
22	14.16 by any respondent. The Agency may initiate an investigation pursuant to rules issued by
23	the Director including, but not limited to, situations when the Director has reason to believe that

- a violation has occurred or will occur, or when circumstances show that violations are likely to occur within a class of businesses because the workforce contains significant numbers of workers who are vulnerable to violations of this Chapter 14.16 or the workforce is unlikely to volunteer information regarding such violations. An investigation may also be initiated through the receipt by the Agency of a report or complaint filed by an employee or other person.
  - B. An employee or other person may report to the Agency any suspected violation of this Chapter 14.16. The Agency shall encourage reporting pursuant to this Section 14.16.070 by taking the following measures:
  - 1. The Agency shall keep confidential, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable laws, the name and other identifying information of the employee or person reporting the violation. However, with the authorization of such person, the Agency may disclose the employee's or person's name and identifying information as necessary to enforce this Chapter 14.16 or for other appropriate purposes.
  - 2. An employer must post or otherwise notify its employees that the Agency is conducting an investigation, using a form provided by the Agency and displaying it on-site, in a conspicuous and accessible location, and in English and the primary language of the employee(s) at the particular workplace. If display of the form is not feasible, including situations when the employee works remotely or does not have a regular workplace, employers may provide the form on an individual basis in the employee's primary language in physical or electronic format that is reasonably conspicuous and accessible.
  - 3. The Agency may certify the eligibility of eligible persons for "U" Visas under the provisions of 8 U.S.C. § 1184.p and 8 U.S.C. § 1101.a.15.U. This certification is subject to applicable federal law and regulations, and rules issued by the Director.

1	C. The Agency's investigation must commence within three years of the alleged
2	violation. To the extent permitted by law, the applicable statute of limitations for civil actions is
3	tolled during any investigation under this Chapter 14.16 and any administrative enforcement
4	proceeding under this Chapter 14.16 based upon the same facts. For purposes of this Chapter
5	14.16:
6	1. The Agency's investigation begins on the earlier date of when the Agency
7	receives a complaint from a person under this Chapter 14.16, or the Agency opens an
8	investigation under this Chapter 14.16.
9	2. The Agency's investigation ends when the Agency issues a final order
10	concluding the matter and any appeals have been exhausted; the time to file any appeal has
11	expired; or the Agency notifies the respondent in writing that the investigation has been
12	otherwise resolved.
13	D. The Agency's investigation shall be conducted in an objective and impartial
14	manner.
15	E. The Director may apply by affidavit or declaration in the form allowed under
16	RCW 9A.72.085 to the Hearing Examiner for the issuance of subpoenas requiring an employer
17	to produce the records identified in subsection 14.16.050.A, or for the attendance and testimony
18	of witnesses, or for the production of documents required to be retained under subsection
19	14.16.050.A, or any other document relevant to the issue of whether any employee or group of
20	employees has been or is afforded proper amounts of paid sick and paid safe time under this
21	Chapter 14.16 and/or to whether an employer has violated any provision of this Chapter 14.16.
22	The Hearing Examiner shall conduct the review without hearing as soon as practicable and shall
23	issue subpoenas upon a showing that there is reason to believe that a violation has occurred if a

	OLS 2015 Wage Theft Prevention ORD D3
1	complaint has been filed with the Agency, or that circumstances show that violations are likely to
2	occur within a class of businesses because the workforce contains significant numbers of
3	workers who are vulnerable to violations of this Chapter 14.16 or the workforce is unlikely to
4	volunteer information regarding such violations.
5	F. An employer that fails to comply with the terms of any subpoena issued under
6	subsection 14.16.070. E. in an investigation by the Agency under this Chapter 14.16 prior to the
7 .	issuance of a Director's Order issued pursuant to subsection 14.16.075.C may not use such
8	records in any appeal to challenge the correctness of any determination by the Agency of
9	damages owed or penalties assessed.
10	G. In addition to other remedies, the Director may refer any subpoena issued under
11	subsection 14.16.070.E to the City Attorney to seek a court order to enforce any subpoena.
12	H. Where the Director has reason to believe that a violation has occurred, the
13	Director may order any appropriate temporary or interim relief to mitigate the violation or

ed, the ation or maintain the status quo pending completion of a full investigation or hearing, including but not limited to a deposit of funds or bond sufficient to satisfy a good-faith estimate of wages, interest, damages, and penalties due. A respondent may appeal any such order in accordance with Section 14.16.085.

Section 15. A new Section 14.16.075 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.16.075 Findings of fact and determination

Except when there is an agreed upon settlement, the Director shall issue a written A. determination with findings of fact resulting from the investigation and statement of whether a violation of this Chapter 14.16 has or has not occurred based on a preponderance of the evidence before the Director.

2	Director shall issue a "Determination of No Violation" with notice of an employee or other
3	person's right to appeal the decision, subject to the rules of the Director.
. 4	C. If the Director determines that a violation of this Chapter 14.16 has occurred, the
5	Director shall issue a "Director's Order" that shall include a notice of violation identifying the
6	violation or violations. The Director's Order shall state with specificity the amounts due under
7	this Chapter 14.16 for each violation, including payment of unpaid wages, liquidated damages,
8	civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, fines, and interest pursuant to Section
9	14.16.080. The Director's Order may specify that civil penalties and fines due to the Agency can
10	be mitigated for respondent's timely payment of remedy due to an aggrieved party under
11	subsection 14.16.080.A.2. The Director's Order may direct the respondent to take such
12	corrective action as is necessary to comply with the requirements of this Chapter 14.16,
13	including, but not limited to, monitored compliance for a reasonable time period. The Director's
14	Order shall include notice of the respondent's right to appeal the decision pursuant to Section
15	14.16.085.

14.16.080((. Enforcement)) Remedies

((A. Powers and duties

1. of Agency

The Agency shall receive, investigate, and pass upon charges alleging violations of this chapter as defined herein, conciliate and settle the same by agreement, and monitor and enforce any agreements or orders resulting therefrom or from a subsequent hearing thereon under and pursuant to the terms of this chapter; and shall have such powers and duties in the performance of these functions as are defined in this chapter and otherwise necessary and proper in the performance of the same and provided for by law. The Agency shall further assist other City agencies and departments upon request in effectuating and promoting the purposes of this chapter.

b. The Director of the Agency is authorized and directed to promulgate rules consistent with this chapter and the Administrative Code.

2. of Commission

The Seattle Human Rights Commission shall study, advise, and make recommendations for legislation on policies, procedures, and practices which would further the purposes of this chapter. The Commission shall hear appeals from the Director's determinations of no reasonable cause and, in cases involving respondents who are City departments, hear appeals from determinations of reasonable cause and the orders relating to the remedy thereof. It shall, where appropriate and necessary, in its judgment, hear and determine complaints jointly with the Hearing Examiner as provided in subsections 14.16.080.H and 14.16.080.I. The Commission shall have such powers and authority in carrying out these functions as are provided for by this chapter or otherwise established by law.

B. Charge filing, timing, amendments, notice and investigation.

1. A charge alleging a violation of this chapter shall be in writing on a form or in a format determined by the Agency, and signed by or on behalf of a charging party, and shall describe the violation complained of and should include a statement of the dates, places and circumstances and the persons responsible for such acts and practices.

- 2. Whenever charges are made by or on behalf of a person claiming to be aggrieved, the person making the charge must provide the Director with the name, address and telephone number of the individual on whose behalf the charge is made. Thereafter, the Director shall verify the authorization of such charge by the person on whose behalf the charge is made.
- 3. A charge shall not be rejected as insufficient because of failure to include all required information so long as it substantially satisfies the informational requirements necessary for processing.
- 4. A charge alleging a violation of this chapter or pattern of such violations may also be filed by the Director whenever the Director has reason to believe that any person has been engaged or is engaging in a violation of this chapter.
- 5. Charges filed under this chapter must be filed within 180 days after the occurrence of the alleged violation of this chapter with the Agency.
- 6. In addition to any relief authorized by this chapter, liability may accrue and an aggrieved person may obtain relief as provided in this chapter, including recovery of back pay for up to two years preceding the filing of the charge, where the unlawful practices that have occurred during the charge filing period are similar or related to unlawful practices with regard to sick time or safe time that occurred outside the time for filing a charge.
- 7. The charging party or the Agency may amend a charge to cure technical defects or omissions; or to clarify and amplify allegations made therein; or to add allegations related to or arising out of the subject matter set forth, or attempted to be set forth, in the original charge. For jurisdictional purposes, such amendments shall relate back to the date the original charge was first filed. The amendment must be filed within 180 days after the occurrence of the additional violation and/or retaliation and prior to the Agency's issuance of findings of fact and a determination with respect to the original charge. Such amendments may be made at any time during the investigation of the original charge so long as the Agency will have adequate time to investigate such additional allegations and the parties will have adequate time to present the Agency with evidence concerning such allegations before the issuance of findings of fact and a determination.

8. The Director shall cause to be served or mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested, a copy of the charge on the respondent within twenty (20) days after the filing of the charge and shall promptly make an investigation thereof.

9. The investigation shall be directed to ascertain the facts concerning the violation of this Chapter alleged in the charge, and shall be conducted in an objective and impartial manner.

10. During the investigation the Director shall consider any statement of position or evidence with respect to the allegations of the charge which the charging party or the respondent wishes to submit. The Director shall have authority to sign and issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses, the production of evidence including but not limited to books, records, correspondence or documents in the possession or under the control of the person subpoenaed, and access to evidence for the purpose of examination and copying, and conduct discovery procedures which may include the taking of interrogatories and oral depositions.

11. The Director may require a fact finding conference or participation in another process with the respondent and any of respondent's agents and witnesses and charging party during the investigation in order to define the issues, determine which elements are undisputed, resolve those issues which can be resolved, and afford an opportunity to discuss or negotiate settlement. Parties may have their legal counsel present if desired.

C. Findings of fact and determination of reasonable cause or no reasonable cause.

1. The results of the investigation shall be reduced to written findings of fact and a determination shall be made by the Director that there is or is not reasonable cause for believing that a violation of this chapter has been or is being committed, which determination shall also be in writing and issued with the written findings of fact. Where a City department is a respondent the Director shall issue such findings and determination only after having submitted proposed findings and determinations to the respondent and charging party for review and comment. With respect to the findings and determination, "issued" shall be defined as signed and dated by the Director.

2. The findings of fact and determination shall be furnished promptly to the respondent and charging party.

3. Once issued to the parties, the Director's findings of fact, determination and order may not be amended or withdrawn except upon the agreement of the parties or in response to an order by the Seattle Human Rights Commission after an appeal taken pursuant to Section 14.16.080.D or 14.16.080.G provided, that the Director may correct clerical mistakes or errors arising from oversight or omission upon a motion from a party or upon the Director's own motion.

D. Determination of no reasonable cause - Appeal from and dismissal. If a determination is made that there is no reasonable cause for believing a violation of this chapter has been committed, the charging party shall have the right to appeal such determination to the Commission within 30 days of the date the determination is signed by the Director by filing a written statement of appeal with the Commission. Such statement shall state specifically the grounds on which it is based and the reasons the determination or order or both is in error. The Commission shall promptly deliver a copy of the statement to the Agency and respondent and shall promptly consider and act upon such appeal by either affirming the Director's determination or remanding it to the Director with appropriate instructions. In considering such appeals the Commission shall only review whether the investigation was adequate and the Director's findings are supported by a preponderance of the evidence. The burden shall be on the charging party to demonstrate that the matter should be remanded to the Director. In the event no appeal is taken or such appeal results in affirmance, the determination of the Director shall be final and the charge deemed dismissed and the same shall be entered on the records of the Agency.

E. Determination of reasonable cause Conciliation and settlement of cases involving all respondents except City departments.

1. In all cases except a case in which a City department is the respondent, if a reasonable cause determination is made, the Director shall endeavor to eliminate the unlawful practice by conference, conciliation and persuasion. Conditions of settlement may include (but are not limited to) the elimination of the unlawful practice, hiring, reinstatement or upgrading with or without back pay, lost benefits, attorney's fees, admittance or restoration to membership in a labor organization, or such other action which will effectuate the purposes of this chapter, including action which could be ordered by a court, except that damages for humiliation and mental suffering shall not exceed $10,000. Any settlement agreement shall be reduced to writing and signed by the Director, the charging party and the respondent. An order shall then be entered by the Director setting forth the terms of the agreement. Copies of such order shall be delivered to all affected parties.

2. In case of failure to reach an agreement and of conciliation and upon a written finding to that effect furnished to the charging party and respondent, except a case in which a City department is a respondent, the Director shall promptly cause to be delivered the entire investigatory file, including the charge and any and all findings made, to the City Attorney for further proceedings and hearing under this chapter pursuant to Section 14.16.080.H.

F. Determinations of reasonable cause—Conciliation, settlement and conclusion of cases involving City departments as respondents. In all cases in which a City department is a respondent:

1. A determination of reasonable cause by the Director shall be deemed a finding that an unlawful practice has been committed by respondent and is dispositive of this issue for all future proceedings under this chapter, unless appealed, reversed and remanded as provided in this chapter.

2. Within sixty days of a determination of reasonable cause, the Director shall confer with the parties and determine an appropriate remedy, which remedy may include (but is not limited to) hiring, reinstatement or upgrading with or without back pay, lost benefits, attorney's fees, or such other action as will effectuate the purposes of this chapter, including action which could be ordered by a court, except that damages for humiliation and mental suffering shall not exceed $10,000. Such remedy shall be reduced to writing in an order of the Director.

3. The charging party must sign a release in the form and manner requested by the Department, releasing the City from further liability for acts giving rise to the charge in order to obtain the benefits of the remedy provided under this section and before payment can be made. Without such release, the Director's order with respect to the charging party's individual relief shall have no force and effect. In such event the Director shall notify the parties involved in writing.

4. In all cases where the remedy determined by the Director before or after any appeal includes a monetary payment which exceeds the sum of $5,000, the charge or claim, the Director's determination, order, the charging party's signed release and such further documentation as may be required shall be presented to the City Council for passage by separate ordinance. If the City Council fails or refuses to appropriate the amount ordered by the Director within 90 days, the Director shall certify the case to the Hearing Examiner for a hearing to determine the appropriate monetary relief in the case which determination shall be final and binding upon the City.

5. Where the Director's order includes a monetary payment of $5,000 or less, such payment shall be made under the authority and in the form and manner otherwise provided for by law for payment of such claims.

G. Appeals to the Commission from determinations of reasonable cause and orders of excess involving City departments as respondents. In all cases in which a City department is a respondent:

1. The charging party or respondent may appeal the Director's order and determination of reasonable cause to the Commission within 30 days of the Director's order by filing a written statement of appeal with the Commission. Such statement shall state specifically the grounds on which it is based and the reasons the determination or order or both is in error.

2. The Commission shall promptly mail a copy of the statement to the Department and to the other party and shall promptly consider and act upon such appeal by either affirming the Director's determination or order or remanding it to the Director with appropriate instructions.

3. The filing of an appeal shall stay the enforcement of any remedy provided for in the Director's determination or order during the pendency of the appeal.

4. In such appeal, the Commission shall consider only the record submitted to it by the Department and written statements of positions by the parties involved and, in its discretion, oral presentation. The Commission shall reverse the Director's determination or order only upon a finding that it is clearly erroneous.

H. Complaint and hearing of cases with all respondents except City departments.

1. Following submission of the investigatory file from the Director in cases involving all respondents under 14.16.080.E, the City Attorney shall prepare a complaint against such respondent relating to the charge and facts discovered during the investigation thereof and prosecute the same in the name and on behalf of the Department and the City at a hearing before the Hearing Examiner sitting alone or with representatives of the Commission as provided in this chapter and to appear for and represent the interests of the Department and the City at all subsequent proceedings; provided, if the City Attorney determines that there is no legal basis for a complaint to be filed or for proceedings to continue, a statement of the reasons therefore shall be filed with the Department, charging party and the respondent.

2. The complaint shall be served on respondent in the usual manner provided by law for service of complaints and filed with the Seattle Hearing Examiner. A copy of such complaint shall be furnished to the charging party.

3. Within 20 days of the service of such complaint upon it, the respondent shall file its answer with the Hearing Examiner and serve a copy of the same on the City Attorney.

4. Upon the filing of the complaint, the Hearing Examiner shall promptly establish a date for the hearing of such complaint and give notice thereof to the Commission, the City Attorney and respondent, and shall thereafter hold a public hearing on the complaint, which hearing shall commence no earlier than 90 days nor later than 120 days from the filing of the complaint, unless otherwise ordered by the Hearing Examiner.

5. After the filing of a complaint with the Hearing Examiner, it may be amended only with the permission of the Hearing Examiner, which permission shall be granted when justice will be served thereby and all parties are allowed time to prepare their case with respect to additional or expanded charges which they did not and could not have reasonably foreseen would be in issue at the hearing.

6. The hearing shall be conducted by a Hearing Examiner from the Office of Hearing Examiner, or a hearing examiner pro tempore appointed by the Hearing Examiner from a list approved by the Commission, sitting alone or with representatives of the Commission if any are designated. Such hearings shall be conducted in accordance with SMC Chapter 3.02 and the Hearing Examiner rules applicable to cases brought under this Title 14.

7. The Commission, within 30 days after notice of the date of hearing from the Hearing Examiner, at its discretion, may appoint two of its members who have not otherwise been involved in the charge, investigation, fact finding, or other resolution and proceeding on the merits of the case, who have not formed an opinion on the merits of the case, and who otherwise have no pecuniary, private or personal interest or bias in the matter, to hear the case with the Hearing Examiner. If the Commission has designated representatives they shall each have an equal vote with the Hearing Examiner, except the Hearing Examiner shall be the chairperson of the panel and make all evidentiary rulings. Should a question arise as to previous involvement, interest or bias of an appointed Commissioner, the Hearing Examiner shall resolve the issue in conformance with the law on the subject.

8. The review of all matters properly brought under this subsection 14.16.080.H shall be de novo. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit or prevent de novo review of matters brought before the Hearing Examiner (or the Hearing Examiner and members of the Commission as the case may be) under Sections 14.04.170, 14.06.110, 14.08.170, or 14.10.130.

I. Decision and order.

- 1. Within 30 days after conclusion of the hearing, the Hearing Examiner (or the Examiner and Commissioners as the case may be) shall prepare a written decision and order, file it as a public record with the City Clerk, and provide a copy to each party of record and to the Agency.
- 2. Such decision shall contain a brief summary of the evidence considered and shall contain findings of fact, conclusions of law upon which the decision is based, and an order detailing the relief deemed appropriate, together with a brief statement of the reasons therefore.
- 3. In the event the Hearing Examiner (or a majority of the panel composed of the Examiner and Commissioners), determines that a respondent has committed a violation of this chapter, the Hearing Examiner (or panel majority) may order the respondent to take such affirmative action or provide for such relief as is deemed necessary to correct the practice, effectuate the purpose of this Chapter 14.16, and secure compliance therewith, including but not limited to hiring, reinstatement, or upgrading with or without back pay, lost benefits, attorney's fees, admittance or restoration to membership in a labor organization, or such other action which will effectuate the purposes of this chapter, including action which could be ordered by a court, except that damages for humiliation and mental suffering shall not exceed $10,000. Back pay liability shall not accrue from a date more than 2 years prior to the initial filing of the charge.

4. Respondent shall comply with the provisions of any order affording relief and shall furnish proof of compliance to the Agency as specified in the order. In the event respondent refuses or fails to comply with the order, the Director shall notify the City Attorney of the same and the City Attorney shall invoke the aid of the appropriate court to secure enforcement or compliance with the order.

K. Violation Penalty. It is unlawful for any person to willfully engage in an unfair practice under this chapter or willfully resist, prevent, impede or interfere with the Director or Hearing Examiner in the performance of their duties under this chapter, or to fail, refuse, or neglect to comply with any lawful order of the Director or Hearing Examiner. Conduct made unlawful by this section constitutes a violation subject to the provisions of Chapter 12A.02 of the Seattle Criminal Code (Ordinance 102843, as amended), and any person convicted thereof may be punished by a civil fine or forfeiture not to exceed $500.))

A. The payment of unpaid wages, liquidated damages, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, fines, and interest provided under this Chapter 14.16 are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of any other available remedies, penalties, fines, and procedures.

1	1. Effective January 1, 2017, the amounts of all civil penalties, penalties
2	payable to aggrieved parties, and fines contained in this Section 14.16.080 shall be increased
3	annually to reflect the rate of inflation and calculated to the nearest cent on January 1 of each
4	year thereafter. The Agency shall determine the amounts and file a schedule of such amounts
5	with the City Clerk

- 2. If there is a remedy due to an aggrieved party, the Director may waive the total amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent paid the full remedy due to the aggrieved party within ten days of service of the Director's Order. The Director may waive half the amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent paid the full remedy due to the aggrieved party within 15 days of service of the Director's Order. The Director shall not waive any amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent has not paid the full remedy due to the aggrieved party after 15 days of service of the Director's Order.
- 3. When determining the amount of liquidated damages, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, and fines due under this Section 14.16.080 for a

  Settlement Agreement or Director's Order, including but not limited to the mitigation of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency for timely payment of remedy due to an aggrieved party under subsection 14.16.080.A.2, the Director shall consider the total amount of unpaid wages, liquidated damages, penalties, fines, and interest due; the nature and persistence of the violations; the extent of the respondent's culpability; the substantive or technical nature of the violations; the size, revenue, and human resources capacity of the respondent; the circumstances of each situation; the amount of penalties in similar situations; and other factors pursuant to rules issued by the Director.

B. A respondent found to be in violation of this Chapter 14.16 shall be liable for full payment of unpaid wages due, provided that the employee is not entitled to payment for lost tips or commissions for paid sick and paid safe time as defined in Section 14.16.010, plus interest in favor of the aggrieved party under the terms of this Chapter 14.16 and other equitable relief. For a first violation of this Chapter 14.16, the Director may assess liquidated damages in an additional amount of up to twice the unpaid wages. For subsequent violations of this Chapter 14.16, the Director shall assess liquidated damages in an additional amount of twice the unpaid wages. If the violation is ongoing when the Agency receives a complaint or opens an investigation, the Director may order payment of amounts that accrue after receipt of the complaint or after the investigation opens and before the date of the Director's Order. Interest shall accrue from the date the unpaid wages were first due at 12 percent per annum, or the maximum rate permitted under RCW 19.52.020. For purposes of this Section 14.16.080, a violation is a subsequent violation if at least one Director's Order has issued against the respondent in the ten years preceding the date of the violation; otherwise, it is a first violation.

C. A respondent found to be in violation of Section 14.16.055 for retaliation shall be subject to any appropriate relief at law or equity including, but not limited to reinstatement of the aggrieved party, front pay in lieu of reinstatement with full payment of unpaid wages plus interest in favor of the aggrieved party under the terms of this Chapter 14.16, and liquidated damages in an additional amount of up to twice the unpaid wages. The Director also shall order the imposition of a penalty payable to the aggrieved party of up to $5,000.

1	D. A respondent who willfully violates the notice and posting requirements of
2	Section 14.16.045 shall be subject to a civil penalty of $750 for the first violation and $1,000 for
3	subsequent violations.
4,	E. A respondent who willfully hinders, prevents, impedes, or interferes with the
5	Director or Hearing Examiner in the performance of their duties under this Chapter 14.16 shall
6	be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000.
7	F. For a first violation of this Chapter 14.16, the Director may assess a civil penalty
8	of up to $500 per aggrieved party. For a second violation of this Chapter 14.16, the Director shall
9	assess a civil penalty of up to $1,000 per aggrieved party, or an amount equal to ten percent of
10	the total amount of unpaid wages, whichever is greater. For a third or any subsequent violation of
11	this Chapter 14.16, the Director shall assess a civil penalty of up to $5,000 per aggrieved party,
12	or an amount equal to ten percent of the total amount of unpaid wages, whichever is greater. The
13	maximum civil penalty for a violation of this Chapter 14.16 shall be $20,000 per aggrieved party,
14	or an amount equal to ten percent of the total amount of unpaid wages, whichever is greater. For
15	purposes of this Section 14.16.080, a violation is a second, third, or subsequent violation if the
16	respondent has been a party to one, two, or more than two Settlement Agreements, respectively,
17	stipulating that a violation has occurred; and/or one, two, ore more than two Director's Orders,
18	respectively, have issued against the respondent in the ten years preceding the date of the
19	violation; otherwise, it is a first violation.
20	G. For the following violations, the Director may assess a fine in the amounts set

The fine amounts shall be increased cumulatively by 50 percent of the fine for each preceding violation for each subsequent violation of the same provision by the same respondent within a ten-year period. The maximum amount that may be imposed in fines in any one year

1	period for each type of violation listed above is $5,000 unless a fine for retaliation is issued, in
2	which case the maximum amount is $20,000.
3	H. In addition to the unpaid wages, penalties, fines, liquidated damages, and interest,
4	the Agency may assess against the respondent in favor of the City the reasonable costs incurred
5	in enforcing this Chapter 14.16, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees.
6	I. An employer that is the subject of a final order for which all appeal rights have
7	been exhausted shall not be permitted to bid, or have a bid considered, on any City contract until
8	such amounts due under the final order have been paid in full to the Director. If an employer is
9	the subject of a final order two times or more within a five-year period, the contractor or
10	subcontractor shall not be allowed to bid on any City contract for two years. This subsection
11	14.16.080.I shall be construed to provide grounds for debarment separate from, and in addition
12	to, those contained in Chapter 20.70 and shall not be governed by that chapter provided that
13	nothing in this subsection 14.16.080.I shall be construed to limit the application of Chapter
14	20.70. The Director shall notify the Director of Finance and Administrative Services of all
15	employers subject to debarment under this subsection 14.16.080.I.
16	Section 17. A new Section 14.16.085 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
17	14.16.085 Appeal period and failure to respond
18	A. An employee or other person who claims an injury as a result of an alleged
19	violation of this Chapter 14.16 may appeal the Determination of No Violation Shown, pursuant
20	to the rules of the Director.
21	B. A respondent may appeal the Director's Order, including all remedies issued
22	pursuant to Section 14.16.080, by requesting a contested hearing before the Hearing Examiner in
23	writing within 15 days of service of the Director's Order. If a respondent fails to appeal the Director's Order within 15 days of service, the Director's Order shall be final. If the last day of the appeal period so computed is a Saturday, Sunday, or federal or City holiday, the appeal period shall run until 5 p.m. on the next business day.

14.16.090((. New Employers)) Appeal procedure and failure to appear

((The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to Tier One and Tier Two employers until 24 months after the hire date of their first employee. For the purposes of this section, employer tier shall be calculated based upon the average number of full-time equivalents employed per calendar week during the first 90 calendar days following the hire date of their first employee.))

A. Contested hearings shall be conducted pursuant to the procedures for hearing contested cases contained in Section 3.02.090 and the rules adopted by the Hearing Examiner for hearing contested cases. The hearing shall be conducted de novo and the Director shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the violation or violations occurred. Upon establishing such proof, the remedies and penalties imposed by the Director shall be upheld unless it is shown that the Director abused discretion. Failure to appear for a contested hearing shall result in an order being entered finding that the respondent committed the violation stated in the Director's Order. For good cause shown and upon terms the Hearing Examiner deems just, the Hearing Examiner may set aside an order entered upon a failure to appear.

B. In all contested cases, the Hearing Examiner shall enter an order affirming, modifying or reversing the Director's Order.

14.16.095 Appeal from Hearing Examiner order

- A. The respondent may obtain judicial review of the decision of the Hearing Examiner by applying for a Writ of Review in the King County Superior Court within 30 days from the date of the decision in accordance with the procedure set forth in chapter 7.16 RCW, other applicable law, and court rules.
- B. The decision of the Hearing Examiner shall be final and conclusive unless review is sought in compliance with this Section 14.16.095.

14.16.100((. Confidentiality and Nondisclosure)) Failure to comply with final order

- ((A. —Except as provided in subsection B of this section, an employer shall maintain the confidentiality of information provided by the employee or others in support of an employee's request for sick or safe days under this section, including health information and the fact that the employee or employee's family member is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, that the employee has requested or obtained leave under this act, and any written or oral statement, documentation, record, or corroborating evidence provided by the employee.
  - B. Information given by an employee may be disclosed by an employer only if it is
    - 1. requested or consented to by the employee;
    - 2. ordered by a court or administrative agency; or
    - 3. otherwise required by applicable federal or state law.))
- A. If a respondent fails to comply within 30 days of service of any settlement agreement with the Agency, or with any final order issued by the Director or the Hearing

1	Examiner for which all appeal rights have been exhausted, the Agency may pursue, but is not
2	limited to, the following measures to secure compliance:
3	1. The Director may require the respondent to post public notice of the
4	respondent's failure to comply in a form and manner determined by the Agency.
5	2. The Director may refer the matter to a collection agency. The cost to the
6	City for the collection services will be assessed as costs, at the rate agreed to between the City
7	and the collection agency, and added to the amounts due.
8	3. The Director may refer the matter to the City Attorney for the filing of a
9 .	civil action in King County Superior Court, the Seattle Municipal Court, or any other court of
10	competent jurisdiction to enforce such order or to collect amounts due. In the alternative, the
11	Director may seek to enforce a Director's Order or a final order of the Hearing Examiner under
12	Section 14.16.105.
13	4. The Director may request that the City's Department of Finance and
14	Administrative Services deny, suspend, refuse to renew, or revoke any business license held or
15	requested by the employer or person until such time as the employer complies with the remedy
16	as defined in the settlement agreement or final order. The City's Department of Finance and
17	Administrative Services shall have the authority to deny, refuse to renew, or revoke any business
18	license in accordance with this subsection 14.16.100.A.4.
19	B. No respondent that is the subject of a final order issued under this Chapter 14.16
20	shall quit business, sell out, exchange, convey, or otherwise dispose of the respondent's business
21	or stock of goods without first notifying the Agency and without first notifying the respondent's
22	successor of the amounts owed under the final order at least three business days prior to such
23	transaction. At the time the respondent quits business, or sells out, exchanges, or otherwise disposes of the respondent's business or stock of goods, the full amount of the remedy, as 1 defined in a final order issued by the Director or the Hearing Examiner, shall become 2 immediately due and payable. If the amount due under the final order is not paid by respondent 3 4 within ten days from the date of such sale, exchange, conveyance, or disposal, the successor shall become liable for the payment of the amount due, provided that the successor has actual 5 knowledge of the order and the amounts due or has prompt, reasonable, and effective means of 6 accessing and verifying the fact and amount of the order and the amounts due. The successor 7 shall withhold from the purchase price a sum sufficient to pay the amount of the full remedy. 8 9 When the successor makes such payment, that payment shall be deemed a payment upon the purchase price in the amount paid, and if such payment is greater in amount than the purchase 10 price the amount of the difference shall become a debt due such successor from the employer. 11 Section 21. A new Section 14.16.105 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 12

A. All monetary amounts due under the Director's Order shall be a debt owed to the City and may be collected in the same manner as any other debt in like amount, which remedy shall be in addition to all other existing remedies, provided that amounts collected by the City for unpaid wages, liquidated damages, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, or front pay shall be held in trust by the City for the aggrieved party and, once collected by the City, shall be paid by the City to the aggrieved party.

B. If a respondent fails to appeal a Director's Order to the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.16.085.B, the Director's Order shall be final, and the Director may petition the Seattle Municipal Court, or any court of competent jurisdiction, to enforce the Director's Order by entering judgment in favor of the City finding that the respondent has failed to exhaust its administrative remedies and that all amounts and relief contained in the order are due. The Director's Order shall constitute prima facie evidence that a violation occurred and shall be admissible without further evidentiary foundation. Any certifications or declarations authorized under RCW 9A.72.085 containing evidence that the respondent has failed to comply with the order or any parts thereof, and is therefore in default, or that the respondent has failed to appeal the Director's Order to the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.16.085.B, and therefore has failed to exhaust the respondent's administrative remedies, shall also be admissible without further evidentiary foundation.

- C. If a respondent fails to obtain judicial review of an order of the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.16.095.A, the order of the Hearing Examiner shall be final, and the Director may petition the Seattle Municipal Court to enforce the Director's Order by entering judgment in favor of the City for all amounts and relief due under the order of the Hearing Examiner. The order of the Hearing Examiner shall constitute conclusive evidence that the violations contained therein occurred and shall be admissible without further evidentiary foundation. Any certifications or declarations authorized under RCW 9A.72.085 containing evidence that the respondent has failed to comply with the order or any parts thereof, and is therefore in default, or that the respondent has failed to avail itself of judicial review in accordance with subsection 14.16.095.A, shall also be admissible without further evidentiary foundation.
- D. In considering matters brought under subsections 14.16.105.B and 14.16.105.C, the Municipal Court may include within its judgment all terms, conditions, and remedies contained in the Director's Order or the order of the Hearing Examiner, whichever is applicable, 1 2 that are consistent with the provisions of this Chapter 14.16. Section 22. Section 14.16.110 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance 3 4 123698, is amended as follows: 5 14.16.110((. Encouragement of more generous sick time policies; no effect on more 6 generous policies)) Private right of action ((A. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to discourage or prohibit an employer 7 from the adoption or retention of a paid sick and safe time policy more generous than the one 8 9 required herein. 10 Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as diminishing the obligation of an employer to comply with any contract, collective bargaining agreement, employment benefit 11 plan or other agreement providing more generous sick and safe time to an employee than 12 13 required herein. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as diminishing the rights of public 14 employees regarding paid sick or safe time or use of sick or safe time as provided under federal 15 16 or Washington state law, or the Seattle Municipal Code.)) Effective April 1, 2016, for claims against employers that employ 50 or more 17 employees and effective April 1, 2017 for claims against employers that employ fewer than 50 18 employees, any person or class of persons that suffers financial injury as a result of a violation 19 of this Chapter 14.16 or is the subject of prohibited retaliation under Section 14.16.080, may 20 21 bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction against the employer or other person violating this Chapter 14.16 and, upon prevailing, may be awarded reasonable attorney fees and costs and such legal or equitable relief as may be appropriate to remedy the violation

1	including, without limitation: the payment of any unpaid wages plus interest due to the person
2	and liquidated damages in an additional amount of up to twice the unpaid wages; and a penalty
3	payable to any aggrieved party of up to $5000 if the aggrieved party was subject to prohibited
4	retaliation. Interest shall accrue from the date the unpaid wages were first due at 12 percent per
5	annum, or the maximum rate permitted under RCW 19.52.020.
6	B. For purposes of determining employer size for this Section 14.16.110,
7	1. An employee who is not covered by this Chapter 14.16 shall be included
8	in any determination of employer size.
9	2. Employer size for the current calendar year will be calculated based upon
10	the average number per calendar week of employees who worked for compensation during the
11	preceding calendar year for any and all weeks during which at least one employee worked for
12	compensation. For employers that did not have any employees during the previous calendar year.
13	the employer size will be calculated based upon the average number per calendar week of
14	employees who worked for compensation during the first 90 calendar days of the current year in
15	which the employer engaged in business.
16	3. All employees who worked for compensation shall be counted, including
17	but not limited to:
18	a. Employees who worked inside the City;
19	b. Employees who worked outside the City; and
20	c. Employees who worked in full-time employment, part-time
21	employment, joint employment, temporary employment, or through the services of a temporary
22	services or staffing agency or similar entity.

1	4. Separate entities that form an integrated enterprise shall be considered a
2	single employer under this Chapter 14.16. Separate entities will be considered an integrated
3	enterprise and a single employer under this Chapter 14.16 where a separate entity controls the
4	operation of another entity. The factors to consider in making this assessment include, but are not
5	limited to:
6	a. Degree of interrelation between the operations of multiple entities;
7	b. Degree to which the entities share common management;
8	c. Centralized control of labor relations; and
9	d. Degree of common ownership or financial control over the entities.
10	C. For purposes of this Section 14.16.110, "person" includes any entity a member of
11	which has suffered financial injury or retaliation, or any other individual or entity acting on
12	behalf of an aggrieved party that has suffered financial injury or retaliation.
13	D. For purposes of determining membership within a class of persons entitled to 14	bring an action under this Section 14.16.110, two or more employees are similarly situated if
15	they:
16	1. Are or were employed by the same employer or employers, whether
17	concurrently or otherwise, at some point during the applicable statute of limitations period,
18	2. Allege one or more violations that raise similar questions as to liability,
19	and
20	3. Seek similar forms of relief.
21	E. For purposes of subsection 14.16.110.D, employees shall not be considered
22,	dissimilar solely because their
23	1. Claims seek damages that differ in amount, or

1	2. Job titles or other means of classifying employees differ in ways that are
2	unrelated to their claims.
3	Section 23. A new Section 14.16.115 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
4	14.16.115 Encouragement of more generous policies
5	A. Nothing in this Chapter 14.16 shall be construed to discourage or prohibit an
6	employer from the adoption or retention of a paid sick and paid safe time policy more generous
7,	than the one required herein.
8	B. Nothing in this Chapter 14.16 shall be construed as diminishing the obligation of
9	an employer to comply with any contract, collective bargaining agreement, employment benefit
10	plan, or other agreement providing more generous sick and paid safe time to an employee than
1	required herein.
12	C. Nothing in this Chapter 14.16 shall be construed as diminishing the rights of
13	public employees regarding paid sick or paid safe time or use of sick or paid safe time as
4	provided under federal or Washington state law or the Seattle Municipal Code.
15	Section 24. Section 14.16.120 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance
16	123698, is amended as follows:
17	14.16.120((. Waiver of the Provisions of the Chapter)) Waiver; Effect on collective
8	bargaining rights
9	The provisions of this ((ehapter)) Chapter 14.16 shall not apply to any employees covered by a
20	bona fide collective bargaining agreement to the extent that such requirements are expressly
21	waived in the collective bargaining agreement in clear and unambiguous terms.
22	Any waiver by an individual of any provisions of this ((ehapter)) Chapter 14.16 shall be deemed
23	contrary to public policy and shall be void and unenforceable.

Section 25. A new Section 14.16.125 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.16.125 Other legal requirements

A. This Chapter 14.16 provides minimum requirements pertaining to paid sick and paid safe time and shall not be construed to preempt, limit, or otherwise affect the applicability of any other law, regulation, requirement, policy, or standard that provides for greater accrual or use by employees of sick or safe time, whether paid or unpaid, or that extends other protections to employees; and nothing in this Chapter 14.16 shall be interpreted or applied so as to create any power or duty in conflict with federal or state law. Nor shall this Chapter 14.16 be construed to preclude any person aggrieved from seeking judicial review of any final administrative decision or order made under this Chapter 14.16 affecting such person.

- B. The paid sick and paid safe time required by this Chapter 14.16 is in addition to a contractor's obligations under 41 U.S.C. chapter 67 (Service Contract Act) and 40 U.S.C. chapter 31, subchapter IV (Davis-Bacon Act), or under chapter 39.12 RCW and contractors may not receive credit toward their prevailing wage or fringe benefit obligations under those Acts and Washington state law for any paid sick and paid safe time provided in satisfaction of the requirements of this Chapter 14.16. A contractor's existing paid leave policy provided in addition to the fulfillment of those Acts and Washington state law obligations, if applicable, and made available to all employees covered by this Chapter 14.16, will satisfy the requirements of this Chapter 14.16 provided that:
- 1. Available paid leave may be used for the same purposes and under the same conditions as paid sick and paid safe time as set forth in this Chapter 14.16; and
  - 2. Paid leave is accrued at the rate consistent with this Chapter 14.16; and

3. Use of paid leave within any benefit year is limited to no less than the 1 2 amounts specified in this Chapter 14.16; and Any accrued but unused paid leave may be carried over to the following 3 4. 4 benefit year consistent with this Chapter 14.16. 5 Section 26. Section 14.16.130 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance 6 123698, is amended as follows: 7 14.16.130((. Other Legal Requirements)) Severability ((This chapter provides minimum requirements pertaining to paid sick and safe time and shall 8 9 not be construed to preempt, limit, or otherwise affect the applicability of any other law, regulation, requirement, policy, or standard that provides for greater accrual or use by employees 10 of sick or safe time, whether paid or unpaid, or that extends other protections to employees; and 11 nothing in this chapter shall be interpreted or applied so as to create any power or duty in conflict 12 with federal or state law. Nor shall this chapter be construed to preclude any person aggrieved 13 14 from seeking judicial review of any final administrative decision or order made under this 15 chapter affecting such person.)) The provisions of this Chapter 14.16 are declared to be separate and severable. If any clause, 16 17 sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section, subsection, or portion of this Chapter 14.16, or the 18 application thereof to any employer, employee, person, or circumstance, is held to be invalid, it shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this Chapter 14.16, or the validity of its 19 application to other persons or circumstances. 20 Section 27. A new Section 14.17.005 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 21

	Karina Bull/Patricia Lee OLS 2015 Wage Theft Prevention ORD D3
1	This Chapter 14.17 shall constitute the "Fair Chance Employment Ordinance" and may be cited
2	as such.
3	Section 28. Section 14.17.010 of the Seattle Municipal Code, last amended by Ordinance
4	124644, is amended as follows:
5	14.17.010 Definitions
6	For ((the)) purposes of this ((chapter)) Chapter 14.17:
7	"Adverse action" means denying a job or promotion, demoting, terminating, failing to
8	rehire after a seasonal interruption of work, threatening, penalizing, retaliating, engaging in
9	unfair immigration-related practices, filing a false report with a government agency, changing an
10	employee's status to a nonemployee, or otherwise discriminating against any person for any
11	reason prohibited by Section 14.17.030. "Adverse action" for an employee may involve any
12	aspect of employment, including pay, work hours, responsibilities, or other material change in
13	the terms and condition of employment.
14	"Agency" ((shall mean)) means the Office for Civil Rights and any division therein.
15	"Aggrieved party" means an employee or other person who suffers tangible or intangible
16	harm due to an employer or other person's violation of this Chapter 14.17.
17	"Arrest record" ((shall mean)) means information indicating that a person has been
18	apprehended, detained, taken into custody, held for investigation, or restrained by a law
19	enforcement agency or military authority due to an accusation or suspicion that the person
20	committed a crime.
21	"City" ((shall mean)) means the City of Seattle.
22	(("Charging party" means a person who files an Agency charge claiming he was
23	aggrieved by an alleged violation of this chapter

"Commission" means the Seattle Human Rights Commission.))

"Conviction Record" and "Criminal History Record Information" ((is)) are meant to be consistent with chapter 10.97 RCW ((10.97)) and means information regarding a final criminal adjudication or other criminal disposition adverse to the subject, including a verdict of guilty, a finding of guilty, or a plea of guilty or nolo contendere. A criminal conviction record does not include any prior conviction that has been the subject of an expungement, vacation of conviction, sealing of the court file, pardon, annulment, certificate of rehabilitation, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of the rehabilitation of the person convicted, or a prior conviction that has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, or other equivalent procedure based on a finding of innocence. It does include convictions for offenses for which the defendant received a deferred or suspended sentence, unless the adverse disposition has been vacated or expunged.

"Criminal background check" ((shall mean)) means requesting or attempting to obtain, directly or through an agent, an individual's Conviction Record or Criminal History Record Information from the Washington State Patrol or any other source that compiles and maintains such records or information.

"Director" means the Division Director of the Office of Labor Standards within the Office for Civil Rights or the Division Director's designee.

"Employ" means to suffer or permit to work.

"Employee" ((shall mean)) means any individual employed by an employer, ((who performs any services for an employer, when the physical location of such services is in whole or in substantial part (at least 50 % of the time) within the City.)) including but not limited to full-time employees, part-time employees, and temporary workers.

1	1. An employer bears the burden of proof that the individual is in business
2	for oneself rather than dependent upon the alleged employer.
3	2. For purposes of this ((ehapter)) Chapter 14.17, "employee" does not
4	include an individual whose job duties or prospective job duties include law enforcement,
5	policing, crime prevention, security, criminal justice, or private investigation services. In
6	addition, "employee" does not include an individual who will or may have unsupervised access
7	to children under ((sixteen)) 16 years of age, developmentally disabled persons, or vulnerable
8	adults during the course of ((his or her)) the individual's employment.
9	"Employer" ((shall mean any person who has one or more employees, or the employer's
10	designee or any person acting in the interest of such employer. For purposes of this chapter,
11	"employer" includes job placement, referral, and employment agencies.)) means any individual,
12	partnership, association, corporation, business trust, or any entity, person or group of persons, or
13	a successor thereof, that employs another person and includes any such entity or person acting
14	directly or indirectly in the interest of an employer in relation to an employee.
15	1. More than one entity may be the "employer" if employment by one
16	employer is not completely disassociated from employment by the other employer.
17	2. For purposes of this Chapter 14.17, "employer" (("Employer")) does not
18	include any of the following:
19	((1.))a. The United States government;
20	((2.))b. The State of Washington, including any office, department,
21	agency, authority, institution, association, society, or other body of the state, including the
22	legislature and the judiciary;
23	((3.))c. Any county or local government other than the City.

1	"Front pay" means the compensation the employee would earn or would have earned if
2	reinstated to the employee's former position.
3	"Job applicant" ((shall mean)) means any individual who applies or is otherwise a
4	candidate to become an employee, as defined in this Chapter 14.17.
5	A "legitimate business reason" shall exist where, based on information known to the
6	employer at the time the employment decision is made, the employer believes in good faith that
7	the nature of the criminal conduct underlying the conviction or the pending criminal charge
8	either:
9	1. Will have a negative impact on the employee's or applicant's fitness or
10	ability to perform the position sought or held, or
11	2. Will harm or cause injury to people, property, business reputation, or
12	business assets, and the employer has considered the following factors:
13	a. the seriousness of the underlying criminal conviction or pending
14	criminal charge $((5))$ ; and $((5))$
15	b. the number and types of convictions or pending criminal charges
16	((5)); and $((5))$
17	c. the time that has elapsed since the conviction or pending criminal
18	charge, excluding periods of incarceration $((5))$ ; and $(5)$
19	d. any verifiable information related to the individual's rehabilitation
20	or good conduct, provided by the individual $((\frac{1}{2}))$ ; and $((\frac{1}{2}))$
21	e. the specific duties and responsibilities of the position sought or
22	held $((\frac{1}{2}))$ ; and $((\frac{1}{2}))$
23	f. the place and manner in which the position will be performed.

"Pending criminal charge" means an existing accusation that an individual has committed a crime, lodged by a law enforcement agency or military authority through an indictment, information, complaint, or other formal charge, where the accusation has not yet resulted in a final judgment, acquittal, conviction, plea, dismissal, or withdrawal.

"Rate of inflation" means 100 percent of the annual average growth rate of the bimonthly Seattle-Tacoma-Bremerton Area Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers, termed CPI-W, for the 12 month period ending in August, provided that the percentage increase shall not be less than zero.

"Respondent" means an employer or any ((employer)) person who is alleged or found to have committed a violation of this ((ehapter)) Chapter 14.17.

"Successor" means any person to whom an employer quitting, selling out, exchanging, or disposing of a business sells or otherwise conveys in bulk and not in the ordinary course of the employer's business, a major part of the property, whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, of the employer's business. For purposes of this definition, "person" means an individual, receiver, administrator, executor, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, trust, estate, firm, corporation, business trust, partnership, limited liability partnership, company, joint stock company, limited liability company, association, joint venture, or any other legal or commercial entity.

"Tangible adverse employment action" means a decision by an employer to reject an otherwise qualified job applicant, or to terminate, suspend, discipline, demote, or deny a promotion to an employee.

"Wage" means compensation due to an employee by reason of employment, payable in legal tender of the United States or checks on banks convertible into cash on demand at full face

1	value, subject to such deductions, charges, or allowances as may be permitted by rules of the
2	Director.
3	Section 29. A new Section 14.17.015 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
4	14.17.015 Employment in Seattle
5	An employee is covered by this Chapter 14.17 when the physical location of such services is in
6	whole or in substantial part (at least 50 percent of the time) within the geographic boundaries of
7	the City.
8	Section 30. A new Section 14.17.025 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
9	14.17.025 Notice and posting
10	A. The Agency shall create and distribute a poster giving notice of the rights
11	afforded by this Chapter 14.17. The Agency shall create and distribute the poster in English,
12	Spanish, and any other languages that are necessary for employers to comply with subsection
13	14.17.025.B. The poster shall give notice of:
14	1. the right to fair chance employment and regulation of an employer's use of
15	arrest and conviction records by this Chapter 14.17;
16	2. the right to be protected from retaliation for exercising in good faith the
17	rights protected by this Chapter 14.17; and
18	3. the right to file a complaint with the Agency for violation of the
19	requirements of this Chapter 14.17, including an employer's improper use of arrest and
20	conviction records in an employment decision, and an employer or other person's retaliation
21	against an employee or other person for engaging in an activity protected by this Chapter 14.17.
22	B. Effective April 1, 2016, employers shall display the poster in a conspicuous and accessible location where any of their employees work. Employers shall display the poster in English and in the primary language of the employee(s) at the particular workplace. If display of the poster is not feasible, including situations when the employee works remotely or does not have a regular workplace, employers may provide the poster on an individual basis in an employee's primary language in physical or electronic format that is reasonably conspicuous and accessible.

((A. This chapter shall not be construed to interfere with, impede, or in any way diminish any provision in a collective bargaining agreement or the right of employees to bargain collectively with their employers through representatives of their own choosing concerning wages or standards or conditions of employment.

B. This chapter shall not be interpreted or applied to diminish or conflict with any requirements of state or federal law, including Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. 1681, as amended, the Washington State Fair Credit Reporting Act, RCW 19.182, as amended, the Washington State Criminal Records Privacy Act, RCW-10.97, as amended, and state laws regarding criminal background checks, including those related to individuals with access to children or vulnerable persons, RCW 43.43.830, et seq., as amended. In the event of any conflict, state and federal requirements shall supersede the requirements of this chapter.

C. This chapter shall not be interpreted or applied as imposing an obligation on the part of an employer to provide accommodations or job modifications in order to facilitate the employment or continued employment of an applicant or employee with a conviction record or who is facing pending criminal charges.

D. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to discourage or prohibit an employer from adopting employment policies that are more generous to employees and job applicants than the requirements of this chapter.

E. This chapter shall not be construed to create a private civil right of action to seek damages or remedies of any kind.))

A. No employer or any other person shall interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, any right protected under this Chapter 14.17.

B. No employer or any other person shall take any adverse action against any person because the person has exercised in good faith the rights protected under this Chapter 14.17.

Such rights include but are not limited to the right to right to fair chance employment and regulation of an employer's use of arrest and conviction records by this Chapter 14.17; the right to make inquiries about the rights protected under this Chapter 14.17; the right to inform others about their rights under this Chapter 14.17; the right to inform the person's employer, union, or similar organization, and/or the person's legal counsel or any other person about an alleged violation of this Chapter 14.17; the right to file an oral or written complaint with the Agency for an alleged violation of this Chapter 14.17; the right to testify in a proceeding under or related to this Chapter 14.17; the right to refuse to participate in an activity that would result in a violation of city, state or federal law; and the right to oppose any policy, practice, or act that is unlawful under this Chapter 14.17.

Section 32. A new Section 14.17.035 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.17.035 Enforcement power and duties

- A. The Agency shall have the power to investigate violations of this Chapter 14.17, as defined herein, and shall have such powers and duties in the performance of these functions as are defined in this Chapter 14.17 and otherwise necessary and proper in the performance of the same and provided for by law.
- B. The Agency shall be authorized to coordinate implementation and enforcement of this Chapter 14.17 and shall promulgate appropriate guidelines or rules for such purposes.
- C. The Director is authorized and directed to promulgate rules consistent with this Chapter 14.17 and the Administrative Code. Any guidelines or rules promulgated by the Director shall have the force and effect of law and may be relied on by employers, employees, and other parties to determine their rights and responsibilities under this Chapter 14.17.
- D. The Director shall convene a panel of stakeholders with a balance of perspectives, including members of the employer, social service, legal community and the Seattle Human Rights Commission to help develop the appropriate guidelines and rules to implement this ordinance, and to oversee and provide input and feedback to the Director on the implementation of this ordinance for at least the first six months after the effective date of Ordinance 124201.
- E. The Director shall maintain data on the number of complaints filed pursuant to this Chapter 14.17, demographic information on the complainants, the number of investigations it conducts and the disposition of every complaint and investigation. The Director shall submit this data to the City Council every six months for the two years following the effective date of Ordinance 124201.

14.17.045 Investigation

- A. The Agency shall have the power to investigate any violations of this Chapter 14.17 by any respondent. The Agency may initiate an investigation pursuant to rules issued by the Director including, but not limited to, situations when the Director has reason to believe that a violation has occurred or will occur, when circumstances show that violations are likely to occur within a class of businesses because the workforce contains significant numbers of workers who are vulnerable to violations of this Chapter 14.17 or the workforce is unlikely to volunteer information regarding such violations. An investigation may also be initiated through the receipt by the Agency of a report or complaint filed by an employee or other person.
- B. An employee or other person may report to the Agency any suspected violation of this Chapter 14.17. The Agency shall encourage reporting pursuant to this Section 14.17.045 by taking the following measures:
- 1. The Agency shall keep confidential, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable laws, the name and other identifying information of the employee or person reporting the violation. However, with the authorization of such person, the Agency may disclose the employee's or person's name and identifying information as necessary to enforce this Chapter 14.17 or for other appropriate purposes.
- 2. An employer must post or otherwise notify its employees that the Agency is conducting an investigation, using a form provided by the Agency and displaying it on-site, in a conspicuous and accessible location, and in English and the primary language of the employee(s) at the particular workplace. If display of the form is not feasible, including situations when the employee works remotely or does not have a regular workplace, employers

- 3. The Agency may certify the eligibility of eligible persons for "U" Visas under the provisions of 8 U.S.C. § 1184.p and 8 U.S.C. § 1101.a.15.U. This certification is subject to applicable federal law and regulations, and rules issued by the Director.
- C. The Agency's investigation must commence within three years of the alleged violation. To the extent permitted by law, the applicable statute of limitations for civil actions is tolled during any investigation under this Chapter 14.17 and any administrative enforcement proceeding under this Chapter 14.17 based upon the same facts. For purposes of this Chapter 14.17:
- 1. The Agency's investigation begins on the earlier date of when the Agency receives a complaint from a person under this Chapter 14.17, or the Agency opens an investigation under this Chapter 14.17.
- 2. The Agency's investigation ends when the Agency issues a final order concluding the matter and any appeals have been exhausted; the time to file any appeal has expired; or the Agency notifies the respondent in writing that the investigation has been otherwise resolved.
- D. The Agency's investigation shall be conducted in an objective and impartial manner.
- E. The Director may apply by affidavit or declaration in the form allowed under RCW 9A.72.085 to the Hearing Examiner for the issuance of subpoenas for the attendance and testimony of witnesses, or for the production of documents relevant to the issue of whether an employer has violated any provision of this Chapter 14.17. The Hearing Examiner shall conduct

- F. An employer that fails to comply with the terms of any subpoena issued under subsection 14.17.045.E. in an investigation by the Agency under this Chapter 14.17 prior to the issuance of a Director's Order issued pursuant to subsection 14.17.050.C may not use such records in any appeal to challenge the correctness of any determination by the Agency of damages owed or penalties assessed.
- G. In addition to other remedies, the Director may refer any subpoena issued under subsection 14.17.045.E to the City Attorney to seek a court order to enforce any subpoena.
- H. Where the Director has reason to believe that a violation has occurred, the Director may order any appropriate temporary or interim relief to mitigate the violation or maintain the status quo pending completion of a full investigation or hearing, including but not limited to a deposit of funds or bond sufficient to satisfy a good-faith estimate of wages, interest, damages and penalties due. A respondent may appeal any such order in accordance with subsection 14.17.060.B.
- Section 35. Section 14.17.050 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance 124201, is amended as follows:
- 14.17.050 ((Exercise of Rights Protected; Retaliation Prohibited)) Findings of fact and determination

((A.—It shall be a violation for an employer or any other person to interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, any right protected under this chapter.

B. It shall be a violation for an employer or any other person to retaliate against an employee or job applicant because the employee or applicant has exercised in good faith the right to file a complaint with the Agency about any employer's alleged violation of this chapter, the right to cooperate in the Agency's investigation, or the right to oppose any policy, practice, or act that is unlawful under this chapter.

C. The protections afforded under subsection 14.17.050.B shall apply to any person who mistakenly but in good faith alleges violations of this chapter.))

A. Except when there is an agreed upon settlement, the Director shall issue a written determination with findings of fact resulting from the investigation and statement of whether a violation of this Chapter 14.17 has or has not occurred based on a preponderance of the evidence before the Director.

- B. If the Director determines that there is no violation of this Chapter 14.17, the Director shall issue a "Determination of No Violation" with notice of an employee or other person's right to appeal the decision, subject to the rules of the Director.
- C. If the Director determines that a violation of this Chapter 14.17 has occurred, the Director shall issue a "Director's Order" that shall include a notice of violation identifying the violation or violations. The Director's Order shall state with specificity the amounts due under this Chapter 14.17 for each violation, including payment of unpaid wages, liquidated damages, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, fines, and interest pursuant to Section 14.17.055. The Director's Order may specify that civil penalties and fines due to the Agency can be mitigated for respondent's timely payment of remedy due to an aggrieved party under

 corrective action as is necessary to comply with the requirements of this Chapter 14.17, including, but not limited to, monitored compliance for a reasonable time period. The Director's Order shall include notice of the respondent's right to appeal the decision, pursuant to Section 14.17.060.

Section 36. A new Section 14.17.055 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.17.055 Remedies

- A. The payment of unpaid wages, liquidated damages, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, fines, and interest provided under this Chapter 14.17 are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of any other available remedies, penalties, fines, and procedures.
- 1. Effective January 1, 2017, the amounts of all civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, and fines contained in this Section 14.17.055 shall be increased annually to reflect the rate of inflation and calculated to the nearest cent on January 1 of each year thereafter. The Agency shall determine the amounts and file a schedule of such amounts with the City Clerk.
- 2. If there is a remedy due to an aggrieved party, the Director may waive the total amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent paid the full remedy due to the aggrieved party within ten days of service of the Director's Order. The Director may waive half the amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent paid the full remedy due to the aggrieved party within 15 days of service of the Director's Order. The Director shall not waive any amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent has

3. When determining the amount of liquidated damages, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, and fines due under this Section 14.17.055, for a Settlement Agreement or Director's Order, including but not limited to the mitigation of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency for timely payment of remedy due to an aggrieved party under subsection 14.17.055.A.2, the Director shall consider the total amount of unpaid wages,

- the size, revenue, and human resources capacity of the respondent; the circumstances of each 10
  - situation; the amount of penalties in similar situations; and other factors as established by rules
- issued by the Director. 12
  - В. If a violation is ongoing when the Agency receives a complaint or opens an investigation, the Director may order payment of amounts that accrue after receipt of the complaint or after the investigation opens and before the date of the Director's Order. Interest shall accrue from the date the unpaid wages were first due at 12 percent per annum, or the maximum rate permitted under RCW 19.52.020.
  - A respondent found to be in violation of this Chapter 14.17 for retaliation under C. Section 14.17.040 shall be subject to any appropriate relief at law or equity including, but not limited to reinstatement of the aggrieved party, front pay in lieu of reinstatement with full payment of unpaid wages plus interest in favor of the aggrieved party under the terms of this Chapter 14.17, and liquidated damages in an additional amount of up to twice the unpaid wages. The Director also shall order a penalty payable to the aggrieved party of up to $5,000.

- D. A respondent who willfully violates the notice and posting requirements of Section 14.17.025 shall be subject to a civil penalty of $750 for the first violation and $1,000 for subsequent violations.
- E. A respondent who willfully hinders, prevents, impedes, or interferes with the Director or Hearing Examiner in the performance of their duties under this Chapter 14.17 shall be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000.
- F. For a first violation of this Chapter 14.17, the Director shall issue an order requiring the respondent to pay a penalty of up to $500 per aggrieved party, payable to the aggrieved job applicant, employee or other aggrieved person. For a second violation of this Chapter 14.17, the Director shall issue an order requiring the respondent to pay a penalty of up to $1,000 per aggrieved party, payable to the aggrieved job applicant, employee, or other aggrieved person. For a third or any subsequent violation of this Chapter 14.17, the Director shall issue an order requiring the respondent to pay a penalty of up to $5,000 per aggrieved party, payable to the aggrieved job applicant, employee, or other aggrieved person. If there is no identified job applicant, employee, or aggrieved person, the penalty required by this subsection 14.17.055.F shall be paid to the Agency as a civil penalty. For purposes of this Section 14.17.055, a violation is a second, third, or subsequent violation if the respondent has been a party to one, two, or more than two Settlement Agreements, respectively, stipulating that a violation has occurred; and or one, two, or more than two Director's Orders, respectively, have issued against the respondent in the ten years preceding the date of the violation; otherwise, it is a first violation.
- G. For the following violations, the Director may assess a fine in the amounts set forth below:

The fine amounts shall be increased cumulatively by 50 percent of the fine for each preceding violation for each subsequent violation of the same provision by the same employer or person within a ten year period. The maximum amount that may be imposed in fines in any one year period for each type of violation listed above is $5,000 unless a fine for retaliation is issued, in which case the maximum amount is $20,000.

- H. In addition to the unpaid wages, penalties, fines, liquidated damages, and interest, the Agency may assess against the respondent in favor of the City the reasonable costs incurred in enforcing this Chapter 14.17, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees.
- I. An employer that is the subject of a final order for which all appeal rights have been exhausted shall not be permitted to bid, or have a bid considered, on any City contract until such amounts due under the final order have been paid in full to the Director. If an employer is the subject of a final order two times or more within a five-year period, the contractor or subcontractor shall not be allowed to bid on any City contract for two years. This subsection 14.17.055.I shall be construed to provide grounds for debarment separate from, and in addition to, those contained in Chapter 20.70 and shall not be governed by that chapter provided that nothing in this subsection 14.16.080.I shall be construed to limit the application of Chapter 20.70. The Director shall notify the Director of Finance and Administrative Services of all employers subject to debarment under this subsection 14.17.055.I.

14.17.060 ((Enforcement)) Appeal period and failure to respond

((A. The same complaint, investigation, and enforcement procedures set forth in SMC 14.16.080 apply under this chapter, except that when there is a determination that a respondent has violated this chapter, the exclusive remedy available under this chapter is a notice of infraction and offer of Agency assistance for the first violation; an order requiring the respondent to pay a monetary penalty of up to $750, payable to the charging party, for the second violation; and a monetary penalty of up to $1000, payable to the charging party, for each subsequent violation. In the event the Hearing Examiner or panel majority determines that a respondent has committed a violation of this chapter, the Hearing Examiner or panel majority may order the respondent to pay the Agency's attorney's fees in addition to a monetary penalty. No other remedies, damages, or affirmative action may be ordered by the Agency, Commission, or Hearing Examiner.

B. The Agency has the authority to initiate investigation procedures on its own, without a complaint from a Charging Party, and enforcement procedures after a complaint has been received either from an applicant who feels unjustly treated, or from the applicant's representative, or when the Agency has reasonable cause based on substantial and verifiable information to believe that an employer has violated subsection SMC 14.17.020. A of this chapter.))

A. An employee or other person who claims an injury as a result of an alleged violation of this Chapter 14.17 may appeal the Determination of No Violation Shown, pursuant to the rules of the Director.

B. A respondent may appeal the Director's Order, including all remedies issued pursuant to Section 14.17.055, by requesting a contested hearing before the Hearing Examiner in writing within 15 days of service of the Director's Order. If a respondent fails to appeal the Director's Order within 15 days of service, the Director's Order shall be final. If the last day of the appeal period so computed is a Saturday, Sunday, or federal or City holiday, the appeal period shall run until 5 p.m. on the next business day.

Section 38. A new Section 14.17.065 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.17.065 Appeal procedure and failure to appear

A. Contested hearings shall be conducted pursuant to the procedures for hearing contested cases contained in Section 3.02.090 and the rules adopted by the Hearing Examiner for hearing contested cases. The review shall be conducted de novo and the Director shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the violation or violations occurred. Upon establishing such proof, the remedies and penalties imposed by the Director shall be upheld unless it is shown that the Director abused discretion. Failure to appear for a contested hearing shall result in an order being entered finding that the respondent committed the violation stated in the Director's Order. For good cause shown and upon terms the Hearing Examiner deems just, the Hearing Examiner may set aside an order entered upon a failure to appear.

civil action in King County Superior Court, the Seattle Municipal Court, or any other court of

- competent jurisdiction to enforce such order or to collect amounts due. In the alternative, the Director may seek to enforce a Director's Order or a final order of the Hearing Examiner under Section 14.17.080.
- 4. The Director may request that the City's Department of Finance and Administrative Services deny, suspend, refuse to renew, or revoke any business license held or requested by the employer or person until such time as the employer complies with the remedy as defined in the settlement agreement or final order. The City's Department of Finance and Administrative Services shall have the authority to deny, refuse to renew, or revoke any business license in accordance with this subsection 14.17.075.A.4.
- B. No respondent that is the subject of a final order issued under this Chapter 14.17 shall quit business, sell out, exchange, convey, or otherwise dispose of the respondent's business or stock of goods without first notifying the Agency and without first notifying the respondent's successor of the amounts owed under the final order at least three business days prior to such transaction. At the time the respondent quits business, or sells out, exchanges, or otherwise disposes of the respondent's business or stock of goods, the full amount of the remedy, as defined in a final order issued by the Director or the Hearing Examiner, shall become immediately due and payable. If the amount due under the final order is not paid by respondent within ten days from the date of such sale, exchange, conveyance, or disposal, the successor shall become liable for the payment of the amount due, provided that the successor has actual knowledge of the order and the amounts due or has prompt, reasonable, and effective means of accessing and verifying the fact and amount of the order and the amounts due. The successor shall withhold from the purchase price a sum sufficient to pay the amount of the full remedy. When the successor makes such payment, that payment shall be deemed a payment upon the purchase price in the amount paid, and if such payment is greater in amount than the purchase price the amount of the difference shall become a debt due such successor from the employer.

Section 41. A new Section 14.17.080 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.17.080 Debt owed The City of Seattle

- A. All monetary amounts due under the Director's Order shall be a debt owed to the City and may be collected in the same manner as any other debt in like amount, which remedy shall be in addition to all other existing remedies, provided that amounts collected by the City for unpaid wages, liquidated damages, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, or front pay shall be held in trust by the City for the aggrieved party and, once collected by the City, shall be paid by the City to the aggrieved party.
- B. If a respondent fails to appeal a Director's Order to the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.17.060.B, the Director's Order shall be final, and the Director may petition the Seattle Municipal Court, or any court of competent jurisdiction, to enforce the Director's Order by entering judgment in favor of the City finding that the respondent has failed to exhaust its administrative remedies and that all amounts and relief contained in the order are due. The Director's Order shall constitute prima facie evidence that a violation occurred and shall be admissible without further evidentiary foundation. Any certifications or declarations authorized under RCW 9A.72.085 containing evidence that the respondent has failed to comply with the order or any parts thereof, and is therefore in default, or that the respondent has failed to appeal the Director's Order to the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.17.060.B, and therefore has failed to exhaust the respondent's administrative remedies, shall also be admissible without further evidentiary foundation.

contained in the Director's Order or the order of the Hearing Examiner, whichever is applicable, that are consistent with the provisions of this Chapter 14.17.

Section 42. A new Section 14.17.085 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.17.085 Effect on collective bargaining rights

This Chapter 14.17 shall not be construed to interfere with, impede, or in any way diminish any provision in a collective bargaining agreement or the right of employees to bargain collectively with their employers through representatives of their own choosing concerning wages or standards or conditions of employment.

person and includes any such entity or person acting directly or indirectly in the interest of an employer in relation to an employee. More than one entity may be the "employer" if employment by one employer is not completely disassociated from employment by the other employer;

17

18

"Franchise" means a written agreement by which:

1. A person is granted the right to engage in the business of offering, selling, or distributing goods or services under a marketing plan prescribed or suggested in substantial part by the grantor or its affiliate;

- 2. The operation of the business is substantially associated with a trademark, service mark, trade name, advertising, or other commercial symbol; designating, owned by, or licensed by the grantor or its affiliate; and
- 3. The person pays, agrees to pay, or is required to pay, directly or indirectly, a franchise fee;

"Franchisee" means a person to whom a franchise is offered or granted;

"Franchisor" means a person who grants a franchise to another person;

"Front pay" means the compensation the employee would earn or would have earned if reinstated to the employee's former position;

"Hearing Examiner" means the official appointed by the Council and designated as the Hearing Examiner, or that person's designee (Deputy Hearing Examiner, Hearing Examiner Pro Tem, etc.);

"Hourly minimum compensation" means the minimum compensation due to an employee for each hour worked during a pay period;

"Hourly minimum wage" means the minimum wage due to an employee for each hour worked during a pay period;

"Medical benefits plan" means a silver or higher level essential health benefits package, as defined in 42 U.S.C. section 18022, or an equivalent plan that is designed to provide benefits that are actuarially equivalent to 70 percent of the full actuarial value of the benefits provided under the plan, whichever is greater;

"Minimum compensation" means the minimum wage in addition to tips actually received by the employee and reported to the Internal Revenue Service, and money paid by the employer towards an individual employee's medical benefits plan;

"Minimum wage" means all wages, commissions, piece-rate, and bonuses actually received by the employee and reported to the Internal Revenue Service;

"Piece-rate" means a price paid per unit of work;

"Rate of inflation" means ((the Consumer Price Index annual percent change for urban wage earners and clerical workers, termed CPI-W, or a successor index, for the twelve months prior to each September 1st as calculated by the United States Department of Labor;)) 100 percent of the annual average growth rate of the bi-monthly Seattle-Tacoma-Bremerton Area Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers, termed CPI-W, for the 12 month period ending in August, provided that the percentage increase shall not be less than zero;

"Respondent" means an employer or any person who is alleged or found to have committed a violation of this Chapter 14.19;

"Schedule 1 ((Employer)) employer" means all employers that employ more than 500 employees ((in the United States)), regardless of where those employees are employed, ((in the United States,)) and all franchisees associated with a franchisor or a network of franchises with franchisees that employ more than 500 employees in aggregate; ((in the United States;))

"Schedule 2 ((Employer)) employer" means all employers that employ 500 or fewer employees regardless of where those employees are employed. ((in the United States.)) Schedule 2 employers do not include franchisees associated with a franchisor or a network of franchises with franchisees that employ more than 500 employees in aggregate; ((in the United States;))

"Successor" means any person to whom an employer quitting, selling out, exchanging, or disposing of a business sells or otherwise conveys in bulk and not in the ordinary course of the employer's business, a major part of the property, whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, of the employer's business. For purposes of this definition, "person" means an individual, receiver, administrator, executor, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, trust, estate, firm, corporation, business trust, partnership, limited liability partnership, company, joint stock company, limited liability company, association, joint venture, or any other legal or commercial entity;

"Tips" means a verifiable sum to be presented by a customer as a gift or gratuity in recognition of some service performed for the customer by the employee receiving the tip;

"Wage" means compensation due to an employee by reason of employment, payable in legal tender of the United States or checks on banks convertible into cash on demand at full face value, subject to such deductions, charges, or allowances as may be permitted by rules of the Director. Commissions, piece-rate, and bonuses are included in wages. Tips and employer payments toward a medical benefits plan do not constitute wages for purposes of this Chapter 14.19.

Section 47. A new Section 14.19.015 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.19.015 Employment in Seattle

- A. Subject to subsection 14.19.015.B, employees are covered by this Chapter 14.19 for each hour worked within the geographic boundaries of the City.
- B. An employee who is typically based outside the City and performs work in the City on an occasional basis is covered by this Chapter 14.19 in a two-week period only if the employee performs more than two hours of work for an employer within the City during that two-week period.
- 1. To track time of employees who work in the City on an occasional basis, employers must use consecutive two-week periods in sequence as they occur. Employers shall not skip or shift two-week periods.

- 2. Once an employee who works in the City on an occasional basis performs more than two hours of work for an employer within the City during a two-week period, payment for all time worked in the City during that two-week period shall be made in compliance with the requirements of this Chapter 14.19.
  - 3. Time spent in the City solely for the purpose of travelling through the City from a point of origin outside the City to a destination outside the City, with no employment-related or commercial stops in the City except for refueling or the employee's personal meals or errands, is not covered by this Chapter 14.19.

14.19.020 ((Employment in Seattle)) Employer schedule determination

((A. Employees are covered by this Chapter for each hour worked within the geographic boundaries of Seattle, provided that an employee who performs work in Seattle on an occasional basis is covered by this Chapter in a two-week period only if the employee performs more than two hours of work for an employer within Seattle during that two-week period. Time spent in Seattle solely for the purpose of travelling through Seattle from a point of origin outside Seattle to a destination outside Seattle, with no employment related or commercial stops in Seattle except for refueling or the employee's personal meals or errands, is not covered by this Chapter. An employee who is not covered by this Chapter is still included in any determination of the size of the employer.

B. For the purposes of determining whether a non-franchisee employer is a Schedule 1 employer or a Schedule 2 employer, separate entities that form an integrated enterprise shall be considered a single employer under this Chapter. Separate entities will be considered an integrated enterprise and a single employer under this Chapter where a separate entity controls the operation of another entity. The factors to consider in making this assessment include, but are not limited to:

- 1. Degree of interrelation between the operations of multiple entities;
- 2. Degree to which the entities share common management;
- 3. Centralized control of labor relations; and
- 4. Degree of common ownership or financial control over the entities.

There shall be a presumption that separate legal entities, which may share some degree of interrelated operations and common management with one another, shall be considered separate employers for purposes of this section as long as (1) the separate legal entities operate substantially in separate physical locations from one another, and (2) each separate legal entity has partially different ultimate ownership. The determination of employer schedule for the current calendar year will be calculated based upon the average number of employees employed per calendar week during the preceding calendar year for any and all weeks during which at least one employee worked for compensation. For employers that did not have any employees during the previous calendar year, the employer schedule will be calculated based upon the average number of employees employed per calendar week during the first 90 calendar days of the current year in which the employer engaged in business.

C. The Director shall have the authority to issue a special certificate authorizing an employer to pay a wage less than the City of Seattle minimum wage, as defined in this Chapter, but above the Washington State minimum wage, as defined in RCW 49.46.020. Such special certificates shall only be available for the categories of workers defined in RCW 49.46.060 and shall be subject to such limitations as to time, number, proportion, and length of service as the

2	letter of recommendation from the Washington State Department of Labor and Industries stating
3	that the applicant has a demonstrated necessity pursuant to WAC 296-128.

5	age of eighteen years, provided that any percentage of the hourly rate established by rule shall
6	not be lower than the percentage applicable under state statutes and regulations.))
7	A. An employee who is not covered by this Chapter 14.19 shall be included in any
8	determination of the size of the employer.
9	B. The determination of employer schedule for the current calendar year will be
10	calculated based upon the average number of employees who worked for compensation per
11	calendar week during the preceding calendar year for any and all weeks during which at least one
12	employee worked for compensation. For employers that did not have any employees during the
13	previous calendar year, the employer schedule will be calculated based upon the average number
14	of employees who worked for compensation per calendar week during the first 90 calendar days
15	of the current year in which the employer engaged in business.
16	C. All employees who worked for compensation shall be counted, including but not
17	limited to:
18	a. Employees who worked inside the City;
19	b. Employees who worked outside the City; and
20	c. Employees who worked in full-time employment, part-time employment,
21	joint employment, temporary employment, or through the services of a temporary services or
22	staffing agency or similar entity.

Section 52. A new Section 14.19.045 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.19.045 Notice and posting

- A. On an annual basis and by December 1 each year, the Agency shall create and distribute a poster that gives notice of the rights afforded by this Chapter 14.19. The Agency shall create and distribute the poster in English, Spanish, and any other languages that are necessary for employers to comply with subsection 14.19.045.B. The poster shall give notice of:
- 1. The right to the applicable rate of minimum wage and minimum compensation guaranteed by this Chapter 14.19;

- 2. The right to be protected from retaliation for exercising in good faith the rights protected by this Chapter 14.19; and
- 3. The right to file a complaint with the Agency or bring a civil action for violation of the requirements of this Chapter 14.19, including an employer or any person's failure to pay minimum wage or minimum compensation, and an employer or other person's retaliation against an employee or other person for engaging in an activity protected by this Chapter 14.19.
- B. Employers shall display the poster in a conspicuous and accessible place at any workplace or job site where any of their employees work. Employers shall display the poster in English and in the primary language of the employee(s) at the particular workplace. If display of the poster is not feasible, including situations when the employee works remotely or does not have a regular workplace or job site, employers may provide the poster on an individual basis in an employee's primary language in physical or electronic format that is reasonably conspicuous and accessible.

A. Each employer shall retain records documenting minimum wages and minimum compensation paid to each employee. Such records shall be retained for a period of three years from the date such hours were worked.

B. If an employer fails to retain adequate records required under subsection

14.19.050.A, there shall be a presumption, rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence, that the employer violated this Chapter 14.19 for the periods and for each employee for whom records were not retained.

Section 54. A new Section 14.19.055 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.19.055 Retaliation prohibited

- A. No employer or any other person shall interfere with, restrain, deny, or attempt to deny the exercise of any right protected under this Chapter 14.19.
- B. No employer or any other person shall take any adverse action against any person because the person has exercised in good faith the rights protected under this Chapter 14.19. Such rights include but are not limited to the right to make inquiries about the rights protected under this Chapter 14.19; the right to inform others about their rights under this Chapter 14.19; the right to inform the person's employer, union, or similar organization, and/or the person's legal counsel or any other person about an alleged violation of this Chapter 14.19; the right to file an oral or written complaint with the Agency or bring a civil action for an alleged violation of this Chapter 14.19; the right to cooperate with the Agency in its investigations of this Chapter 14.19; the right to testify in a proceeding under or related to this Chapter 14.19; the right to refuse to participate in an activity that would result in a violation of city, state, or federal law; and the right to oppose any policy, practice, or act that is unlawful under this Chapter 14.19.

- C. No employer or any other person shall communicate to a person exercising rights protected under this Section 14.19.055, directly or indirectly, the willingness to inform a government employee that the person is not lawfully in the United States, or to report, or to make an implied or express assertion of a willingness to report, suspected citizenship or immigration status of an employee or a family member of the employee to a federal, state, or local agency because the employee has exercised a right under this Chapter 14.19.
- D. It shall be a rebuttable presumption of retaliation if an employer or any other person takes an adverse action against a person within 90 days of the person's exercise of rights protected in this Section 14.19.055. However, in the case of seasonal work that ended before the close of the 90 day period, the presumption also applies if the employer fails to rehire a former employee at the next opportunity for work in the same position. The employer may rebut the presumption with clear and convincing evidence that the adverse action was taken for a permissible purpose.
- E. Standard of proof. Proof of retaliation under this Section 14.19.055 shall be sufficient upon a showing that an employer or any other person has taken an adverse action against a person and the person's exercise of rights protected in this Section 14.19.055 was a motivating factor in the adverse action, unless the employer can prove that the action would have been taken in the absence of such protected activity.
- F. The protections afforded under this Section 14.19.055 shall apply to any person who mistakenly but in good faith alleges violations of this Chapter 14.19.
- G. A complaint or other communication by any person triggers the protections of this Section 14.19.055 regardless of whether the complaint or communication is in writing or makes explicit reference to this Chapter 14.19.

Section 55. Section 14.19.060 of the Seattle Municipal Code, last amended by Ordinance
124644, is amended as follows:
14.19.060 Enforcement power and duties
A. ((Powers and Duties
1.—)) The Agency shall investigate ((alleged)) violations of this Chapter 14.19 as defined herein, and shall have such powers and duties in the performance of these functions as are defined in this Chapter 14.19 and otherwise necessary and proper in the performance of the same and provided for by law.
((2. The Director is authorized and directed to promulgate rules consistent with this Chapter.))
B. The Agency shall be authorized to coordinate implementation and enforcement of this Chapter 14.19 and shall promulgate appropriate guidelines or rules for such purposes.
C. The Director of the Agency is authorized and directed to promulgate rules consistent with this Chapter 14.19 and the Administrative Code. Any guidelines or rules promulgated by the Director shall have the force and effect of law and may be relied on by employers, employees, and other parties to determine their rights and responsibilities under this Chapter 14.19.
((B. Exercise of Rights Protected; Retaliation Prohibited
1. It shall be a violation for an employer or any other person to interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, any right protected under this Chapter.
2. It shall be a violation for an employer to discharge, threaten, harass, demote, penalize, or in any other manner discriminate or retaliate against any employee because the employee has exercised in good faith the rights protected under this Chapter. Such rights include but are not limited to the right to file an oral or written complaint with the Agency about any employer's alleged violation of this Chapter; the right to inform his or her employer, union or similar organization, and/or legal counsel about an employer's alleged violation of this Chapter; the right to cooperate with the Agency in its investigations of alleged violations of this Chapter; the right to oppose any policy, practice, or act that is unlawful under this Chapter; and the right to inform other employees of his or her potential rights under this Chapter.

3. It shall be a violation for an employer to communicate to a person filing a wage claim, directly or indirectly, explicitly or implicitly, the willingness to inform a government employee that the person is not lawfully in the United States, report or threaten to report suspected citizenship or immigration status of an employee or a family member of the employee to a federal, state, or local agency because the employee has exercised a right under this Chapter.

C. Notice, Posting, and Records

1. Employers shall give notice to employees in English, Spanish and any other language commonly spoken by employees at the particular workplace that they are entitled to the minimum wage and minimum compensation; that retaliation against employees who exercise their rights under this Chapter is prohibited; and that each employee has the right to file a charge if the minimum wage or minimum compensation as defined in this Chapter is not paid or the employee is retaliated against for engaging in an activity protected under this Chapter.

2. Employers may comply with this section by posting in a conspicuous place at any workplace or job site where any covered employee works a notice published each year by the Agency informing employees of the current minimum wage and minimum

2	Chapter in English, Spanish and any other languages commonly spoken by employees at the
3	particular workplace or job site.
4	3. Employers shall retain payroll records pertaining to covered employees for
5	a period of three years documenting minimum wages and minimum compensation paid to each
6	employee.
7	D. Charges and Investigation
8	1. The Agency may investigate any violations of this Chapter. A charge
9	alleging a violation of this Chapter should include a statement of the dates, places, and persons or
.0	entities responsible for such violation. A charge alleging a violation of this Chapter may also be
1	filed by the Director on behalf of an aggrieved individual when the Director has reason to believe
2	that a violation has occurred.
.3	2. Charges filed under this Chapter must be filed within three years after the 4	occurrence of the alleged violation. To the extent permitted by law, the applicable statute of
.5	limitations for civil actions is tolled during the Department's investigation and any administrative
6	enforcement proceeding under this Chapter based upon the same facts.
7	3. The Director shall cause to be served or mailed by certified mail, return
8	receipt requested, a copy of the charge on the respondent within 20 days after the filing of the respondent wishes to submit. The Director shall have authority to sign and issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of evidence including but not limited to books, records, correspondence or documents in the possession or under the control of the employer subpoenaed.
9	charge and shall promptly make an investigation thereof.

E. Findings of Fact and Notice of Violation. Except when there is an agreed upon settlement, the results of the investigation shall be reduced to written findings of fact, and a written determination shall be made by the Director that a violation of this Chapter has or has not occurred based on a preponderance of the evidence before the Director. The findings of fact shall be furnished promptly to the respondent and charging or aggrieved party in the form of a notice of violation or a written determination of no violation shown.

F. Remedies

1. An employer who willfully violates the notice and posting requirements of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $125 for the first violation and $250 for subsequent violations.

2. It is unlawful for any employer to willfully resist, prevent, impede or interfere with the Director in the performance of his or her duties under this Chapter. Conduct made unlawful by this subsection 14.19.060.F.2 constitutes a violation, and any employer who commits such a violation may be punished by a civil penalty of not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000.

3. For a first time violation of this Chapter, the Director, in addition to the remedies provided in subsections 14.19.060.F.1, 14.19.060.F.2, and 14.19.060.F.4 of this Section, shall issue a warning and may assess a civil penalty of up to $500 for improper payment of minimum wage and minimum compensation as defined in this Chapter. For subsequent violations, the Director, in addition to the remedies provided in subsections 14.19.060.F.1, 14.19.060.F.2, and 14.19.060.F.4 of this Section, shall assess a civil penalty for improper payment of minimum wage and minimum compensation as defined in this Chapter. A civil penalty for a second time violation of this Chapter shall be not greater than $1,000 per employee or an amount equal to ten percent of the total amount of unpaid wages, whichever is greater. A civil penalty for a third violation of this Chapter shall not be greater than $5,000 per employee or an amount equal to ten percent of the total amount of unpaid wages, whichever is greater. The maximum civil penalty for a violation of this chapter shall be $20,000 per employee.

4. Within sixty days of a notice of violation of this Chapter, the Director shall confer with the parties and determine an appropriate remedy, which shall include full payment of unpaid wages and accrued interest due to the charging or aggrieved party under the terms of this Chapter and any civil penalties provided in the Section. Such remedy shall be reduced to writing in an order of the Director.

G. Appeal Period and Failure to Respond

An employer may appeal the Director's order, including all remedies issued pursuant to subsection 14.19.060.F of this Section, by requesting a contested hearing before the Hearing Examiner in writing within 15 days of service. If an employer fails to appeal the Director's order within 15 days of service, the Director's order shall be final and enforceable. When the last day of the appeal period so computed is a Saturday, Sunday, or federal or City holiday, the period shall run until 5:00 p.m. on the next business day.

H. Appeal Procedure and Failure to Appear

1. Contested hearings shall be conducted pursuant to the procedures for hearing contested cases contained in Section 3.02.090 and the rules adopted by the Hearing

1	Examiner for hearing contested cases. The Director shall have the burden of proof by a
2	preponderance of the evidence before the Hearing Examiner. Failure to appear for a requested
3	hearing will result in an order being entered finding that the employer cited committed the
4	violation stated in the Director's order. For good cause shown and upon terms the Hearing
5	Examiner deems just, the Hearing Examiner may set aside an order entered upon a failure to
6	appear.
7	2. In all contested cases, the Hearing Examiner shall enter an order
8	affirming, modifying or reversing the Director's order.

3. In the event an employer fails to comply with any final order issued by the Director or the Hearing Examiner, the Director shall refer the matter to the City Attorney for the filing of a civil action in superior court, the Seattle Municipal Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction to enforce such order.))

14.19.065 ((Records)) Violation

((A. Employers shall allow the Agency access to the records required to be kept under subsection 4.19.060.C.3 to investigate potential violations and to monitor compliance with the requirements of this Chapter 14.19.

B. Employers in any case closed by the Agency shall allow the Office of City

Auditor access to such records to permit the Office of City Auditor to evaluate the Agency's enforcement efforts. Before requesting records from such a respondent, the Office of City

Auditor shall first consult the Agency's respondent records on file and determine if additional records are necessary.))

The failure of any respondent to comply with any requirement imposed on the respondent under this Chapter 14.19 is a violation.

14.19.070 ((Severability)) Investigation

((The provisions of this Chapter are declared to be separate and severable. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section, subsection or portion of this Chapter, or the application thereof to any employer, employee, or circumstance, is held to be invalid, it shall not affect the validity of the remainder of this Chapter, or the validity of its application to other persons or circumstances.))

The Agency shall have the power to investigate any violations of this Chapter 14.19 by any respondent. The Agency may initiate an investigation pursuant to rules issued by the Director including, but not limited to, situations when the Director has reason to believe that a violation has occurred or will occur, or when circumstances show that violations are likely to occur within a class of businesses because the workforce contains significant numbers of workers who are vulnerable to violations of this Chapter 14.19 or the workforce is unlikely to volunteer information regarding such violations. An investigation may also be initiated through the receipt by the Agency of a report or complaint filed by an employee or any other person.

- B. An employee or other person may report to the Agency any suspected violation of this Chapter 14.19. The Agency shall encourage reporting pursuant to this Section 14.19.070 by taking the following measures:
- The Agency shall keep confidential, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable laws, the name and other identifying information of the employee or person reporting

1	the violation. However, with the authorization of such person, the Agency may disclose the
2	employee's or person's name and identifying information as necessary to enforce this Chapter
3	14.19 or for other appropriate purposes.
4	2. An employer must post or otherwise notify its employees that the Agency
5	is conducting an investigation, using a form provided by the Agency and displaying it on-site, in
6	a conspicuous and accessible location, and in English and the primary language of the
7	employee(s) at the particular workplace. If display of the form is not feasible, including
8	situations when the employee works remotely or does not have a regular workplace, employers
9	may provide the form on an individual basis in the employee's primary language in physical or
10	electronic format that is reasonably conspicuous and accessible.
11	3. The Agency may certify the eligibility of eligible persons for "U" Visas
12	under the provisions of 8 U.S.C. § 1184.p and 8 U.S.C. § 1101.a.15.U. This certification is
13	subject to applicable federal law and regulations, and rules issued by the Director.
14	C. The Agency's investigation must commence within three years of the alleged
15	violation. To the extent permitted by law, the applicable statute of limitations for civil actions is
16	tolled during any investigation under this Chapter 14.19 and any administrative enforcement
17	proceeding under this Chapter 14.19 based upon the same facts. For purposes of this Chapter
18	14.19:
19	1. The Agency's investigation begins on the earlier date of when the Agency
20	receives a complaint from a person under this Chapter 14.19, or the Agency opens an
21	investigation under this Chapter 14.19.
22	2. The Agency's investigation ends when the Agency issues a final order
	1

- expired; or the Agency notifies the respondent in writing that the investigation has been otherwise resolved.
- D. The Agency's investigation shall be conducted in an objective and impartial manner.
- E. The Director may apply by affidavit or declaration in the form allowed under RCW 9A.72.085 to the Hearing Examiner for the issuance of subpoenas requiring an employer to produce the records identified in subsection 14.19.050.A, or for the attendance and testimony of witnesses, or for the production of documents required to be retained under subsection 14.19.050.A or any other document relevant to the issue of whether any employee or group of employees has been or is afforded proper amounts of compensation under this Chapter 14.19 and/or to whether an employer has violated any provision of this Chapter 14.19. The Hearing Examiner shall conduct the review without hearing as soon as practicable and shall issue subpoenas upon a showing that there is reason to believe that a violation has occurred if a complaint has been filed with the Agency, or that circumstances show that violations are likely to occur within a class of businesses because the workforce contains significant numbers of workers who are vulnerable to violations of this Chapter 14.19 or the workforce is unlikely to volunteer information regarding such violations.
- F. An employer that fails to comply with the terms of any subpoena issued under subsection 14.19.070. E. in an investigation by the Agency under this Chapter 14.19 prior to the issuance of a Director's Order issued pursuant to subsection 14.19.075.C may not use such records in any appeal to challenge the correctness of any determination by the Agency of damages owed or penalties assessed.

G. In addition to other remedies, the Director may refer any subpoena issued under subsection 14.19.070.E to the City Attorney to seek a court order to enforce any subpoena.

H. Where the Director has reason to believe that a violation has occurred, the Director may order any appropriate temporary or interim relief to mitigate the violation or maintain the status quo pending completion of a full investigation or hearing, including but not limited to a deposit of funds or bond sufficient to satisfy a good-faith estimate of wages, interest, damages and penalties due. A respondent may appeal any such order in accordance with

Section 58. A new Section 14.19.075 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.19.075 Findings of fact and determination

- A. Except when there is an agreed upon settlement, the Director shall issue a written determination with findings of fact resulting from the investigation and statement of whether a violation of this Chapter 14.19 has or has not occurred based on a preponderance of the evidence before the Director.
- B. If the Director determines that there is no violation of this Chapter 14.19, the Director shall issue a "Determination of No Violation" with notice of an employee or other person's right to appeal the decision, subject to the rules of the Director.
- C. If the Director determines that a violation of this Chapter 14.19 has occurred, the Director shall issue a "Director's Order" that shall include a notice of violation identifying the violation or violations. The Director's Order shall state with specificity the amounts due under this Chapter 14.19 for each violation, including payment of unpaid wages, liquidated damages, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, fines, and interest pursuant to Section 14.19.080. The Director's Order may specify that civil penalties and fines due to the Agency can be mitigated for respondent's timely payment of remedy due to an aggrieved party under subsection 14.19.080.A.2. The Director's Order may direct the respondent to take such corrective action as is necessary to comply with the requirements of this Chapter 14.19, including, but not limited to, monitored compliance for a reasonable time period. The Director's Order shall include notice of the respondent's right to appeal the decision, pursuant to subsection 14.19.085.

D. If the Director has a reasonable belief that a notice of violation for this Chapter 14.19 also indicates a violation of Section 12A.08.060, the Director may refer the complaint to the Seattle Police Department for further investigation or to the City Attorney's Office for prosecution.

14.19.080 ((Other Legal Requirements)) Remedies

((This Chapter provides minimum wage and minimum compensation requirements and shall not be construed to preempt, limit, or otherwise affect the applicability of any other law, regulation, requirement, policy, or standard that provides for greater wages or compensation; and nothing in this Chapter shall be interpreted or applied so as to create any power or duty in conflict with federal or state law. Nor shall this Chapter be construed to preclude any person aggrieved from seeking judicial review of any final administrative decision or order made under this Chapter affecting such person.))

A. The payment of unpaid wages, liquidated damages, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, fines, and interest provided under this Chapter 14.19 are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of any other available remedies, penalties, fines, and procedures.

- 1. Effective January 1, 2017, the amounts of all civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, and fines contained in this Section 14.19.080 shall be increased annually to reflect the rate of inflation and calculated to the nearest cent on January 1 of each year thereafter. The Agency shall determine the amounts and file a schedule of such amounts with the City Clerk.
- 2. If there is a remedy due to an aggrieved party, the Director may waive the total amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent paid the full remedy due to the aggrieved party within ten days of service of the Director's Order. The Director may waive half the amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent paid the full remedy due to the aggrieved party within 15 days of service of the Director's Order. The Director shall not waive any amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent has not paid the full remedy due to the aggrieved party after 15 days of service of the Director's Order.
- 3. When determining the amount of liquidated damages, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, and fines due under this Section 14.19.080, for a Settlement Agreement or Director's Order, including but not limited to the mitigation of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency for timely payment of remedy due to an aggrieved party under subsection 14.19.080.A.2, the Director shall consider the total amount of unpaid wages, liquidated damages, penalties, fines, and interest due; the nature and persistence of the violations; the extent of the respondent's culpability; the substantive or technical nature of the violations;

the size, revenue, and human resources capacity of the respondent; the circumstances of each situation; the amounts of penalties in similar situations; and other factors pursuant to rules issued by the Director.

B. A respondent found to be in violation of this Chapter 14.19 shall be liable for full payment of unpaid wages plus interest in favor of the aggrieved party under the terms of this Chapter 14.19 and other equitable relief. For a first violation of this Chapter 14.19, the Director may assess liquidated damages in an additional amount of up to twice the unpaid wages. For subsequent violations of this Chapter 14.19, the Director shall assess an amount of liquidated damages in an additional amount of twice the unpaid wages. If the violation is ongoing when the Agency receives a complaint or opens an investigation, the Director may order payment of amounts that accrue after receipt of the complaint or after the investigation opens and before the date of the Director's Order. Interest shall accrue from the date the unpaid wages were first due at 12 percent per annum, or the maximum rate permitted under RCW 19.52.020. For purposes of this Section 14.19.080, a violation is a subsequent violation if at least one Director's Order has issued against the respondent in the ten years preceding the date of the violation; otherwise, it is a first violation.

C. A respondent found to be in violation of Section 14.19.080 for retaliation shall be subject to any appropriate relief at law or equity including but not limited to reinstatement of the aggrieved party, front pay in lieu of reinstatement with full payment of unpaid wages plus interest in favor of the aggrieved party under the terms of this Chapter 14.19, and liquidated damages in an additional amount of up to twice the unpaid wages. The Director also shall order the imposition of a penalty payable to the aggrieved party of up to $5,000.

1	D. A respondent who willfully violates the notice and posting requirements of
2	Section 14.19.045 shall be subject to a civil penalty of $750 for the first violation and $1,000 for
3	subsequent violations.
4	E. A respondent who willfully hinders, prevents, impedes, or interferes with the
5	Director or Hearing Examiner in the performance of their duties under this Chapter 14.19 shall
6	be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000.
7	F. For a first violation of this Chapter 14.19, the Director may assess a civil penalty
8	of up to $500 per aggrieved party. For a second violation of this Chapter 14.19, the Director shall
9	assess a civil penalty of up to $1,000 per aggrieved party, or an amount equal to ten percent of
10	the total amount of unpaid wages, whichever is greater. For a third or any subsequent violation of
11	this Chapter 14.19, the Director shall assess a civil penalty of up to $5,000 per aggrieved party,
12	or an amount equal to ten percent of the total amount of unpaid wages, whichever is greater. The
13	maximum civil penalty for a violation of this Chapter 14.19 shall be $20,000 per aggrieved party.
14	or an amount equal to ten percent of the total amount of unpaid wages, whichever is greater. For
15	purposes of this Section 14.19.080, a violation is a second, third, or subsequent violation if the
16	respondent has been a party to one, two, or more than two Settlement Agreements, respectively,
17	stipulating that a violation has occurred; and/or one, two, or more than two Director's Orders,
18	respectively, have issued against the respondent in the ten years preceding the date of the
19	violation; otherwise, it is a first violation.
21	forth below:
İ	Violation Fine
	Failure to provide employees with written $500
ļ

notice of rights under subsection 14.19.045.B	· ·
Failure to maintain payroll records for three	$500 per missing record years under subsection 14.19.050.A Failure to comply with prohibitions against	$1,000 per aggrieved party retaliation for exercising rights protected under
Section 14.19.055	·
Failure to provide notice of investigation to	$500 employees under subsection 14.19.070.B.2
Failure to provide notice of failure to comply	$500
with final order to the public under Section

The fine amounts shall be increased cumulatively by 50 percent of the fine for each preceding violation for each subsequent violation of the same provision by the same employer or person within a ten-year period. The maximum amount that may be imposed in fines in any one year period for each type of violation listed above is $5,000 unless a fine for retaliation is issued, in which case the maximum amount is $20,000.

- H. In addition to the unpaid wages, penalties, fines, liquidated damages, and interest, the Agency may assess against the respondent in favor of the City reasonable costs incurred in enforcing this Chapter 14.19, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees.
- I. An employer that is the subject of a final order for which all appeal rights have been exhausted shall not be permitted to bid, or have a bid considered, on any City contract until such amounts due under the final order have been paid in full to the Director. If an employer is

2	subcontractor shall not be allowed to bid on any City contract for two years. This subsection
3	14.19.080.I shall be construed to provide grounds for debarment separate from, and in addition
4	to, those contained in Chapter 20.70 and shall not be governed by that chapter provided that
5	nothing in this subsection 14.16.080.I shall be construed to limit the application of Chapter
6	20.70. The Director shall notify the Director of Finance and Administrative Services of all
7	employers subject to debarment under this subsection 14.19.080.I.
8	Section 60. A new Section 14.19.085 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
9	14.19.085 Appeal period and failure to respond
10	A. An employee or other person who claims an injury as a result of an alleged
11	violation of this Chapter 14.19 may appeal the Determination of No Violation Shown, pursuant
12	to the rules of the Director.
13	B. A respondent may appeal the Director's Order, including all remedies issued
14	pursuant to Section 14.19.080, by requesting a contested hearing before the Hearing Examiner in
15	writing within 15 days of service of the Director's Order. If a respondent fails to appeal the
16	Director's Order within 15 days of service, the Director's Order shall be final. If the last day of
17	the appeal period so computed is a Saturday, Sunday, or federal or City holiday, the appeal
18	period shall run until 5 p.m. on the next business day.
19	Section 61. A new Section 14.19.090 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
20	14.19.090 Appeal procedure and failure to appear
21	A. Contested hearings shall be conducted pursuant to the procedures for hearing
22	contested cases contained in Section 3.02.090 and the rules adopted by the Hearing Examiner for hearing contested cases. The review shall be conducted de novo and the Director shall have the

1	burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the violation or violations occurred.
2	Upon establishing such proof, the remedies and penalties imposed by the Director shall be
3	upheld unless it is shown that the Director abused discretion. Failure to appear for a contested
4	hearing shall result in an order being entered finding that the respondent committed the violation
5	stated in the Director's Order. For good cause shown and upon terms the Hearing Examiner
6	deems just, the Hearing Examiner may set aside an order entered upon a failure to appear.
7	B. In all contested cases, the Hearing Examiner shall enter an order affirming,
8	modifying or reversing the Director's Order.
9	Section 62. A new Section 14.19.095 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
10	14.19.095 Appeal from Hearing Examiner's order
11	A. The respondent may obtain judicial review of the decision of the Hearing
12	Examiner by applying for a Writ of Review in the King County Superior Court within 30 days
13	from the date of the decision in accordance with the procedure set forth in chapter 7.16 RCW,
14	other applicable law, and court rules.
15	B. The decision of the Hearing Examiner shall be final and conclusive unless review
16	is sought in compliance with this Section 14.19.095.
17	Section 63. A new Section 14.19.100 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
18	14.19.100 Failure to comply with final order
19	A. If a respondent fails to comply within 30 days of service of any settlement
20	agreement with the Agency, or with any final order issued by the Director or the Hearing

limited to, the following measures to secure compliance:

- 1. The Director may require the respondent to post public notice of the respondent's failure to comply in a form and manner determined by the Agency.
- 2. The Director may refer the matter to a collection agency. The cost to the City for the collection services will be assessed as costs, at the rate agreed to between the City and the collection agency, and added to the amounts due.
- 3. The Director may refer the matter to the City Attorney for the filing of a civil action in King County Superior Court, the Seattle Municipal Court, or any other court of competent jurisdiction to enforce such order or to collect amounts due. In the alternative, the Director may seek to enforce a Director's Order or a final order of the Hearing Examiner under Section 14.19.105.
- 4. The Director may request that the City's Department of Finance and Administrative Services deny, suspend, refuse to renew, or revoke any business license held or requested by the employer or person until such time as the employer complies with the remedy as defined in the settlement agreement or final order. The City's Department of Finance and Administrative Services shall have the authority to deny, refuse to renew, or revoke any business license in accordance with this subsection 14.19.100.A.4.
- B. No respondent that is the subject of a final order issued under this Chapter 14.19 shall quit business, sell out, exchange, convey, or otherwise dispose of the respondent's business or stock of goods without first notifying the Agency and without first notifying the respondent's successor of the amounts owed under the final order at least three business days prior to such transaction. At the time the respondent quits business, or sells out, exchanges, or otherwise disposes of the respondent's business or stock of goods, the full amount of the remedy, as defined in a final order issued by the Director or the Hearing Examiner, shall become immediately due and payable. If the amount due under the final order is not paid by respondent within ten days from the date of such sale, exchange, conveyance, or disposal, the successor shall become liable for the payment of the amount due, provided that the successor has actual knowledge of the order and the amounts due or has prompt, reasonable, and effective means of accessing and verifying the fact and amount of the order and the amounts due. The successor shall withhold from the purchase price a sum sufficient to pay the amount of the full remedy. When the successor makes such payment, that payment shall be deemed a payment upon the purchase price in the amount paid, and if such payment is greater in amount than the purchase price the amount of the difference shall become a debt due such successor from the employer.

Section 64. A new Section 14.19.105 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.19.105 Debt owed The City of Seattle

A. All monetary amounts due under the Director's Order shall be a debt owed to the City and may be collected in the same manner as any other debt in like amount, which remedy shall be in addition to all other existing remedies, provided that amounts collected by the City for unpaid wages, liquidated damages, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, or front pay shall be held in trust by the City for the aggrieved party and, once collected by the City, shall be paid by the City to the aggrieved party.

B. If a respondent fails to appeal a Director's Order to the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.19.085.B, the Director's Order shall be final, and the Director may petition the Seattle Municipal Court to enforce the Director's Order by entering judgment in favor of the City finding that the respondent has failed to exhaust its administrative remedies and that all amounts and relief contained in the order are due. The Director's Order shall constitute prima facie evidence that a violation occurred and shall be admissible without

- further evidentiary foundation. Any certifications or declarations authorized under RCW

  9A.72.085 containing evidence that the respondent has failed to comply with the order or any parts thereof, and is therefore in default, or that the respondent has failed to appeal the Director's

  Order to the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.19.085.B, and therefore has failed to exhaust the respondent's administrative remedies, shall also be admissible without further evidentiary foundation.

  - C. If a respondent fails to obtain judicial review of an order of the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.19.095.A, the order of the Hearing Examiner shall be final, and the Director may petition the Seattle Municipal Court to enforce the Director's Order by entering judgment in favor of the City for all amounts and relief due under the order of the Hearing Examiner. The order of the Hearing Examiner shall constitute conclusive evidence that the violations contained therein occurred and shall be admissible without further evidentiary foundation. Any certifications or declarations authorized under RCW 9A.72.085 containing evidence that the respondent has failed to comply with the order or any parts thereof, and is therefore in default, or that the respondent has failed to avail itself of judicial review in accordance with subsection 14.19.095.A shall also be admissible without further evidentiary foundation.
  - D. In considering matters brought under subsections 14.19.105.B and 14.19.105.C, the Municipal Court may include within its judgment all terms, conditions, and remedies contained in the Director's Order or the order of the Hearing Examiner, whichever is applicable, that are consistent with the provisions of this Chapter 14.19.
  - Section 65. A new Section 14.19.110 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.19.110 Private right of action

- B. For purposes of determining employer size for this Section 14.19.110,
- 1. An employee who is not covered by this Chapter 14.19 shall be included in any determination of the size of the employer.
- 2. Employer size for the current calendar year will be calculated based upon the average number of employees who worked for compensation per calendar week during the preceding calendar year for any and all weeks during which at least one employee worked for compensation. For employers that did not have any employees during the previous calendar year, the employer schedule will be calculated based upon the average number of employees who worked for compensation per calendar week during the first 90 calendar days of the current year in which the employer engaged in business.

1	1. Are or were employed by the same employer or employers, whether
2	concurrently or otherwise, at some point during the applicable statute of limitations period,
3	2. Allege one or more violations that raise similar questions as to liability,
4	and
5	3. Seek similar forms of relief.
6	E. For purposes of subsection 14.19.110.D, employees shall not be considered
7	dissimilar solely because their:
8	1. Claims seek damages that differ in amount, or
9	2. Job titles or other means of classifying employees differ in ways that are
10	unrelated to their claims.
11	Section 66. A new Section 14.19.115 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
12	14.19.115 Other legal requirements
13	This Chapter 14.19 provides minimum wage and minimum compensation requirements and shall
14	not be construed to preempt, limit, or otherwise affect the applicability of any other law,
15	regulation, requirement, policy, or standard that provides for greater wages or compensation; and
16	nothing in this Chapter 14.19 shall be interpreted or applied so as to create any power or duty in
17	conflict with federal or state law. Nor shall this Chapter 14.19 be construed to preclude any
18 .	person aggrieved from seeking judicial review of any final administrative decision or order made
19	under this Chapter 14.19 affecting such person.
20	Section 67. A new Section 14.19.120 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
21	14.19.120 Severability
22	The provisions of this Chapter 14.19 are declared to be separate and severable. If any clause,
23	sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section, subsection, or portion of this Chapter 14.19, or the

	Karina Bull/Patricia Lee OLS 2015 Wage Theft Prevention ORD

1	application thereof to any employer, employee, or circumstance, is held to be invalid, it shall not
2	affect the validity of the remainder of this Chapter 14.19, or the validity of its application to
3	other persons or circumstances.
4	Section 68. A new Section 14.20.005 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
5	14.20.005 Short title
6	This Chapter 14.20 shall constitute the "Wage Theft Ordinance" and may be cited as such.
7	Section 69. Section 14.20.010 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance
8	124645, is amended as follows:
9	14.20.010 Definitions
10	For ((the)) purposes of this Chapter 14.20:
11	"Adverse action" means denying a job or promotion, demoting, terminating, failing to
12	rehire after a seasonal interruption of work, threatening, penalizing, retaliating, engaging in
13	unfair immigration-related practices, filing a false report with a government agency, changing an
14	employee's status to a nonemployee, or otherwise discriminating against any person for any
15	reason prohibited by Section 14.20.035. "Adverse action" for an employee may involve any
16	aspect of employment, including pay, work hours, responsibilities, or other material change in
17	the terms and condition of employment;
18	"Agency" means the Office for Civil Rights and any division therein;
19	"Aggrieved party" means an employee or other person who suffers tangible or intangible
20	harm due to an employer or other person's violation of this Chapter 14.20;
21	"City" means the City of Seattle;

"Compensation" means payment owed to an employee by reason of employment

rest breaks, promised or legislatively-required paid leave, and reimbursement for employer expenses. For reimbursement for employer expenses, an employer shall indemnify the employee for all necessary expenditures or losses incurred by the employee in direct consequence of the discharge of the employee's duties, or of the employee's obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying the directions, believed them to be unlawful;

"Director" means the Division Director of the Office of Labor Standards within the Office for Civil Rights or the Division Director's designee;

"Employ" means to suffer or permit to work;

"Employee" means (("employee," as defined under Section 12A.28.200. Employee does not include individuals performing services under a work study agreement;)) any individual employed by an employer, including but not limited to full-time employees, part-time employees, and temporary workers. An employer bears the burden of proof that the individual is, as a matter of economic reality, in business for oneself rather than dependent upon the alleged employer.

"Employer" ((means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, business trust, or any person or group of persons acting directly or indirectly in the interest of an employer in relation to an employee;)) means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, business trust, or any entity, person or group of persons, or a successor thereof, that employs another person and includes any such entity or person acting directly or indirectly in the interest of an employer in relation to an employee. More than one entity may be the "employer" if employment by one employer is not completely disassociated from employment by the other employer;

1	"Front pay" means the compensation the employee would earn or would have earned i
2	reinstated to the employee's former position;
3	"Hearing Examiner" means the official appointed by the City Council and designated as
4	the Hearing Examiner, or that person's designee (e.g. Deputy Hearing Examiner, Hearing
5	Examiner Pro Tem);
6	"Pay day" means a specific day or date established by the employer on which wages are
7	paid for hours worked during a pay period, as defined in WAC 296-126-023 effective as of
8	September 18, 2014;
9	"Payment interval" means the amount of time between established pay days. A payment
10	interval may be daily, weekly, bi-weekly, semi-monthly, or monthly, as defined in WAC 296-
11	126-023 effective as of September 18, 2014;
12	"Pay period" means a defined time frame for which an employee will receive a paycheck.
13	A pay period may be daily, weekly, bi-weekly, semi-monthly, or monthly, as defined in WAC
14	296-126-023 effective as of September 18, 2014;
15	"Piece-rate" means a price paid per unit of work;
16	"Rate of inflation" means 100 percent of the annual average growth rate of the bi-
17	monthly Seattle-Tacoma-Bremerton Area Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and
18	Clerical Workers, termed CPI-W, for the 12 month period ending in August, provided that the
19	percentage increase shall not be less than zero;
20	"Respondent" means an employer or any person who is alleged or found to have
21	committed a violation of this Chapter 14.20;
22	"Successor" means any person to whom an employer quitting, selling out, exchanging, or
23	disposing of a business sells or otherwise conveys in bulk and not in the ordinary course of the employer's business, a major part of the property, whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, of the employer's business. For purposes of this definition, "person" means an individual, receiver, administrator, executor, assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, trust, estate, firm, corporation, business trust, partnership, limited liability partnership, company, joint stock company, limited liability company, association, joint venture, or any other legal or commercial entity;

"Tip" means a verifiable sum to be presented by a customer as a gift or gratuity in recognition of some service performed for the customer by the employee receiving the tip;

(("Wage" means compensation due to an employee by reason of employment, payable in legal tender of the United States or checks on banks convertible into cash on demand at full face value, subject to such deductions, charges, or allowances as may be permitted by rules of the Director. Commissions, piece-rate, and bonuses are included in wages. Tips and employer payments toward a medical benefits plan do not constitute wages for purposes of Chapter 14.20.))

Section 70. A new Section 14.20.015 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.20.015 Employment in Seattle

- A. Employees are covered by this Chapter 14.20 for each hour worked within the geographic boundaries of the City.
- B. An employee who is typically based outside the City and performs work in the City on an occasional basis is covered by this Chapter 14.20 in a two-week period only if the employee performs more than two hours of work for an employer within the City during that two-week period.

- 1. To track time of employees who work in the City on an occasional basis, employers must use consecutive two-week periods in sequence as they occur. Employers shall not skip or shift two-week periods.
- 2. Once an employee who works in the City on an occasional basis performs more than two hours of work for an employer within the City during a two-week period, payment for all time worked in the City during that two-week period shall be made in compliance with the requirements of this Chapter 14.20.
- 3. Time spent in the City solely for the purpose of travelling through the City from a point of origin outside the City to a destination outside the City with no employment-related or commercial stops in the City except for refueling or the employee's personal meals or errands, is not covered by this Chapter 14.20.
- Section 71. Section 14.20.020 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance 124645, is amended as follows:

14.20.020 ((Employment in Seattle)) Compensation requirements

- ((A. Employees are covered by Chapter 14.20 for each hour worked within the geographic boundaries of Seattle, provided that an employee who performs work in Seattle on an occasional basis is covered by Chapter 14.20 in a two-week period only if the employee performs more than two hours of work for an employer within Seattle during that two-week period.
- B. Employees are not covered by Chapter 14.20 for time spent in Seattle solely for the purpose of travelling through Seattle from a point of origin outside Seattle to a destination outside Seattle, with no employment related or commercial stops in Seattle except for refueling or the employee's personal meal or errands.))

1 An employer shall pay

An employer shall pay all compensation owed to an employee by reason of employment on an established regular pay day at no longer than monthly payment intervals.

Section 72. A new Section 14.20.025 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.20.025 Notice and posting

- A. The Agency shall create and distribute a poster giving notice of the rights afforded by Chapter 14.20. The Agency shall create and distribute the poster in English, Spanish, and any other languages that are necessary for employers to comply with subsection 14.20.025.B. The poster shall give notice of:
- 1. The right to be paid all compensation owed by reason of employment on an established regular pay day at no longer than monthly intervals as guaranteed under the terms of this Chapter 14.20;
- 2. The right to be protected from retaliation for exercising in good faith the rights protected by this Chapter 14.20; and
- 3. The right to file a complaint with the Agency or bring a civil action for violation of the requirements of this Chapter 14.20, including an employer's failure to pay all compensation owed by reason of employment, and an employer or other person's retaliation against an employee or other person for engaging in an activity protected by this Chapter 14.20.
- B. Employers shall display the poster in a conspicuous and accessible place at any workplace or job site where any of their employees work. Employers shall display the poster in English and in the primary language of the employee(s) at the particular workplace. If display of the poster in not feasible, including situations when the employee works remotely or does not have a regular workplace or job site, employers may provide the poster on an individual basis in

- an employee's primary language in physical or electronic format that is reasonably conspicuous and accessible.
- C. The Agency shall create and distribute a model notice of employment information in English, Spanish and other languages that are necessary for employers to comply with subsection 14.20.025.D.
- D. Employers shall give written notice of employment information to employees that contains items listed in subsections 14.20.025.D.1 through 14.20.025.D.7 in English and in the primary language of the employee(s) receiving the written information. Employers shall give this written notice at time of hire and before any change to such employment information, or as soon as practicable for retroactive changes to such employment information, pursuant to rules issued by the Director. Effective April 1, 2016, employers shall give this written notice to all employees who work for the employer as of that date and in the future. If an employer fails to give this written notice, the failure shall constitute evidence weighing against the credibility of the employer's testimony regarding the agreed-upon rate of pay.
- 1. Name of employer and any trade ("doing business as") names used by the employer;
- 2. Physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business and, if different, a mailing address;
  - 3. Telephone number and, if applicable, email address of the employer;
- 4. Employee's rate or rates of pay, and, if applicable, eligibility to earn an overtime rate or rates of pay;
- 5. Employer's tip policy, with an explanation of any tip sharing, pooling, or allocation policies;

Karina Bull/Patricia Lee

1	A. Each employer shall retain payroll records that document each employee's name,
2	address, occupation, dates of employment, rate or rates of pay, amount paid each pay period, and
3	the hours worked. Additionally, for employees covered by Chapter 14.19, employers shall
4	maintain payroll records of each employee's date of birth if under 18 years of age, time of day
5	and day of the week that each employee's work week begins, hours worked each day and each
, 6	work week, total daily or weekly earnings at straight-time rate, total overtime earnings for weeks
7	in which overtime was worked, date of payment and the dates of pay period covered, total
8	payment for each pay period, total tips for each pay period if applicable, all additions or
9	deductions for each pay period and a record of the additions or deductions from pay. Pursuant to
10	rules issued by the Director, the Agency may require employers to retain other information for
11	payroll records of employees that is material and necessary to effectuate the terms of this
12	Chapter 14.20. Such records shall be retained for a period of three years from the date such
13	hours were worked.
14	B. If an employer fails to retain adequate records required under subsection
15	14.20.030.A, there shall be a presumption, rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence, that the
16	employer violated this Chapter 14.20 for the periods and for each employee for whom records
17	were not retained.
18	C. Respondents in any case closed by the Agency shall allow the Office of City
19	Auditor access to such records to permit the Office of City Auditor to evaluate the Agency's
20	enforcement efforts. Before requesting records from such a respondent, the Office of City
21	Auditor shall first consult the Agency's respondent records on file and determine if additional records are necessary. The City Auditor may apply by affidavit or declaration in the form

this subsection 14.20.030.C. The Hearing Examiner shall issue such subpoenas upon a showing that the records are required to fulfill the purpose of this subsection 14.20.030.C.

Section 74. A new Section 14.20.035 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.20.035 Retaliation prohibited

- A. No employer or any other person shall interfere with, restrain, deny, or attempt to deny the exercise of any right protected under this Chapter 14.20.
- B. No employer or any other person shall take any adverse action against any person because the person has exercised in good faith the rights protected under this Chapter 14.20. Such rights include but are not limited to the right to make inquiries about the rights protected under this Chapter 14.20; the right to inform others about their rights under this Chapter 14.20; the right to inform the person's employer, union, or similar organization, and/or the person's legal counsel or any other person about an alleged violation of this Chapter 14.20; the right to file an oral or written complaint with the Agency or bring a civil action for an alleged violation of this Chapter 14.20; the right to cooperate with the Agency in its investigations of this Chapter 14.20; the right to testify in a proceeding under or related to this Chapter 14.20; the right to refuse to participate in an activity that would result in a violation of city, state or federal law; and the right to oppose any policy, practice, or act that is unlawful under this Chapter 14.20.
- C. No employer or any other person shall communicate to a person exercising rights protected under this Section14.20.035, directly or indirectly the willingness to inform a government employee that the person is not lawfully in the United States, or to report, or to make an implied or express assertion of a willingness to report, suspected citizenship or immigration status of an employee or a family member of the employee to a federal, state, or local agency because the employee has exercised a right under this Chapter 14.20.

- D. It shall be considered a rebuttable presumption of retaliation if an employer or any other person takes an adverse action against a person within 90 days of the person's exercise of rights protected in this Section 14.20.035. However, in the case of seasonal work that ended before the close of the 90 day period, the presumption also applies if the employer fails to rehire a former employee at the next opportunity for work in the same position. The employer may rebut the presumption with clear and convincing evidence that the adverse action was taken for a permissible purpose.
- E. Standard of proof. Proof of retaliation under this Section 14.20.035 shall be sufficient upon a showing that an employer or any other person has taken an adverse action against a person and the person's exercise of rights protected in Section 14.20.035 was a motivating factor in the adverse action, unless the employer can prove that the action would have been taken in the absence of such protected activity.
- F. The protections afforded under this Section 14.20.035 shall apply to any person who mistakenly but in good faith alleges violations of this Chapter 14.20.
- G. A complaint or other communication by any person triggers the protections of this Section 14.20.035 regardless of whether the complaint or communication is in writing or makes explicit reference to this Chapter 14.20.
- Section 75. Section 14.20.040 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance 124645, is amended as follows:

14.20.040 ((Notice and posting)) Enforcement power and duties

((A. Employers shall comply with the notice requirements of this Section 14.20.040 by providing written information to employees in English, Spanish, and any other language commonly spoken by employees at the particular workplace. Employers may choose a

D. Employers shall provide written notice to employees that they are entitled to the wage and tip compensation rights defined in Chapter 14.20; that retaliation against persons for their exercise of rights defined in Chapter 14.20 is prohibited; and that each employee has the right to file an administrative charge under Chapter 14.20 if the employer fails to comply with the wage and tip compensation rights defined in Chapter 14.20 or if the employer takes adverse action against a person in retaliation for engaging in activity protected under Chapter 14.20.

- 1. The Agency shall create and make available to employers a poster that contains the information required under this subsection 14.20.040.D for their use in complying with this subsection 14.20.040.D. The poster shall be printed in English, Spanish, and any other languages that the Agency determines are needed to notify employees of their rights under Chapter 14.20.
- 2. Employers may comply with this subsection 14.20.040.D by displaying the Agency's poster in each establishment where such employees are employed.
- 3. Employers may also comply with this subsection 14.20.040.D by including the poster in employee handbooks or other written guidance to employees; distributing a copy of the poster to each new employee upon hiring; or duplicating all of the poster's text for use in another format (e.g. employee letter or employee accessible online system).
- 4. Employers may choose whether notice in this subsection is physical or electronic, but in either case the notice shall be reasonably conspicuous and accessible to all employees.))
- A. The Agency shall have the power to investigate violations of this Chapter 14.20, as defined herein, and shall have such powers and duties in the performance of these functions as

1	are defined in this Chapter 14.20 and otherwise necessary and proper in the performance of the
2	same and provided for by law.
3	B. The Agency shall be authorized to coordinate implementation and enforcement of
4	this Chapter 14.20 and shall promulgate appropriate guidelines or rules for such purposes.
5	C. The Director of the Agency is authorized and directed to promulgate rules
6	consistent with this Chapter 14.20 and the Administrative Code. Any guidelines or rules
7	promulgated by the Director shall have the force and effect of law and may be relied on by
8	employers, employees, and other parties to determine their rights and responsibilities under this
9	Chapter 14.20.
10	Section 76. A new Section 14.20.045 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
11	14.20.045 Violation
12	The failure of any respondent to comply with any requirement imposed on the respondent
13	under this Chapter 14.20 is a violation.
14	Section 77. Section 14.20.050 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance
15	124809, is amended as follows:
16	14.20.050 ((Records)) Investigation
17	((A. For a period of three years, employers shall retain payroll records pertaining to 5	records are necessary.

6	B. If an issue arises as to an employee's entitlement to wage and tip compensation
7	under this Chapter 14.20, if the employer does not maintain or retain adequate payroll records, or
8	does not allow the Agency reasonable access to such records, there shall be a presumption,
9	rebuttable by clear and convincing evidence, that the employer violated this Chapter 14.20.))
10	A. The Agency shall have the power to investigate any violations of this Chapter
11	14.20 by any respondent. The Agency may initiate an investigation pursuant to rules issued by
12	the Director including, but not limited to, situations when the Director has reason to believe that
13	a violation has occurred or will occur, or when circumstances show that violations are likely to
14	occur within a class of businesses because the workforce contains significant numbers of
15	workers who are vulnerable to violations of this Chapter 14.20 or the workforce is unlikely to
16	volunteer information regarding such violations. An investigation may also be initiated through
17	the receipt by the Agency of a report or complaint filed by an employee or any other person.
18	B. An employee or other person may report to the Agency any suspected violation of 19	this Chapter 14.20. The Agency shall encourage reporting pursuant to this Section 14.20.050 by
20	taking the following measures:
21	1. The Agency shall keep confidential, to the maximum extent permitted by
22	applicable laws, the name and other identifying information of the employee or person reporting

1	employee's or person's name and identifying information as necessary to enforce this Chapter
2	14.20 or for other appropriate purposes.
3	2. An employer must post or otherwise notify its employees that the Agency
4	is conducting an investigation, using a form provided by the Agency and displaying it on-site, in
5	a conspicuous and accessible location, and in English and the primary language spoken by the
6	employee(s) at the particular workplace. If display of the form is not feasible, including
7	situations when the employee works remotely or does not have a regular workplace, employers
8	may provide the form on an individual basis in physical or electronic format that is reasonably
9	conspicuous and accessible.
10	3. The Agency may certify the eligibility of eligible persons for "U" Visas
11	under the provisions of 8 U.S.C. § 1184.p and 8 U.S.C. § 1101.a.15.U. This certification is
12	subject to applicable federal law and regulations, and rules issued by the Director.
13	C. The Agency's investigation must commence within three years of the alleged
14	violation. To the extent permitted by law, the applicable statute of limitations for civil actions is
15	tolled during any investigation under this Chapter 14.20 and any administrative enforcement
16	proceeding under this Chapter 14.20 based upon the same facts. For purposes of this Chapter
17	14.20:
18	1. The Agency's investigation begins on the earlier date of when the Agency
19	receives a complaint from a person under this Chapter 14.20, or the Agency opens an
20	investigation under this Chapter 14.20.
21	2. The Agency's investigation ends when the Agency issues a final order
22	concluding the matter and any appeals have been exhausted; the time to file any appeal has expired; or the Agency notifies the respondent in writing that the investigation has been otherwise resolved.

D. The Agency's investigation shall be conducted in an objective and impartial manner.

E. The Director may apply by affidavit or declaration in the form allowed under RCW 9A.72.085 to the Hearing Examiner for the issuance of subpoenas requiring an employer to produce the records identified in subsection 14.20.030.A, or for the attendance and testimony of witnesses, or for the production of documents required to be retained under subsection 14.20.030.A, or any other document relevant to the issue of whether any employee or group of employees has been or is afforded proper amounts of compensation under this Chapter 14.20 and/or to whether an employer has violated any provision of this Chapter 14.20. The Hearing Examiner shall conduct the review without hearing as soon as practicable and shall issue subpoenas upon a showing that there is reason to believe that a violation has occurred if a complaint has been filed with the Agency, or that circumstances show that violations are likely to occur within a class of businesses because the workforce contains significant numbers of workers who are vulnerable to violations of this Chapter 14.20 or the workforce is unlikely to volunteer information regarding such violations.

F. An employer that fails to comply with the terms of any subpoena issued under subsection 14.20.050. E. in an investigation by the Agency under this Chapter 14.20 prior to the issuance of a Director's Order issued pursuant to subsection 14.20.055.C may not use such records in any appeal to challenge the correctness of any determination by the Agency of damages owed or penalties assessed.

G. In addition to other remedies, the Director may refer any subpoena issued under subsection 14.20.050.E, to the City Attorney to seek a court order to enforce any subpoena.

H. Where the Director has reason to believe that a violation has occurred, the Director may order any appropriate temporary or interim relief to mitigate the violation or maintain the status quo pending completion of a full investigation or hearing, including but not limited to a deposit of funds or bond sufficient to satisfy a good-faith estimate of compensation, interest, damages and penalties due. A respondent may appeal any such order in accordance with subsection 14.20.065.B.

Section 78. A new Section 14.20.055 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.20.055 Findings of fact and determination

- A. Except when there is an agreed upon settlement, the Director shall issue a written determination with findings of fact resulting from the investigation and statement of whether a violation of this Chapter 14.20 has or has not occurred based on a preponderance of the evidence before the Director.
- B. If the Director determines that there is no violation of this Chapter 14.20, the Director shall issue a "Determination of No Violation" with notice of an employee or other person's right to appeal the decision, subject to the rules of the Director.
- C. If the Director determines that a violation of this Chapter 14.20 has occurred, the Director shall issue a "Director's Order" that shall include a notice of violation identifying the violation or violations. The Director's Order shall state with specificity the amounts due under this Chapter 14.20 for each violation, including payment of unpaid compensation, liquidated damages, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, fines, and interest pursuant to Section 14.20.060. The Director's Order may specify that civil penalties and fines due to the Agency can be mitigated for respondent's timely payment of remedy due to an aggrieved party under subsection 14.20.060.A.2. The Director's Order may direct the respondent to take such corrective action as is necessary to comply with the requirements of this Chapter 14.20, including, but not limited to, monitored compliance for a reasonable time period. The Director's Order shall include notice of the respondent's right to appeal the decision, pursuant to subsection 14.20.065.B.

D. If the Director has a reasonable belief that a notice of violation for this Chapter 14.20 also indicates a violation of Section 12A.08.060, the Director may refer the complaint to the Seattle Police Department for further investigation or to the City Attorney's Office for prosecution.

14.20.060 ((Exercise of rights protected; retaliation prohibited)) Remedies

((A. It shall be a violation for an employer or any other person to interfere with, restrain, deny, or attempt to deny the exercise of any right protected under Chapter 14.20.

B. It shall be a violation for an employer to take adverse action, including but not limited to discharging, threatening, harassing, demoting, penalizing, or in any other manner discriminating or retaliating against any person because the person has exercised in good faith the rights protected under Chapter 14.20. Such rights include but are not limited to the right to make inquiries about the rights protected under Chapter 14.20; the right to file an oral or written complaint with the Agency about any employer's alleged violation of Chapter 14.20; the right to inform an employer, union or similar organization, and/or legal counsel about an employer's alleged violation of Chapter 14.20; the right to cooperate with the Agency in its investigations of alleged violations of Chapter 14.20; the right to oppose any policy, practice, or act that is unlawful under Chapter 14.20; and the right to inform other employees of their potential rights under Chapter 14.20.

C. It shall be a violation for an employer to communicate to a person filing a wage claim, directly or indirectly, explicitly or implicitly, the willingness to inform a government employee that the person is not lawfully in the United States, report or threaten to report suspected citizenship or immigration status of an employee or a family member of the employee to a federal, state, or local agency because the employee has exercised a right under Chapter 14.20.

D. It shall be considered a rebuttable presumption of retaliation if an employer takes an adverse action against a person within 90 days of the person's exercise of rights protected in subsections B and C of this Section 14.20.060.))

A. The payment of unpaid compensation, liquidated damages, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, fines, and interest provided under this Chapter 14.20 are cumulative and are not intended to be exclusive of any other available remedies, penalties, fines, and procedures.

- 1. Effective January 1, 2017, the amounts of all civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, and fines contained in this Section 14.20.060 shall be increased annually to reflect the rate of inflation and calculated to the nearest cent on January 1 of each year thereafter. The Agency shall determine the amounts and file a schedule of such amounts with the City Clerk.
- 2. If there is a remedy due to an aggrieved party, the Director may waive the total amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the Director's Order. The Director may waive half the amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent paid the full remedy due to the aggrieved party within 15 days of service of the Director's Order. The Director shall not waive any amount of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency if the Director determines that the respondent has not paid the full remedy due to the aggrieved party after 15 days of service of the Director's Order.

3. When determining the amount of liquidated damages, civil penalties, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, and fines due under this Section 14.20.060, for a Settlement Agreement or Director's Order, including but not limited to the mitigation of civil penalties and fines due to the Agency for timely payment of remedy due to an aggrieved party under subsection 14.20.060.A.2, the Director shall consider the total amount of unpaid compensation, liquidated damages, penalties, fines, and interest due; the nature and persistence of the violations; the extent of the respondent's culpability, the substantive or technical nature of the violations; the size, revenue, and human resources capacity of the respondent; the circumstances of each situation; the amounts of penalties in similar situations; and other factors pursuant to rules issued by the Director.

B. A respondent found to be in violation of this Chapter 14.20 shall be liable for full payment of unpaid compensation plus interest in favor of the aggrieved party under the terms of this Chapter 14.20, and other equitable relief. For a first violation of this Chapter 14.20, the Director may assess liquidated damages in an additional amount of up to twice the unpaid compensation. For subsequent violations of this Chapter 14.20, the Director shall assess an amount of liquidated damages in an additional amount of twice the unpaid compensation. If the

1	violation is ongoing when the Agency receives a complaint or opens an investigation, the
2	Director may order payment of amounts that accrue after receipt of the complaint or after the
3	investigation opens and before the date of the Director's Order. Interest shall accrue from the
4	date the unpaid compensation were first due at 12 percent per annum, or the maximum rate
5	permitted under RCW 19.52.020. For purposes of establishing a first and subsequent violation
6	for this Section 14.20.060, the violation must have occurred within ten years of the Director's
7	Order.
8 .	C. A respondent found to be in violation of this Chapter 14.20 for retaliation under
9	Section 14.20.060 shall be subject to any appropriate relief at law or equity including, but not
10	limited to reinstatement of the aggrieved party, front pay in lieu of reinstatement with full
11	payment of unpaid compensation plus interest in favor of the aggrieved party under the terms of
12	this Chapter 14.20, and liquidated damages in an additional amount of up to twice the unpaid
13	compensation. The Director also shall order the imposition of a penalty payable to the aggrieved
14	party of up to $5,000.
15	D. A respondent who willfully violates the notice and posting requirements of
16	Section 14.20.025.B shall be subject to a civil penalty of $750 for the first violation and $1,000
17	for subsequent violations.
18	E. A respondent who willfully hinders, prevents, impedes, or interferes with the
19	Director or Hearing Examiner in the performance of their duties under this Chapter 14.20 shall
20	be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000.
21	F. For a first violation of this Chapter 14.20, the Director may assess a civil penalty
22	of up to $500 per aggrieved party. For a second violation of this Chapter 14.20, the Director shall
23	assess a civil penalty of up to $1,000 per aggrieved party, or an amount equal to ten percent of

1 the total amount of unpaid compensation, whichever is greater. For a third or any subsequent violation of this Chapter 14.20, the Director shall assess a civil penalty of up to $5,000 per 2 aggrieved party, or an amount equal to ten percent of the total amount of unpaid compensation, 3 4 whichever is greater. The maximum civil penalty for a violation of this Chapter 14.20 shall be $20,000 per aggrieved party, or an amount equal to ten percent of the total amount of unpaid 5 compensation, whichever is greater. For purposes of this Section 14.20.060, a violation is a 6 7 second, third, or subsequent violation if the respondent has been a party to one, two or more than two Settlement Agreements, respectively, stipulating that a violation has occurred; and/or one, 8 9 two, or more than two Director's Orders, respectively, have issued against the respondent in the ten years preceding the date of the violation; otherwise, it is a first violation. 10

G. For the following violations, the Director may assess a fine in the amounts set forth below:

Violation	Fine
Failure to provide employees with written	$500
notice of rights under subsection 14.20.025.B
Failure to provide employee with written	$500 per aggrieved party notice of employment information under subsection 14.20.025.D
Failure to provide employees with written	$500 per aggrieved party

Failure to provide notice of failure to comply	$500
with final order to the public under Section	·

The fine amounts shall be increased cumulatively by 50 percent of the fine for each preceding violation for each subsequent violation of the same provision by the same employer or person within a ten year period. The maximum amount that may be imposed in fines in any one year period for each type of violation listed above is $5,000 unless a fine for retaliation is issued, in which case the maximum amount is $20,000.

H. In addition to the unpaid compensation, penalties, fines, liquidated damages, and interest, the Agency may assess against the respondent in favor of the City reasonable costs incurred in enforcing this Chapter 14.20, including but not limited to reasonable attorneys' fees.

I. An employer that is the subject of a final order for which all appeal rights have been exhausted shall not be permitted to bid, or have a bid considered, on any City contract until such amounts due under the final order have been paid in full to the Director. If an employer is the subject of a final order two times or more within a five-year period, the contractor or subcontractor shall not be allowed to bid on any City contract for two years. This subsection 14.20.060.I. shall be construed to provide grounds for debarment separate from, and in addition

4	employers subject to debarment under this subsection 14.20.060.I.
5	Section 80. A new Section 14.20.065 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows:
6	14.20.065 Appeal period and failure to respond
7	A. An employee or other person who claims an injury as a result of an alleged
8	violation of this Chapter 14.20 may appeal the Determination of No Violation Shown, pursuant
9	to the rules of the Director.
10	B. A respondent may appeal the Director's Order, including all remedies issued
11	pursuant to Section 14.20.060, by requesting a contested hearing before the Hearing Examiner in
12	writing within 15 days of service of the Director's Order. If a respondent fails to appeal the
13	Director's Order within 15 days of service, the Director's Order shall be final. If the last day of
14	the appeal period so computed is a Saturday, Sunday, or federal or City holiday, the appeal
15	period shall run until 5 p.m. on the next business day.
16	Section 81. Section 14.20.070 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance

2. The Director is authorized and directed to promulgate rules consistent with Chapter 14.20.

B. Charges and Investigation

1. The failure of an employer to comply with any requirement imposed on an employer under Chapter 14.20 shall be a violation. The Agency may investigate any violations of Chapter 14.20. A charge alleging a violation of Chapter 14.20 should include a statement of the dates, places, and persons or entities responsible for such violation. A charge alleging a violation of Chapter 14.20 or pattern of such violations may also be filed by the Director if the Director has reason to believe that any person has been engaged or is engaging in a violation of Chapter 14.20.

- 2. The Agency shall encourage reporting pursuant to this Section by keeping confidential, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable laws, the name and other identifying information of the employee or person reporting the violation. Provided, however, that with the authorization of such person, the Agency may disclose this employee's or person's name and identifying information as necessary to enforce Chapter 14.20 or for other appropriate purposes.
- Charges filed under Chapter 14.20 must be filed within three years after the occurrence of the alleged violation.
- 4. The Director shall cause to be served or mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested, a copy of the charge on the employer within 20 days after the filing of the charge and shall promptly make an investigation thereof.
- 5. The investigation shall be directed to ascertain the facts concerning the alleged violation of Chapter 14.20, and shall be conducted in an objective and impartial manner.

6. During the investigation the Director shall consider any statement of position or evidence with respect to the allegations of the charge that the charging party or the employer wishes to submit. The Director shall have the authority to sign and issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of evidence, including but not limited to books, records, correspondence, and documents in the possession or under the control of the individual or entity subpoenaed.

C. Findings of Fact and Notice of Violation.

1. Except when there is an agreed upon settlement, the results of the investigation shall be reduced to written findings of fact, and a written determination shall be made by the Director that a violation of Chapter 14.20 has or has not occurred based on a preponderance of the evidence before the Director. The findings of fact shall be furnished promptly to the respondent and charging party or aggrieved party in the form of notice of violation or a written determination of no violation shown.

2. If the Director has a reasonable belief that a notice of violation for Chapter 14.20 also indicates a violation of Section 12.A.08.060, the Director may refer the complaint to the Seattle Police Department for further investigation or to the City Attorney's Office for prosecution.

D. Remedies

1. In addition to the civil penalties, provided for in this subsection 14.20.070.D, an employer found to be in violation of Chapter 14.20 shall be subject to full payment of unpaid wages and tip compensation plus accrued interest due to the charging or aggrieved party under the terms of Chapter 14.20. If the alleged amount of unpaid wage and tip compensation is ongoing at the time of the filing of the charge, the Director may order payment of amounts that accrue after the filing of the charge and before the date of the Director's order.

this Section shall be subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $125 for the first violation and $250 for subsequent violations.

An employer who willfully violates the notice and posting requirements of

3. An employer who willfully resists, prevents, impedes, or interferes with the Director in the performance of the Director's duties under Chapter 14.20 shall be subject to a civil penalty of not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000.

4. For a first time violation of Chapter 14.20, the Director shall issue a warning and may assess, in addition to the remedies provided in subsections D.1, D.2, and D.3 of this Section 14.20.070, a civil penalty of up to $500. For subsequent violations, the Director shall assess, in addition to the remedies provided in subsections D.1, D.2, and D.3 of this Section 14.20.070, a civil penalty as provided in this subsection 14.20.070.D.4. A civil penalty for a second time violation of Chapter 14.20 shall not be greater than $1,000 per employee or an amount equal to ten percent of the total amount of unpaid wage and tip compensation, whichever is greater. A civil penalty for a third violation of Chapter 14.20 shall not be greater than $5,000 per employee or an amount equal to ten percent of the total amount of unpaid wage and tip compensation, whichever is greater. The maximum civil penalty for a violation of Chapter 14.20 shall be $20,000 per employee.

5. Within 60 days of a notice of violation, the Director shall confer with the parties and determine the remedy due. The remedy shall be reduced to writing in an order of the Director.

6. If any employer quits business, sells out, exchanges, or otherwise disposes of the employer's business or stock of goods, any person who becomes a successor to the business becomes liable for the full amount of the remedy, as defined in the Director's order, against the employer's business under Chapter 14.20 if, at the time of the conveyance of the business, the successor has: (a) actual knowledge of the fact and amount of the Director's order or (b) a prompt, reasonable, and effective means of accessing and verifying the fact and amount of the Director's order.

E. Appeal Period and Failure to Respond

An employer may appeal the Director's order, including all remedies issued pursuant to subsection D, by requesting a contested hearing before the Hearing Examiner in writing within 15 days of service. If an employer fails to appeal the Director's order within 15 days of service, the Director's order shall be final and enforceable. If the last day of the appeal period so computed is a Saturday, Sunday, or federal or City holiday, the appeal period shall run until 5:00 pm on the next business day.

F. Appeal Procedure and Failure to Appear 1.))

A. Contested hearings shall be conducted pursuant to the procedures for hearing contested cases contained in Section 3.02.090 and the rules adopted by the Hearing Examiner for hearing contested cases. The review shall be conducted de novo and the ((The)) Director shall have the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence before the Hearing Examiner. Upon establishing such proof, the remedies and penalties imposed by the Director shall be upheld unless it is shown that the Director abused discretion. Failure to appear for a contested hearing will result in an order being entered finding that the employer committed the violation stated in or the Hearing Examiner, the Director shall refer the matter to the City Attorney for the filing of a civil action in King County Superior Court, the Seattle Municipal Court, or any other court of competent jurisdiction to enforce such order.

4. If prompt compliance with the remedy, as defined in a Director's order for which all appeal rights have been exhausted, is not forthcoming, the Director may request that the City's Department of Finance and Administrative Services refuse to issue, refuse to renew, or revoke any business license held or requested by the employer or person until such time as the employer complies with the remedy as defined in a Director's order. The City's Department of Finance and Administrative Services shall have the authority to refuse to issue, refuse to renew, or revoke any business license in accordance with this subsection 14.20.070.F.4.))

14.20.075 Appeal from Hearing Examiner order

A. The respondent may obtain judicial review of the decision of the Hearing Examiner by applying for a Writ of Review in the King County Superior Court within 30 days from the date of the decision in accordance with the procedure set forth in Chapter 7.16 RCW, other applicable law, and court rules.

1	B. The decision of the Hearing Examiner shall be final and conclusive unless review
2	is sought in compliance with this Section 14.20.075.
3	Section 83. Section 14.20.080 of the Seattle Municipal Code, enacted by Ordinance
4	124645, is amended as follows:
5	14.20.080 ((Severability)) Failure to comply with final order
6	((The provisions of Chapter 14.20 are declared to be separate and severable. If any clause,

9	affect the validity of the remainder of Chapter 14.20, or the validity of its application to other
10	persons or circumstances.))
11	A. If a respondent fails to comply within 30 days of service of any settlement
12	agreement with the Agency, or with any final order issued by the Director or the Hearing
13	Examiner for which all appeal rights have been exhausted, the Agency may pursue, but is not
14	limited to, the following measures to secure compliance:
15	1. The Director may require the respondent to post public notice of the
16	respondent's failure to comply in a form and manner determined by the Agency.
17	2. The Director may refer the matter to a collection agency. The cost to the City
18	for the collection services will be assessed as costs, at the rate agreed to between the City and the
19	collection agency, and added to the amounts due.
20	3. The Director may refer the matter to the City Attorney for the filing of a civil
21	action in King County Superior Court, the Seattle Municipal Court, or any other court of
22	competent jurisdiction to enforce such order or to collect amounts due. In the alternative, the

Section 14.20.085.

4. The Director may request that the City's Department of Finance and

Administrative Services deny, suspend, refuse to renew, or revoke any business license held or requested by the employer or person until such time as the employer complies with the remedy
as defined in the settlement agreement or final order. The City's Department of Finance and

license in accordance with this subsection 14.20.080.A.4.

B. No respondent that is the subject of a final order issued under this Chapter 14.20 shall quit business, sell out, exchange, convey, or otherwise dispose of the respondent's business or stock of goods without first notifying the Agency and without first notifying the respondent's successor of the amounts owed under the final order at least three business days prior to such transaction. At the time the respondent quits business, or sells out, exchanges, or otherwise disposes of the respondent's business or stock of goods, the full amount of the remedy, as defined in a final order issued by the Director or the Hearing Examiner, shall become immediately due and payable. If the amount due under the final order is not paid by respondent within ten days from the date of such sale, exchange, conveyance, or disposal, the successor shall become liable for the payment of the amount due, provided that the successor has actual knowledge of the order and the amounts due or has prompt, reasonable, and effective means of accessing and verifying the fact and amount of the order and the amounts due. The successor shall withhold from the purchase price a sum sufficient to pay the amount of the full remedy. When the successor makes such payment, that payment shall be deemed a payment upon the purchase price in the amount paid, and if such payment is greater in amount than the purchase price the amount of the difference shall become a debt due such successor from the employer.

Section 84. A new Section 14.20.085 is added to the Seattle Municipal Code as follows: 14.20.085 Debt owed The City of Seattle

All monetary amounts due under the Director's Order shall be a debt owed to the City and may be collected in the same manner as any other debt in like amount, which remedy shall be in addition to all other existing remedies, provided that amounts collected by the City for unpaid compensation, liquidated damages, penalties payable to aggrieved parties, or front pay shall be held in trust by the City for the aggrieved party and, once collected by the City, shall be

B. If a respondent fails to appeal a Director's Order to the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.20.065.B the Director's Order shall be final, and the Director may petition the Seattle Municipal Court to enforce the Director's Order by entering judgment in favor of the City finding that the respondent has failed to exhaust its administrative remedies and that all amounts and relief contained in the order are due. The Director's Order shall constitute prima facie evidence that a violation occurred and shall be admissible without further evidentiary foundation. Any certifications or declarations authorized under RCW 9A.72.085 containing evidence that the respondent has failed to comply with the order or any parts thereof, and is therefore in default, or that the respondent has failed to appeal the Director's Order to the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.20.065.B and therefore has failed to exhaust the respondent's administrative remedies, shall also be admissible

C. If a respondent fails to obtain judicial review of an order of the Hearing Examiner within the time period set forth in subsection 14.20.075.A, the order of the Hearing Examiner shall be final, and the Director may petition the Seattle Municipal Court to enforce the Director's Order by entering judgment in favor of the City for all amounts and relief due under the order of the Hearing Examiner. The order of the Hearing Examiner shall constitute conclusive evidence that the violations contained therein occurred and shall be admissible without further evidentiary foundation. Any certifications or declarations authorized under RCW 9A.72.085 containing evidence that the respondent has failed to comply with the order or any parts thereof, and is therefore in default, or that the respondent has failed to avail itself of judicial review in accordance with subsection 14.20.075.A, shall also be admissible without further evidentiary foundation.

D. In considering matters brought under subsections 14.20.085.B and 14.20.085.C, the Municipal Court may include within its judgment all terms, conditions, and remedies contained in the Director's Order or the order of the Hearing Examiner, whichever is applicable, that are consistent with the provisions of this Chapter 14.20.

14.20.090 ((Other legal requirements)) Private right of action

((Chapter 14.20 defines wage and tip compensation requirements for employees performing work within City limits and shall not be construed to preempt, limit, or otherwise affect the applicability of any other law, regulation, requirement, policy, or standard that provides for greater requirements; and nothing in Chapter 14.20 shall be interpreted or applied so as to create any power or duty in conflict with federal or state law. Nor shall Chapter 14.20 be construed to preclude any person aggrieved from seeking judicial review of any final administrative decision or order made under Chapter 14.20 affecting such person.))

A. Effective April 1, 2016, for claims against employers that employ 50 or more employees and effective April 1, 2017 for claims against employers that employ fewer than 50 employees, any person or class of persons that suffers financial injury as a result of a violation of this Chapter 14.20 or is the subject of prohibited retaliation under Section 14.20.035, may bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction against the employer or other person violating this Chapter 14.20 and, upon prevailing, may be awarded reasonable attorney fees and costs and such legal or equitable relief as may be appropriate to remedy the violation including, without limitation, the payment of any unpaid compensation plus interest due to the person and liquidated damages in an additional amount of up to twice the unpaid compensation; a penalty payable to any aggrieved party of up to $5,000 if the aggrieved party was subject to prohibited retaliation. Interest shall accrue from the date the unpaid compensation were first due at 12 percent per annum, or the maximum rate permitted under RCW 19.52.020.

- B. For purposes of determining employer size for this Section 14.20.090,
- 1. An employee who is not covered by this Chapter 14.20 shall be included in any determination of employer size.
- 2. Employer size for the current calendar year will be calculated based upon the average number per calendar week of employees who worked for compensation during the preceding calendar year for any and all weeks during which at least one employee worked for compensation. For employers that did not have any employees during the previous calendar year, the employer size will be calculated based upon the average number per calendar week of

1. BILL SUMMARY

Legislation Title: AN ORDINANCE relating to employment in Seattle; amending Chapters 14.16, 14.17, 14.19, and 14.20 of the Seattle Municipal Code to prescribe additional remedies and enforcement procedures, harmonize ordinance language, and add provisions to facilitate compliance; amending Section 3.14.931 of the Seattle Municipal Code to update duties of the Seattle Human Rights Commissions; and amending Section 5.55.230 of the Seattle Municipal Code to require labor standards compliance for business license tax certificates.

Summary and background of the Legislation:

Origin of Proposed Legislation

The ordinance responds to City Council's 2015-2016 Statement of Legislative Intent requesting legislation to address wage theft; the Office of City Auditor's 2014 recommendations to improve implementation of the Paid Sick and Safe Time ordinance; and the Office of Labor Standard's ideas for improved implementation developed over four years of conducting labor standards outreach/enforcement and gathering stakeholder input.

The ordinance seeks to prevent wage theft among Seattle workers, quickly recover wages owed, allow for investigations that protect identifying information, and facilitate compliance with Seattle's labor standards by (1) strengthening penalties and enforcement procedures; (2) harmonizing ordinance provisions; (3) adding new definitions and requirements; and (4) creating incentives for employers to resolve investigations quickly to ensure workers receive their owed compensation as soon as administratively possible. The ordinance revises and adds new sections to labor standards regarding paid sick and safe time, use of criminal records in employment decisions, minimum wage, and compensation due by reason of employment. The ordinance also revises the duties for the Human Rights Commission and revises criteria for issuance of City of Seattle Business Licenses.

Pervasiveness of Wage Theft

Research shows that employer theft of wages is a significant problem around the country. A seminal study by the National Employment Law Project found that more than two thirds of 4,387 workers surveyed in low-wage industries in Los Angeles, Chicago and New York experienced at least one pay-related violation in the previous work week, amounting to an average loss of 15 percent of weekly earnings. Application of this finding to the estimated 102,000 low wage workers in Seattle indicates that potentially tens of thousands of Seattle workers may regularly experience wage theft. Casa Latina, a Seattle-based non-profit organization, reported filing 100 wage theft complaints with the Washington Department of Labor and Industries in an 18-month period from 2010-11, and receiving 250 calls per year from workers who said that they were not getting paid. A comprehensive study of wage theft across the state, authored by a student at UW

Evans School of Public Affairs, reported that Washington State Labor and Industries closed 14,799 wage theft claims from 2009 to 2013 adding up to $46 million in claims. The average claim per worker in King County was $3,281.25.<sup>2</sup>

Encouraging greater compliance with labor standards benefits all workers by ensuring a level playing field in the labor market. Greater compliance also benefits businesses that already comply with these laws. This ordinance seeks a stronger incentive for employees to report labor standards violations and for employers to comply with labor standards requirements.

2. CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM
This legislation creates, funds, or amends a CIP Project.
3. SUMMARY OF FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS
$\underline{x}$ This legislation does not have direct financial implications.
3.a. Appropriations
This legislation adds, changes, or deletes appropriations.
3.b. Revenues/Reimbursements
This legislation adds, changes, or deletes revenues or reimbursements.
Revenue/Reimbursement Notes:
This legislation permits the Director to impose civil penalties and fines, deposited in the City's General Fund, as a way to remedy an employer's labor standards. OLS will know more information about the revenue resulting from this legislation after implementation.
3.c. Positions
This legislation adds, changes, or deletes positions.
4. OTHER IMPLICATIONS
a) Does the legislation have indirect or long-term financial impacts to the City of

- a) Does the legislation have indirect or long-term financial impacts to the City of Seattle that are not reflected in the above?
   No.
- b) Is there financial cost or other impacts of not implementing the legislation? No.
- c) Does this legislation affect any departments besides the originating department?

The City's Department of Finance and Administrative Services shall have the authority to refuse to issue, refuse to renew, or revoke any business license for an employer's failure to comply with a settlement agreement or final order, in accordance with the Ordinance, specifically subsection SMC 5.55.230.A.9.

This ordinance also permits the City Attorney's Office to pursue collection procedures against an employer that fails to comply with a settlement agreement or final order.

- d) Is a public hearing required for this legislation? No.
- e) Is publication of notice with The Daily Journal of Commerce and/or The Seattle Times required for this legislation?
  No.
- f) Does this legislation affect a piece of property? No.
- g) Please describe any perceived implication for the principles of the Race and Social Justice Initiative. Does this legislation impact vulnerable or historically disadvantaged communities?

This proposal will advance RSJI principles and positively impact vulnerable or historically disadvantaged communities by increasing compliance with labor standards that are designed to address income inequality, protect public health and public safety, promote equal access to employment benefits, reduce the impact of criminal history in employment, and advance equitable treatment in the workplace. While all Seattle workers will benefit from implementation of these labor standards, people of color, women, LGBTQ workers, people with disabilities and immigrants and refugees represent a substantial portion of the low income working community that would otherwise not have access to the minimum requirements and protections of these ordinances.

h) If this legislation includes a new initiative or a major programmatic expansion: What are the long-term and measurable goals of the program? Please describe how this legislation would help achieve the program's desired goals.

The long term goals of this ordinance are to promote workplace equity for all Seattle workers, with a particular focus on vulnerable or historically disadvantaged workers by encouraging employer compliance with critical labor standards protections and providing appropriate compensation to workers for labor standards violations.

Examples of how the ordinance achieves the goal of encouraging employer compliance include increased penalties/fines that raise the cost of violations; enforcement measures that promote swift resolution of problems such as mitigation of penalties for prompt payment to workers; consistent enforcement procedures and definitions of key terms to promote better understanding of labor standards requirements; and modification of key terms to facilitate implementation such as broadening the definition of the year-long period for meeting Paid Sick and Safe Time requirements.

Examples of how the ordinance achieves the goal of appropriately compensating workers include new measures to encourage reporting of violations such as strengthening antiretaliation provisions, codifying protections against disclosure of identifying information of complainants and witnesses; increasing remedies to up to three times unpaid wages to compensate workers for the delay in payment; creating a private right of action for complaints regarding Paid Sick and Safe Time, Minimum Wage and Wage Theft; adding a workplace poster requirement with necessary translations for all ordinances; and modifying/creating other provisions to promote stronger enforcement and improved compliance.

The Office of Labor Standards will publically share information on the outcomes of this ordinance through monthly reports to the Mayor on the amount of technical assistance provided to employers and the percentage of money collected for violations. The office's goal is to collect 90% of money assessed for violations; this is an important measure of success for the office's enforcement efforts since research shows that other labor standards agencies encounter significant obstacles with collections, sometimes collecting less than 50% of the amount assessed for workers.

OLS also will report on employer outreach and enforcement outcomes on a monthly dashboard posted on the office's web site and will create an on-line database with information on labor standards violations. Additionally, the office will monitor compliance of individual employers; gather stakeholder input; evaluate results from the University of Washington Audit of the Minimum Wage Ordinance; and continually incorporate this information into the office's implementation strategies.
