 CITY CLERK

Mohamed Adan

Why do you want to serve on the Youth Commission again? I am really interested in continuing to serve on the Education Sub Committee because I believe we are making real and exciting progress and I thoroughly enjoy making a difference in an area I am passionate about. Also the Youth Commission in general is awesome.

What was your most positive experience as a Youth Commissioner this year? I enjoyed working with the Education subcommittee. Everything from observing the Levy Oversight Committee to testifying before the City Council was exciting and very rewarding.

What skills or knowledge did you gain this year, and what would you hope to gain next year? I gained a more intimate knowledge of how the city operates. I learned how the different agencies are interconnected and how they work together to govern the city. Next year I hope to gain even more knowledge of how the city operates, and more importantly I wish to learn how I can apply that knowledge to effect change in my community.

How would you be an active leader on the Commission next year? As a second year member I will take a more aggressive role in making the education subcommittee the best it can be. The no nonsense group.

What's the one thing you'd most like to accomplish as a Commissioner next year? I want to see a SYC member appointed to the Levy Oversight Committee. I also wish to build stronger relations with the Superintendent of Seattle Public Schools and bridges with members of the Seattle School Board.
