RESOLUTION 30124

A RESOLUTION acknowledging Black History Month and celebrating the inestimable importance of African-Americans in American History.

Whereas, for over two and a half centuries African Americans have struggled against the cruelties of slavery, discrimination, and economic and social inequality; and

Whereas, despite these extraordinary human trials, African Americans have fiercely, lovingly and courageously shaped American society and values through service, leadership, intellectual power and the development of moral character in every enterprise and walk of life; and

Whereas, Black History Month challenges us to learn the deeds of Sam Smith, Crispus Attucks, Marion Anderson, Kathleen Battle, Homer A. Plessy, Paul Cuffe, Frederick Douglas, George Washington Carver, Charles Hamilton Houston, Gwendolyn Brooks, Rosa Parks, Ira Aldridge, Ernest Just, James Weldon Johnson, Claude McKay, Countee Cullen, Nella Larsen, Ida B.
