A RESOLUTION providing guidance for the development of the Housing Levy's Special Needs and Single Occupancy Production Program Administrative and Financial Plan.

WHEREAS, Ordinance 112904 requires the Department of Community Development to prepare an administrative and financial plan for the Housing Levy's Special Needs and Single Occupancy Housing Production Program (hereinafter referred to as the Special Needs Program) for City Council approval; and

WHEREAS, the Human Services Strategic Planning Office was directed by the City Council to conduct research and report their finding on the housing and service needs of special populations in the City of Seattle as background for the development of the administrative and financial plan; and

WHEREAS, Housing Levy funds will be enough to meet only 10 to 20% of the estimated current need for special needs housing; and

WHEREAS, a policy framework and targeting strategy has been recommended by the Human Services Strategic Planning Office to achieve the maximum impact with levy funds; and

WHEREAS, City Council concurrence with the recommendations resulting from the Human Services Strategic Planning Office's research is needed to guide the development of the Administrative and Financial Plan for the Special Needs Program; Now, Therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SEATTLE, THE MAYOR CONCURRING:

The City Council is providing the following policy guidance to the Department of Community Development which shall be reflected in the Administrative and Financial Plan for the Special Needs Program:

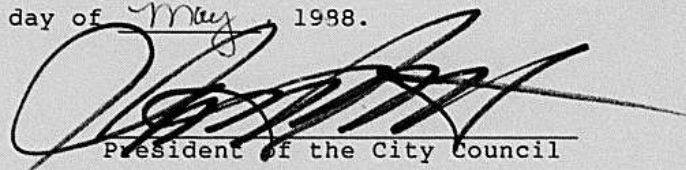

1. For 1988 and 1989 the Housing Levy's Special Needs Program shall focus on the homeless, with funds used to meet the needs of homeless people;
2. Special Needs Program funds shall be used primarily to address the needs of six target groups within the homeless population:

HOUSING AND HUMAN SERVICES
COMMITTEE REPORT

April 19, 1988

RESOLUTION SPECIFYING GROUPS TO BE TARGETED BY THE HOUSING LEVY'S SPECIAL NEEDS PROGRAM

BACKGROUND / WHAT THIS RESOLUTION DOES

As you will recall, the Housing and Human Services Committee has looked at this issue twice in recent weeks: HSSPO presented their research and recommendations on populations to be served by the Levy's Special Needs Program, and then a panel discussed these recommendations at the last Committee meeting.

This resolution essentially states that the Special Needs Program should be targeted to the homeless in general and to the groups recommended by HSSPO in particular. In addition, however, the resolution states that some flexibility should be provided for programs for homeless individuals not on HSSPO's list (Section 3), as recommended by several participants in the panel discussion.
