Dear Ms. Martinez Simmons,

Acting under my authority in Article IV, Section 12 of the Seattle City Charter, I have vetoed and am returning Council Bill 119551, which amends the law governing the uses of the Sweetened Beverage Tax (SBT) revenue.

I agree that the Sweetened Beverage Tax is regressive and should be used only for the purposes set forth in the adopting ordinance, and to further expand important City investments for our most vulnerable population. Every one of the programs funded in the adopted and endorsed budget met these requirements. Council has now changed its mind and only wants to fund new programs. This eliminates $6.3 million in funding for critical programs without identifying additional revenue or corresponding budget reductions. This $6.3 million budget deficit is in addition to the $1.1 million deficit created by Council Bill 119402 and the new $1.9 million in ongoing funding commitments directed for human services provider wages in Council Bill 119542.

My first priority throughout the debate over Council Bill 119551 has been to protect any potential cuts to the existing low-income programs that are currently funded by the Sweetened Beverage Tax. Council's own Central Staff had warned that "[p]rograms where [Sweetened Beverage Tax] revenues were used to supplant General Fund resources could be reduced or eliminated as a result of this legislation, barring other budget cuts or creation of new revenue sources to backfill the removal of SBT funds." Throughout this entire discussion, Council has never proposed potential new sources of revenue or cuts.

I urge Council to reconsider its vote on this legislation and to work collaboratively with me on a potential solution for the 2020 Budget, as well as the next biennium budget. As Council also knows, its attempt to set budget parameters in this way is inconsistent with budget authority laws and practices.

Sincerely,

Jenny A. Durkan
Mayor of Seattle

1. BILL SUMMARY

Legislation Title: AN ORDINANCE related to creating a fund for Sweetened Beverage Tax revenues; adding a new Section 5.53.055 to the Seattle Municipal Code; and providing additional guidelines for expending proceeds.

Summary and background of the Legislation: In 2017, the Council established the Sweetened Beverage Tax (SBT), which imposes a tax on businesses that distribute sugar-sweetened beverages, through Ordinance 125324. This legislation would: create a Sweetened Beverage Tax fund to track revenues collected from the tax and expenditures by City departments; codify financial policies for revenues included in Ordinance 125324 by adding a new section to Chapter 5 of the Seattle Municipal Code; increase flexibility for the allocation of funds to one-time and limited-term expenditures, allowing up to 10 percent of SBT proceeds to be used for these purposes; and require that all SBT revenues be used solely for expanding existing programs or creating new programs that align with SBT financial policies, beginning on the effective date of the ordinance.

2. CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM

Does this legislation create, fund, or amend a CIP Project? ___ Yes X No

3. SUMMARY OF FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

Does this legislation amend the Adopted Budget? ___ Yes X No

Does the legislation have other financial impacts to the City of Seattle that are not reflected in the above, including direct or indirect, short-term or long-term costs?

This legislation would impact about $6.3 million of SBT proceeds that were used to supplant General Fund resources in the endorsed 2020 budget and may impact supplemental 2019 budgets, if they propose to use SBT revenues to supplant other funding resources.

Is there financial cost or other impacts of not implementing the legislation?

No.

4. OTHER IMPLICATIONS

- a. Does this legislation affect any departments besides the originating department?
Programs where SBT revenues were used to supplant General Fund resources could be reduced or eliminated as a result of this legislation, barring other budget cuts or creation of new revenue sources to backfill the removal of SBT funds. These programs are administered by the Office of Sustainability and Environment, the Human Services Departments, and the Department of Education and Early Learning. If the necessary funds are located, the intent of this legislation is to increase spending for those and other programs in accordance with statute.

No.

No.
- e. Does this legislation affect a piece of property?
No.
- f. Please describe any perceived implication for the principles of the Race and Social Justice Initiative. Does this legislation impact vulnerable or historically disadvantaged communities?
This legislation is intended to ensure that SBT revenues are used to increase services for Seattle residents most likely to be impacted by the tax, who are typically low-income, communities of color.
- g. If this legislation includes a new initiative or a major programmatic expansion: What are the specific long-term and measurable goal(s) of the program? How will this legislation help achieve the program's desired goal(s).
