AN ORDINANCE relating to rates and charges for water services of Seattle Public Utilities; revising water rates and charges and amending Seattle Municipal Code Chapter 21.04 in connection therewith; removing Water District 61 and Richmond Beach Area meter surcharges and amending Seattle Municipal Code 21.12 in connection therewith; and revising credits to low-income customers and amending Seattle Municipal Code Chapter 21.76 in connection therewith.

WHEREAS, capital and operating requirements of the Water Fund have increased in recent years in response to security, environmental and infrastructure concerns, with a resulting increase in the revenue requirements of the Water Fund; and

WHEREAS, demand for water service and new water installations have declined since water rates were last modified, causing revenue shortfalls; and

WHEREAS, certain sections of the Seattle Municipal Code pertaining to water rates are obsolete; and

WHEREAS, Seattle's retail water customers located within the areas of the former Richmond Beach Water Company and former King County Water District No. 61 have reimbursed Seattle Public Utilities for the costs of their respective acquisitions and resulting required improvements, so that surcharges on these customers are no longer required; and

WHEREAS, the water rates authorized by this ordinance are consistent with the general ratemaking policies set forth in Resolution 30742, adopted March 28, 2005; and

WHEREAS, credits for qualified low-income customers should be revised when water rates change; NOW, THEREFORE,

FISCAL NOTE FOR NON-CAPITAL PROJECTS

Department:	Contact Person/Phone:	CBO Analyst/Phone:
Seattle Public Utilities	Craig Omoto 615-0025	Karen Grove 684-5805

Legislation Title:

AN ORDINANCE relating to rates and charges for water services of Seattle Public Utilities; revising water rates and charges and amending Seattle Municipal Code Chapter 21.04 in connection therewith; removing Water District 61 and Richmond Beach Area meter surcharges and amending Seattle Municipal Code 21.12 in connection therewith; and revising credits to low-income customers and amending Seattle Municipal Code Chapter 21.76 in connection therewith.

Summary of the Legislation:

This ordinance would revise water rates for residential, general service, wholesale and public fire customers and adjust low-income assistance credits for water customers. This ordinance would increase rates to meet debt service coverage requirements driven largely by past capital financing decisions, including debt restructuring and bonds issued over the past 20 years to build major capital projects to meet regulatory requirements and ensure an adequate supply of pure water for generations.

Background:

The cost of water services is supported by rates charged to water customers, which were last adopted by the City Council in 2008 for the period 2009 to 2011, and are set according to financial policies adopted by the City Council. Those rates were based on cost, revenue and demand assumptions from 2008. They did not account for the impacts of the economic downturn that ensued during the rate recovery period. The slowdown in the economy significantly impacted both water demand and new development, creating a revenue shortfall that is addressed in this water rate proposal.

A significant increase in revenues is required to meet the Water Fund's debt service coverage financial policy target by the end of 2014. This is the result two primary factors. This first is debt service associated with major capital projects including water treatment facilities on the Tolt and Cedar Rivers, coverings for five open reservoirs due to federal regulations, and investments to meet federal requirements embodied in the Cedar River Watershed Habitat Conservation Program. The second is the 2008 decision to replace Water Fund variable rate debt with fixed rate debt in response to financial market volatility. While this decision was an effective response to financial volatility, it had the effect of increasing the amount of senior lien debt and thereby lowering actual debt service coverage below the policy target of 1.70.

A complete description of the 2012-2014 rate package is contained in the 2012-2014 Water Rate Study, which is attached to this fiscal note.

Revenue/Reimbursement Notes:

Additional Water Fund revenue of $19.2 million reflects the combined effect of the proposed legislation applied to current demand forecasts of retail, general service, wholesale, and public fire (hydrant) demand, as compared to that same demand at 2011 rates. Because these customer classes are discussed in various sections of the attached 2012-2014 Water Rate Study, this $19.2 million does not appear in one location in the document. The 2012-2014 Water Rate Study also proposes 2013 and 2014 rates, which, when applied to the current demand forecast, will increase 2013 and 2014 revenues $33,941,765 and $50,032,362, respectively, over current law.

Other Implications:

- a) Does the legislation have indirect financial implications, or long-term implications?

As described above, this legislation proposes rates for the following three years and makes long term capital investments in the water system to ensure a safe supply of water and meet regulatory requirements.

- b) What is the financial cost of not implementing the legislation?

The Water Fund would not fully recover the cost of its business operations and meet its financial policy targets. This could result in a downgrade in the Fund's bond ratings and increase the cost of borrowing in the future.

- c) Does this legislation affect any departments besides the originating department?

Several City departments have facilities that incur water costs. The water fees for these departments will increase commensurate with the rate increases proposed in this legislation. The impacts will be included in the 2012 Proposed Budget. The impacted departments include: Seattle Center, the City Budget Office, Seattle City Light, the Department of Neighborhoods, the Seattle Department of Transportation, the Seattle Fire Department, the Department of Finance and Administrative Services, the Department of Parks and Recreation, the Seattle Police Department, Seattle Public Utilities, and the Seattle Public Library.

d) What are the possible alternatives to the legislation that could achieve the same or similar objectives?

Not raising the rates at this time would result in the Water Fund failing to recover the cost of its operations and to meet its financial policies. Alternatively, the Water Fund could meet its financial policies without raising rates by cutting the cost of its operations by the amounts shown above; however, this would result in an inability to pay for basic operations or make important investments in the water system.

e) Is the legislation subject to public hearing requirements?

No.

f) Other Issues:

None.

City of Seattle
Office of the Mayor

July 12, 2011

Honorable Richard Conlin
President
Seattle City Council
City Hall, 2nd Floor

Dear Council President Conlin:

I am transmitting the attached proposed Council Bill and supporting rate study that would establish Seattle Public Utilities' (SPU's) water rates for the period 2012-2014. This water rate package funds investments in the supply and distribution of safe, pure water for Seattle residents and wholesale customers throughout the region, complies with regulatory requirements, and promotes continued conservation.

The proposed rates are necessary to cover SPU's cost of operations and would increase the typical monthly residential water bill by $2.41 in 2012, $2.68 in 2013 and $2.91 in 2014. Since water rates were last adopted in 2008, the slowdown in the economy significantly impacted both water demand and new development, creating a revenue shortfall that is addressed in this water rate proposal. In addition, by City policy, the Water Fund's annual revenues after operating and maintenance costs need to exceed debt service obligations by 1.7 times. While placing upward pressure on SPU's rates, this prudent policy helps SPU receive high credit ratings and sell bonds to fund infrastructure investments at the lowest possible cost. Debt service payments are associated with several major capital investments made during the past decade, including water treatment facilities on the Tolt and Cedar Rivers, coverings for five open reservoirs, and investments to meet federal requirements embodied in the Cedar River Watershed Habitat Conservation Program. These investments will benefit ratepayers for years to come.

To help minimize rate increases while still complying with regulations and financial policies, SPU reduced its budget significantly between 2009 and 2011, removing 85 FTE across the department and curtailing other expenses. As a result, this rate study is able to propose capital and operating expenditures for 2012 that are lower than amounts assumed for 2011 in the 2009-2011 rate study.

The proposed rates will strengthen the financial health of the Water Fund and allow SPU to continue providing pure drinking water to Seattle residents and wholesale customers at less than a penny a gallon.
