The resolution includes the implementation of the Inclusive and Equitable City Cabinet that will coordinate City efforts to protect the civil liberties and civil rights of all Seattle residents and provide supportive services and information as necessary to various communities. This Cabinet will:

- Develop an investment strategy for the $250,000 added in the 2016 4th Quarter Supplemental to address the needs of Seattle Public School students who are undocumented or from immigrant or refugee families.
- Institute and Rapid Response Policy Coalition to bring together City staff, non-profit groups, private sector attorneys, and other policy experts to offer analyses and action items on federal executive orders and legislation.
- Develop a public awareness campaign around hate speech and crimes.
- Conduct a review of the potential policy and financial impacts of new federal initiatives on City departments.
- Work with immigrant and refugee community stakeholders and community-based organizations.
- Work with regional partners to share knowledge and information and the City's efforts.
- Develop a strategy for the creation and funding of a Legal Defense Fund.
