

ORDINANCE NO. 190.

Creating the Office of Steward of the Engine House, Defining his Duties and Fixing his Compensation.

The City of Seattle does ordain as follows, to-wit:

SECTION 1. The office of Steward of the Engine House is hereby created.

SEC. 2. The salary of the Steward shall be $45 per month, payable in scrip drawn on the Fire Fund, and no greater fee or salary shall be allowed.

SEC. 3. The Steward of the Engine House shall at no time be allowed to leave the Engine House either day or night except to go to his meals and on Sundays, without a special permission from the Foreman of the Fire Company; and for any violation of this Section it is hereby made the duty of the Foreman of the Fire Company to discharge such Steward.

SEC. 4. The Foreman of the Fire Company shall have full power at any time to hire and discharge the Steward of the Engine House.

SEC. 5. The Steward shall not be permitted to make any purchases for the Engines or Engine House without a written order from the Foreman of the Fire Company.

SEC. 6. This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after five days after the same shall have been published.

Passed the Common Council of the City of Seattle this 5th day of September, 1879, and approved and returned the same day.

O. JACOBS,
Mayor.

Attest:

E. S. OSBORNE, City Clerk.
