1. Northwest corner, South King Street and 12th Ave, South

2:00 p.m. to 2:15 p.m.

Welcome and agenda, Maiko Winkler-Chin

Trespassing and car prowls, Teizi Mersai

Brief description: Little Saigon plays a crucial role in providing needs for residents and customers outside of this neighborhood because of its high concentration of small businesses. As a business manager of Lam Seafood market, Teizi will discuss concerns regarding trespassing and car prowls in the Little Saigon area.

2. Northeast corner, South King Street and 10th Ave, South

2:20 p.m. to 2:35 p.m.

East – West Precinct challenges, Michael Yee

Brief description: Little Saigon and Chinatown/Japantown are in two different precincts, a situation that presents challenges for coordinating responses and strategy. Community organizers will share their concerns and suggestions.

3. Hing Hay Park, South King Street and Maynard Ave, South

2:40 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Seattle Police Department staffing issues, Maiko Winkler-Chin and Alan Lai

Brief description: The presenters will discuss SPD's presence in the neighborhood and some of the current collaborative work between SPD and the community on personal safety and 9-1-1 call training. They will also discuss foot patrols and proposed cuts to the crime prevention program.

4. Alley entrance on South King Street opposite Hing Hay Park

3:00 p.m. to 3:15 p.m.

Graffiti and alleys, Don Blakeney

Brief description: The current graffiti situation and efforts from the community to abate the problem will be discussed.

5. Danny Woo Garden, South Main Street and Maynard Ave, South

3:35 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Danny Woo garden issues and closing, Hyeok Kim

Brief description: A discussion of public safety issues in the Danny Woo community garden will be the last issue covered. The tour will wrap up with a summary of key points and important policy issues that need support from the City Council.
