RESUME

Dale Tiffany

Seattle, WA

Dale is currently a consultant specializing in solving management problems, organizational development and strategic planning. He has over 35 years of leadership and management experience specializing in strategic planning, organizational development, and problem-solving and project management at the state and local government and community level.

Dale has several years experience in law and justice planning at the local and state level working with local (including Tribal government) police departments, courts systems, prosecutor and defender offices as well as citizens oversight/advisory boards.

He has served as a project and department director for the City of Seattle including multi-year stints as Director of the Mayor's Violence Prevention Program, Director of the Department of Licenses and Consumer Affairs, Director of Policy and Outreach for the Seattle Office for Civil Rights, as well as Director of the Seattle Law and Justice Planning Office.

Community volunteer work includes service on the board of Directors for the Seattle Indian Center, Southeast Seattle Community Organization, Seattle chapter of the United Nations Association of the USA, and the Filipino Youth Activities, Inc.

He recently completed a two-year consulting project that resulted in a strategic educational plan for the Confederated Salish and Kootenai Tribes of the Flathead Reservation.
