PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

A principal with Weber Thompson, Wolf has a total of 25 years experience in all phases of architectural practice. He is skilled in adeptly translating the goals of the client into a successful project within the constraints of code, budget and schedule. He is recognized for his leadership in the completion of a diverse portfolio of projects for private and public clients in the Puget Sound region, as well as nationally and internationally. Whether the project is small or large, simple or complex, Wolf's delivery of a soundly-managed process is aimed at assuring the client of design excellence and a successful built project.

Wolf is an advocate of the profession and has served on the Board of Directors of the Seattle Chapter of the American Institute of Architects. His focus is lifelong learning, and he was instrumental in the implementation of a program for continuing education as a requirement for membership in the AIA. His educational focus extends to the academic environment as well; he is a member of the Washington State University Advisory Board to the School of Architecture.
