

Data for Planning in Seattle

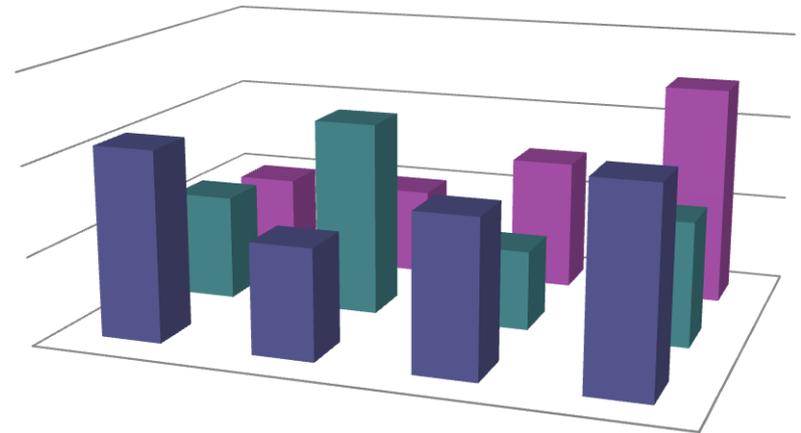

Joint City Council/School Board

Meeting

May 24, 2010

Data about the Past

- Housing units built
- Jobs added
- Population
- Age and income
- Transportation usage
- Public facilities

Looking into the Future

Forecasts of population and employment

- State forecasts population at the county level for entire state
- PSRC forecasts population and employment for 4-county region for traffic analysis zones

Looking into the Future

Development Capacity

- Approximately how many housing units and jobs could be added, under current zoning
- 150,000 housing units & 280,000 jobs
- Subject to change through future zoning decisions

Looking into the Future

Growth Targets

- Policy for how much growth we plan to accommodate over 20 years
- Countywide agreement for all cities, based on state population forecasts and Vision 2040 strategy
- Seattle – 70,000 households and 115,000 jobs

Data for Planning in Seattle

Questions ?

Tom Hauger
Department of Planning and Development
206.684.8380
tom.hauger@seattle.gov

