RESOLUTION 30817

A RESOLUTION stating that the City Council requests that the Mayor include one million dollars in the 2007-2008 Proposed Biennial Budget toward construction of a new Rainier Vista Boys and Girls Club (RVB&GC) educational and recreational facility supporting primarily low-income youth, to be a part of the newly-developed Rainier Vista public-housing community.

WHEREAS, the City has a need for and an interest in ensuring that children from low-income families have access to enriching before/after-school educational and recreational activities; and

WHEREAS, City planning processes have identified the need for before/after-school and recreation opportunities in Southeast Seattle, especially in the area around the RVB&GC; and

WHEREAS, since 1976, RVB&GC's has served the entire Rainier Valley, including three Seattle Housing Authority (SHA) communities - Rainier Vista, New Holly and Yesler Terrace. With 25% of Seattle's children residing there, Rainier Valley has the highest concentration of youth in the City; and

WHEREAS, in 2004, the RVB&GC served 950 children and teens - 80% of the members are children of color, 90% are low income; and

WHEREAS, the RVB&GC programs provide critical access to low-cost, positive activities during before/after-school hours. These programs include activities that promote academic success, build self-esteem, and encourage personal goal setting; and

WHEREAS, the Hope VI redevelopment of Rainier Vista was announced in 2000 which would demolish all existing structures, including the RVB&GC, to create a modern community of housing with mixed-use and mixed-income components; and

WHEREAS, wanting RVB&GC to continue its vital service to this community, SHA has agreed to work with the RVB&GC to relocate its facility and expand its services in the heart of the redevelopment design and has pledged $1 million dollars for site development costs; and

WHEREAS, RVB&GC has launched a capital campaign to build a new $12 million, 40,000 square foot regional facility including a traditional Club, dedicated teen space, two full size gyms, multi-purpose playfields and parking; and

WHEREAS, construction is expected to begin in 2007, with a move in year of 2008. NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SEATTLE, THE MAYOR CONCURRING, THAT:

SECTION 1. The City Council requests that the Mayor include one million dollars in the 2007-2008 proposed biennial budget toward construction of a new Rainier Vista Boys and Girls Club educational and recreational facility supporting primarily low-income youth, to be a part of the newly re-developed Rainier Vista public-housing community.

SECTION 2. The City Council further requests that release of these funds be made contingent upon the City's entry into a contract with the Rainier Vista Boys and Girls Club on terms acceptable to the City.

Adopted by the City Council the 28th day of November 2005, and signed by me in open session in authentication of its adoption this 28th day of November, 2005.

President _____ of the City Council

THE MAYOR CONCURRING:

Gregory J. Nickels, Mayor

Legislation Title: A RESOLUTION stating that the City Council requests that the Mayor include one million dollars in the 2007-2008 Proposed Biennial Budget toward construction of a new Rainier Vista Boys and Girls Club (RVB&GC) educational and recreational facility supporting primarily low-income youth, to be a part of the newly-developed Rainier Vista public-housing community.

Summary of the Legislation: City Council requests that the Mayor include one million dollars in the 2007-2008 Proposed Biennial Budget toward construction of a new Rainier Vista Boys and Girls Club (RVB&GC) educational and recreational facility supporting primarily low-income youth, to be a part of the newly-developed Rainier Vista public-housing community.

- Background: (Include brief description of the purpose and context of legislation and include record of previous legislation and funding history, if applicable):

Reasons for stating the City's legislative intent to include funding for RVB&GC in the Mayor's 2007-2008 Proposed Biennial Budget include:

- The City has a need for and an interest in ensuring that children from low-income families have access to enriching before/after-school educational and recreational activities.
- City planning processes have identified the need for before/after-school and recreation opportunities in Southeast Seattle, especially in the area around the RVB&GC.
- In 2004, the RVB&GC served 950 children and teens - 80% of the members are children of color, 90% are low income.
- The Hope VI redevelopment of Rainier Vista was announced in 2000 which would demolish all existing structures, including the RVB&GC, to create a modern community of housing with mixed-use and mixed-income components.
- RVB&GC has launched a capital campaign to build a new $12 million, 40,000 square foot regional facility including a traditional Club, dedicated teen space, two full size gyms, multi-purpose playfields and parking.

Notes:

- What is the financial cost of not implementing this legislation? (Estimate the costs to the City of not implementing the legislation, including estimated costs to maintain or expand an existing facility or the cost avoidance due to replacement of an existing facility, potential conflicts with regulatory requirements, or other potential costs if the legislation is not implemented). The impact of not implementing this legislation will be felt by the substantial amount low-income children and youths and their families in Southeast Seattle. If the City does not meet the needs of these children and youths, there could be financial and social costs associated with increased delinquency.

- What are the possible alternatives to the legislation that could achieve the same or similar objectives? (Include any potential alternatives to the proposed legislation, such as reducing fee-supported activities, identifying outside funding sources for fee-supported activities, etc.) na

- Is the legislation subject to public hearing requirements? (If yes, what public hearings have been held to date)

- Other Issues (including long-term implications of the legislation): The resolution will impact the future Mayor's 2007-2008 Proposed Biennial Budget by appropriating one million dollars for the Rainier Vista Boys & Girls Club.
