1. BILL SUMMARY

Legislation Title: AN ORDINANCE relating to rental agreements; relieving a tenant experiencing domestic violence, sexual assault, unlawful harassment, or stalking from liability for damage to the landlord's property caused by a perpetrator of domestic violence, sexual assault, unlawful harassment, or stalking; creating a landlord mitigation program; and amending Sections 7.24.020, 7.24.030, and 22.206.170 of, and adding new Section 7.24.033 to, the Seattle Municipal Code.

Summary and background of the Legislation: During 2018, the Housing Justice Project of the King County Bar Association (HJP) and the Seattle Women's Commission (SWC) researched court documents associated with eviction proceedings (known as unlawful detainers) in King County in 2017. The goal was to conduct "a deep analysis of eviction causes, processes, and outcomes" in Seattle. At the September 21, 2018 CRUEDA meeting, HJP and SWC presented the results of their research, contained in the report "Losing Home: The Human Cost of Eviction in Seattle". The report made many findings regarding the characteristics of tenants being evicted, locations from where landlords were evicting tenants, the reasons for eviction, the factors leading to tenants facing eviction, the outcomes of eviction cases, and how eviction impacts tenants. One of the challenges related to eviction the report identified is the financial hardships of tenants who are experiencing domestic violence as related to retaining tenancy. Tenants experiencing domestic violence or who are the victim of sexual assault, stalking or unlawful harassment can be held liable for damages caused by the person perpetrating those crimes. This bill addresses the issue of the tenant's liability for such damage and creates a mitigation fund from which landlords can be reimbursed for the costs of repairing damage to their property caused by a perpetrator of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking or unlawful harassment.
